Her shell bonnet was covered in matching blue lace and she wore corresponding lace mitts. She carried a nosegay of pink asters with blue cascading streamers.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Jewell Harrel of Raleigh and Messdames D. C. McLawhorn, Jr., and J. C. Coltrain of Williamston. They wore pastel ballerina length gowns and wrist corsages of yellow carnations.

Her shop is located at 1213 Arendell street in the John Lashley home. The house lends itself well to period furniture. Most of the rooms have been refurnished with antiques.

Pine, maple and cherry predominate in the antique furniture on display. Mrs. McIntosh is proud to have among her collection a Lazy Susan, hutch and tavern tables and several corner cupboards.

Mrs. McIntosh is a native of Southern Pines and has an antique shop there. During the summer months, it is operated under the management of her sister and brother-in-law.

Mrs. McIntosh will remain in Morehead City until after Labor Day.

Handy Chives
If you have chives growing in your backyard you can use them in many dishes during the summer. They're delicious added to creamed cottage cheese, scrambled eggs, or to buttered noodles or elbow macaroni. Try sprinkling them on sliced tomatoes that have been marinated in French dressing; add them, also to a tossed green salad.

Mix flaked tuna or salmon with finely diced celery and mayonnaise and use as a filling for toasted hamburger buns.
