Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis of Harkers Island, and Kenneth Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Owen Porter of Mesa, Ariz., were married Thursday, June 19, in the Arizona Temple, Mesa, Ariz.

The bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over white satin. The gown was fashioned with fitted bodice, a tiny stand-up collar, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant ballerina length skirt. A tiara of chantilly lace accented with seed pearls secured her fingertip length nylon net veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gladiolas.

Miss Marilyn Porter, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown fashioned with blue brocade and affetta bodice with white net over shell pink nylon skirt. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Charles Davis, brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man.

Mrs. Davis wore a gown of orchid silk crepe and Mrs. Porter wore a gown of Alice blue silk jersey. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the Mesa Tenth Ward Latter Day Saints church.

The bride was graduated in May from Beaufort high school.

The groom is a graduate of Mesa high school. He completed a mission in the Central Atlantic Mission for the LDS church. He is a student at Arizona State college in Tempe, Ariz., and expects to graduate in January. He is majoring in music.

Following a wedding trip to northern Arizona the newly-married couple will make their home in Mesa.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Charles Davis, Miss June Hancock and Miss Mattie Gray Willis, all of Harkers Island.
