Clay H. Lynch Found Guilty In Morals Case

Appeals to Superior Court; Woman and Husband Given Jail Terms

Clay H. Lynch served notice of appeal to the superior court Monday following his conviction in Morehead City recorder's court. Bond was set at $250.

Lynch was found guilty on four counts charging that he falsely registered as man and wife at the Jefferson hotel for immoral purposes with a woman who is not his wife.

He was sentenced to serve six months on the roads. The sentence was suspended on condition that he remain on good behavior for 12 months, refrain from seeing Monica Campbell, jr. in Carteret county and pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Daisy Rowe Guilty

Daisy Rowe was found guilty of public drunkenness. She was sentenced to 30 days in the women's prison for violating the terms of a suspended sentence imposed Sept. 1. She was sentenced to an additional 30 days on the drunkenness charge.

Her husband, Lawrence, was sentenced to 90 days on the roads for violating the terms of a suspended sentence imposed May 26. He also received a 30-day term for public drunkenness. His sentences will be served concurrently. Those of his wife will run consecutively.

Both Rowe and his wife entered pleas of not guilty to charges of disturbing the peace, using loud and profane language and failing to care for a minor child. The case was continued indefinitely.

Clardon Yates was sentenced to 90 days on the roads for drunken driving and driving without a license. The sentence was suspended on condition that he pay $25 for driving without a license, $100 for drunken driving and pay the costs.

Gets 60 Days

Carlton Pittman was found guilty of public drunkenness. He was sentenced to 30 days on the roads for violating the terms of a suspended sentence imposed March 24. He received an additional 30 days on the drunkenness charge. The sentences will run consecutively.

Jack Harrell was sentenced to 30 days on the roads for assault on a female by slapping her face. The sentence was suspended on condition that he remain on good behavior for six months and pay the costs.

Herbert Lee Fielding was sentenced to 60 days on the roads for hit and run driving and passing on a curve. The sentence was suspended on condition that he remain on good behavior for 12 months, pay the prosecuting witness $59.94 for damage to her car and pay the costs.

Fielding was also fined $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of alcohol. The costs will be consolidated with those in the previous charge.

To Serve Eight Months

Willie Montague was found guilty of using loud and profane language, disturbing the peace and assaulting a female. He was sentenced to 30 days on the roads on each of the first two charges. He received a six-month sentence on the third charge. The terms will be served consecutively.

George Worthing was given 30 days on the roads for public drunkenness. The sentence was suspended on condition that he remain on good behavior for six months and pay the costs.

Servicemen Get Absentee Ballots

Some 225 absentee ballots have been mailed from Carteret county to men and women in the service, according to County Election Board chairman, F. R. Seeley.

Carteret county has a total of about 700 men and women in the armed forces. Each of these men and women, or their relatives, and in some instances, both, have received blanks to be filled out and returned to the election board for absentee ballots for the person in service. The blanks were mailed from Seeley's office.

The deadline for applications for absentee ballots for persons serving in the armed forces is the day before election. However, Seeley indicates that it takes some ten days to process the application and forward a ballot, so applications should be in as soon as possible.

Civilian requests for absentee ballots were taken from Oct. 1 and will be issued until Nov. 1. Under state law, no absentee ballots can be sent out after that time. However, Seeley points out that his office is lenient with cases of fishermen or other workers who find it necessary, at short notice, to be absent from the county on election day. Ballots may be issued after the legal closing period if just cause can be shown why the ballot should be issued.

Concert Dates Confirmed

Mrs. George W. Dill, jr., president of the Carteret-Cherry Point Community Concerts association has announced that the dates for the concerts for the year have been confirmed by the New York office.

The first concert will be held in the Beaufort school auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 26, when the prima ballerina, Marina Svetlova, will appear.

Samuel Sorin, pianist, will give a concert on Tuesday, Jan. 13, in the Morehead City school auditorium, and the Song Masters will give the final concert on Wednesday, Feb. 4, in Beaufort.

The period for carrying out soil building practices under the 1952 Agriculture Conservation Program ends Oct. 31, 1952, according to B. J. May, production and marketing administrator in Carteret county.

May says that Friday, Oct. 17 is the date on which the issuance of approvals and purchase orders for conservation materials ends. This means that there will be no practices approved under the 1952 ACP program after the close of business on Friday, Oct. 17. It also means that any approved practices under the 1952 program, whether they involve the use of conservation materials or other type practices must be completed by Oct. 31, or the approval will be cancelled.

The PMA administrator reports that the 1952 program is a new type program and farmers obtaining conservation materials for use under the 1952 program should make every effort to use this material and report it before Oct. 31.

Farmers holding purchase orders for conservation materials to be used under the 1952 program will have to obtain this material prior to Oct. 31 or the purchase order will be void after that date. Farmers requesting assistance under the 1953 program, if they have not already done so, should check now at the county PMA office in the Post Office building to determine if they have used all available 1952 money allotted to their farm. This applies to farmers who have already obtained assistance as well as those who have not.

May says that even though committees contacted farmers some time ago and listed assistance desired under the program, all practices requested at that time may not have been approved. ACP money allotted to the county for use in this connection was not sufficient to care for all requests from the 500 farmers asking this assistance.

However, May reports that there is still a small amount of money from the 1952 fund available for use by farmers in this county, provided it is requested and approved by the closing date, Oct. 17.

Vendors furnishing conservation materials on purchase orders have been notified that they may not accept any purchase orders for materials to be used under the 1952 program after Oct. 31. They have also been requested to submit all purchase orders filed and in their possession to the county PMA office within five days after the closing date. May says it is doubtful if vendors failing to comply with this request will be paid purchase orders submitted after that date.

Farmers are requested to cooperate with the county office and with the vendors in presenting their purchase orders immediately upon receipt to the vendor and then using the material as quickly as possible after it has been delivered.

May says that in the past, approved ditching practices have been carried through December. This year that cannot be done. Any approved farm ditch or tile drainage practice must be completed by Oct. 31, and reported, or the approval will be cancelled. It cannot be transferred to the 1953 program.

Questions concerning these rulings should be referred to the county PMA office. It is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The office is closed on Saturdays.

Sheriff to Build Apartment House

Sheriff Gehrman Holland has received a permit to build an apartment dwelling on Orange street, according to Gerald Woodard, Beaufort building inspector. The building will cost $15,000.

Sheriff Holland says that work on the house will begin Monday. The building will contain two four-room apartments.

Woodard also reports that Dr. Lawrence Rudder has been granted a permit to erect an office building on Ann street. The work will cost $7,000.

Others receiving permits were: Horace Loftin, to alter a dwelling in Craven street, $2500; Jerry Darlings, to alter a dwelling on Broad street, $350; W. A. Mace, jr., to re-roof a dwelling on Ann street, $235; and J. H. Davis, to repair a boom house on Turner street, $200.

Carteret Fair Opens Oct. 20 American Legion Project Offers Lengthy List Of Exhibit Premiums

The Carteret fair in Beaufort will open Oct. 20 and continue through Oct. 25. This tenth annual fair is under the sponsorship of the American Legion, Post No. 99 of the American Legion, Beaufort.

The gates will open each day at 8:30 p.m., except on Wednesday and Friday, which have been designated as Children's Days. On those days, the gates and exhibit hall will open at 2:00 p.m. On Wednesday, Oct. 22, all white school children in Carteret county will be admitted to the fair grounds free. Friday, Oct. 24, will be colored school day and all colored school children will be admitted to the grounds free.

A great many agricultural products will be displayed this year. Officers of the fair will appoint the judges for the various exhibits. Competition is open to all of Carteret county. Entries will be received at the office of the secretary any time after Oct. 20. They should be made at the office of the secretary in person or by mail. Articles must be entered before being sent in for exhibit.

All exhibits must be in place by 1 p.m. Tuesday of the fair. Mrs. Billie Smith has charge of the exhibit hall again this year.

Exhibits on the premium list in agriculture this year will include forage crops, soy beans, cow-peas, peanuts, corn, cotton, tobacco, and vegetables. In the horticulture department, fruits, nuts, floral plants, including potted, blooming, cut flowers, bulbs, tubers and gourds, will be exhibited.

The culinary list includes canned fruits and vegetables in quart jars, jam and fruit butter in pint jars, jelly in one-half pint containers, preserves in quart jars, pickles, relish, canned meat in quart jars, home cured meat, pantry supplies, cakes, cookies, and candies.

There will be awards for the best specimens of domestic art, for domestic manufacture, clothing, baby apparel, arts and crafts, antiques, including china, glass, silver, brass and pewter.

Water products including seafood and fish will also be on the premium list.

There will be awards for the best individual exhibit, second and third best individual exhibits in the agricultural section.

Schools, home demonstration clubs, 4-H clubs, and Boy and Girl Scouts will have entries at the fair.

Boys and girls under 16 years of age may enter various individual projects.

There will be awards in room improvement, food preparation, canning and junior arts and crafts.

The fair, managed this year by Tom Kelly, will be at the American Legion fairgrounds in Beaufort.

Local Elks Join in Observance Of National Newspaper Week

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Lodge No. 1710, Beaufort and Morehead City, this week paid tribute to THE NEWS-TIMES in observance of National Newspaper Week.

Grand Exalted Ruler Sam Stern has asked Elks throughout the nation to honor the men and women of the press "who are helping to preserve our liberties by shedding the light of truth on local, state, and national affairs."

In carrying out Ruler Stern's request, Eldon Nelson, exalted ruler of the Beaufort and Morehead City lodge, said: "The publishers, editors, editorial representatives, members of the sports staff, mechanical department personnel, and representatives of the press associations should be highly honored for their untiring efforts to give us the facts."

"Suppose we lived in a country where the truth was kept from the public, a country where the rulers controlled the press. Instead of the facts, we'd get lies and excuses. It would not be long before we would feel as if we were in a hopeless situation, with gloom and misery all around us."

"Let's all stop for a minute and think what the freedom of the press means to 'me' personally, and then let's thank God that the freedom of the press is a part of the first amendment to the United States constitution. It states: Congress shall make no law respecting establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

"And may God help us and keep us steadfast in keeping these rights and our country from ever being overcome by our enemies," Nelson concluded.

Defendant Asks For Jury Trial

John E. Pickett, accused of issuing worthless checks, asked for a jury trial Tuesday in county recorder's court, Beaufort. Judge Lambert Morris ordered him bound over for the fall term of the superior court.

Pickett is charged with issuing worthless checks in the amount of $850. He is free on $1,000 bond.

David H. Parker was given six months on the roads after he was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, an ice-pick. The sentence was suspended on condition that he pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Fined $10

Paul Lester Stallings was fined $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Luke Henry was fined $10 and costs for operating a horse and cart on the highway while in a drunken condition.

Joseph Samuel Raby was found guilty of speeding. He paid a fine of $100 and costs.

Calvin Hyde Swain was sentenced to three months on the roads for careless and reckless driving. The sentence was suspended on condition that he pay $25 and costs within 90 days.

Four Schools Join 4-H Work

4-H clubs were organized during the week of September 22 in Camp Glenn, Smyrna, Atlantic and Harbers Island schools.

The senior 4-H club at Smyrna chose Betty Gillikin, Williston, as president; Alton Paul, Davis, vice-president; Edward Pond, Davis, secretary; Roy Styron, Davis, reporter.

The Harkers Island junior club elected Lillian Agnes Hancock as president. Charles Eric Russell is vice president; Jackie Guthrie, secretary, and Janet Willis, reporter. All are of Harkers Island.

Measles Strike Hard in County

County Health Officer Dr. N. Thos. Ennett reports that there are more measles this fall than usual with the largest number of cases centering on Harkers Island.

The health department has on hand a supply of immune globulin which is available without cost to all physicians. Immune globulin, depending upon the amount injected, will prevent measles or permit the child to have only a mild case.

A dose large enough to prevent measles gives protection for a period of several weeks only, while if the child is allowed to have a mild case, he usually gets permanent immunity.

The health department at its regular vaccination clinics, held Tuesday afternoons and Saturday mornings, will, upon the request of the family doctor, vaccinate the child with immune globulin.

The health officer commented that Carteret county had been remarkably free from measles epidemics in recent years. He also commented that it seemed to be the nature of the disease to appear in epidemic form in cycles of three to four years.

More Building Permits Issued

Building permits issued in Morehead City for the month of September amount to $12,700 after hitting the low figure of $3,290 in August, according to the record of A. B. Roberts, building inspector for the city. Permits cover the erection of three houses, two office buildings, three repair or addition jobs and one garage.

Permits for new houses were issued to Douglas Edwards, Shepard street between 12th and 13th, $1,500; F. L. Sutton, Patterson street between 14th and 15th, $2,500; Joe Rose, Arendell street, between 32nd and 33rd streets, $300. Office buildings in connection with used car lots to Loftin Motor company on Bridges street, between 28th and 29th streets and Central Motor company, Arendell street at 6th and 7th street. Each will cost $1,000. Addition to home of Mrs. C. Scott, $1,000, repairs, E. C. Willis to house on Evans street $2,000 and E. W. Webb to business block, $2,500. H. K. Guthrie, garage to cost $300. Total amount of permits issued for the nine months of the current year, $200,900. For the same period for 1951, $398,584.

According to the Labor department bureau of statistics, urban construction in North Carolina during the first six months of 1952 trailed the amount for the corresponding period in 1951. Tallies were made from all towns of 2,500 population or more. More than half of North Carolina's urban building expenditures were for new dwellings, including apartment projects.

Awards for fitting and showmanship and herdsmanship were to have been presented last night.

Paul Addresses Beaufort Rotary

Gerald Hill, president of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, has expressed his thanks to the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce for the stand it has taken concerning the proposed reduction of hours of operation in the Western Union office in Beaufort.

Hill's statement reads: On behalf of the board of directors, and the membership of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, I wish to express appreciation and thanks to the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, its membership, and manager Joe DuBois for the assistance they have rendered in protesting the reduction of hours in the Beaufort office of the Western Union Telegraph company.

Dan'l Walker, manager of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, reported to his board of directors and the membership that this co-operation on the part of the Morehead City group was voluntary on the part of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce. The co-operation of the Morehead City group, Walker says, was forthcoming before the matter was brought to their attention by the Beaufort organization.

Ocean King Hotel To Remain Open

The Ocean King hotel at Atlantic Beach will remain open this winter for the first time. In previous years the hotel has closed in September.

Manager Bud Dixon has announced that a heating system is being installed and the hotel is being redecorated.

Dixon said that there has been a great demand for the hotel to stay open all year around. He expects that tourists and commercial travelers will provide business for the hotel during the winter months.

The year round operation will be on an experimental basis for the first year. If business justifies it, the hotel will continue it.

Summer Weather Returns

County Boys Show Cattle

The first annual Coastal Carolina Junior Dairy show got underway Wednesday night in New Bern.

The show opened with a banquet in honor of exhibitors and their parents.

Carteret county had 12 of the 46 entries expected for the show. Craven county sent ten, while Jones and Pamlico planned to have six each. The number of entries from Onslow county was not known.

Carteret County Agent R. M. Williams and his assistant, C. H. Kirkman, jr., accompanied the exhibitors from Carteret county. All exhibitors at the show were under 21.

Williams served as a member of the arrangements and banquet committee for the show and Kirkman was on the entries and exhibits committee.

Awards for fitting and showmanship and herdsmanship were to have been presented last night.

The town of Beaufort and the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce have filed an official answer to the petition of the Western Union Telegraph Company to the Federal Communications Commission asking to reduce the open hours of the Western Union office in Beaufort.

Each of the points listed in the Western Union petition has been categorically admitted or denied by the town of Beaufort and the Chamber of Commerce.

In its petition to the FCC, Western Union alleges that there will be no additional charge to the public on messages delivered by telephone to Beaufort during the period proposed for reduction as telephone service is available on a local exchange basis.

The answer of Beaufort and the Chamber of Commerce states that an increase would be charged in telephone rates on telegraph messages telephoned to points east of Beaufort. In addition, residents of Beaufort, not having access to telephone service would not be serviced by bicycle messenger, as is now the case.

Registration For Voting
Begins Oct. 11

Registration of voters will begin Oct. 11 and extend through Oct. 25, according to F. R. Seeley, chairman of the Carteret county board of elections.

After Oct. 25, Seeley says, no registrations may be made. He points out that voters registered in previous county elections need not register again. However, new residents are warned that in voting in town elections in Morehead City and Beaufort, they may not be registered in the county registration books.

Citizens of the U. S. who have resided in North Carolina for one year prior to Nov. 4, in Carteret county for four months prior to Nov. 4 and in the voting precinct for three months prior to Nov. 4 and who will be 21 years of age or older Nov. 4 are subject to registration, according to Seeley.

The educational requirement, according to the election board chairman, is that a person must be able to read and write (other than just signing his name) with understanding.

Registration will be at the polling places for the various precincts on Oct. 11, 18, and 25. Registrars, however, are authorized to take registrations at any time during the registration period. During the three days, the 11th, 18th, and 25th, the polling places will be open from 9 a.m. until sundown.

Election officials, according to Seeley, are anxious that every newcomer register and vote. He says that the large increase in population in the past six years in Carteret county should be reflected by a greatly increased vote.

Population Figures Disputed

In asking for reduced hours, the Western Union company claims that the population of Beaufort is 3212, according to the preliminary count of the 1950 census.

The denial says that the preliminary census count includes only corporate limits as established in 1816 and does not cover the heavily populated environs; nor are the important areas of East Carteret county included in this count, although they are serviced by the Beaufort office. Additionally the petition states, two agencies in this area are also served by the Beaufort office.

The Western Union petition also alleges that no carrier other than the applicant provides telegraph service. It further states that telephone service is available through the facilities of the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph company.

The denial says that limited telephone communications are all which are available, that a large number of ten-party lines are in service in the area served by the Beaufort office. It also points out that the rapidly expanding area due to Armed Service installations and personnel in this area, and the newly developed areas that have inadequate telephone service, make this statement erroneous.

Beaufort C of C Extends Thanks

Gerald Hill, president of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, has expressed his thanks to the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce for the stand it has taken concerning the proposed reduction of hours of operation in the Western Union office in Beaufort.

Hill's statement reads: On behalf of the board of directors, and the membership of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, I wish to express appreciation and thanks to the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, its membership, and manager Joe DuBois for the assistance they have rendered in protesting the reduction of hours in the Beaufort office of the Western Union Telegraph company.

Dan'l Walker, manager of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, reported to his board of directors and the membership that this co-operation on the part of the Morehead City group was voluntary on the part of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce. The co-operation of the Morehead City group, Walker says, was forthcoming before the matter was brought to their attention by the Beaufort organization.

Farm Bureau Extends Drive

Robert Laughton, president of the Carteret county farm bureau, and Floyd Garner, county membership chairman, have extended the bureau's membership drive for one week.

The drive has been extended in order that solicitors may have more time in which to secure another 100 members. The bureau has attained only three-fourths of its goal of 400 members.

The two week drive was originally scheduled to end Sept. 30. Labor shortages have kept some solicitors from seeking renewals in their communities. Chairman Garner believes that the additional time will allow the county farm bureau to reach its quota.
