Miss Mary Ruth Nelson, Larry Paul Married in Friday Ceremony

Miss Mary Ruth Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harold Nelson of Beaufort, and Larry Smallwood Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Paul of North Harlowe were married Friday, June 27, at 8 o'clock in the evening in Ann Street Methodist church.

The Rev. T. R. Jenkins, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladiolus. Prior to the wedding ceremony, Mrs. John Butler, organist, gave a program of nuptial music and Mrs. Jarvis Herring, soloist, sang because, Through the Years and O. Perfect Love.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a short wedding gown of white nylon net over satin, bouffant style, with a lace bodice and jacket. Her fingertip veil was of illusion. She carried a cascade of white carnations. Mrs. Walter Teich of Chicago, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a white nylon organza dress trimmed in pink, similar to the bride's gown. She carried a cascade of pink carnations. Walter Teich of Chicago was best man for his brother-in-law, and ushers were Elwood Salter, cousin of the groom, and Thomas Wilson, cousin of the bride.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Fulcher, aunt and uncle of the bride, to honor the bridal couple.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Fulcher, and ushered to the receiving line composed of the bride's father and Mrs. Ruth Nelson of Marshallberg, grandmother of the bride.

Miss Frances Jane Fulcher, cousin of the bride, presided over the bride's book, Mrs. Ruth Musser presided in the gift room, and Mrs. J. C. Parsons of Norfolk and Mrs. John W. Willis, jr., sister of the bride, served the cake and punch. Following a wedding trip to the western part of the state, the newly-married couple will make their home in Beaufort.

The bride is a graduate of Beaufort high school and of East Carolina college where she took a two-year business course. She is now employed at the A&P store in Beaufort.

The groom is a graduate of Beaufort high school and attended Wake Forest college. He is now in business for himself in the wholesale fish business.
