

Local Ministers Express Disapproval of Bible Burning

Ministers of several Protestant the new Bible on a single word in enominations in Beaufort and the Book of Isaiah. In the new version, the word is translated as "young woman." In the King James Morehead City have joined pastors in other parts of the state in their disapproval of the action of the version, it was translated as "vir Rev. Martin Luther Hux of Rocky Mount. gin." According to Mr. Hux, this change in translation repudiates Mr. Hux, a Baptist minister, has the concept of virgin birth, a con-denounced the new Revised Stand-ard Version of the Bible. He burned a copy of the new Bible at Sun-day night services in his church. Mr. Hux bases his objection to

Doctor Giddens Dies Monday

Dr. James Francis Giddens, 75 Morehead City optometrist, died Monday morning at Morehead City hospital after several months of failing health. He had been ad-mitted to the hospital on Friday. Dr. Giddens was born in Golds boro, the son of the late Louis D. virgin birth. I'm using the new and Margaret Ireland Giddens, Bible all the time." The Rev. Priestley Conyers, 1909. In 1910 he married Mrs. Lillian Fulford Leary, who died Jan 24, 1952

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Lillian Frances Giddens, Mrs. John Lashley, both of Morehead City, and two sisters, Mrs. Marvin Smoot of Goldsboro and Mrs. Wilfiam Farrior of Fayetteville. Dr. Giddens had attended Trin ity college, now Duke university. He was a life member of the Elks and a member of the First Methodist church of Morehead City 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist aburenoon at head City, with the Rev. Leon Couch and the Rev. R. T. Willis, ir., officiating. Burial will be Bay View cometers

Approximately 500 persons at nded the union church service inday night at the Morehead City high school auditorium. The serv was the first sponsored jointly the ministerial association and dministration.

by the ministerial association the Morehead City Jaycees. The Rev. Charles E. Parker of New Bern was the guest preacher at the service. He commended the Jaycees for their work in sponsor ing the service. The combined junior choirs of the town's churches furnished the music under the direction of Ralph Wade.

An organ interlude by Mrs. Phillips was cancelled when it was dis-covered that an organ was unavailable. Dr. Eugene Roelofs played the piano in place of the organ

Jasper Bell, chairman of the re ligious activities committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, has expressed the committee's thanks to all who helped to make the rvice a success.

Labor Interviewer Attends Training Course in Baleigh From Menhuden Boat

Republicans Plan Rally Republicans will hold a rally at Morehead City town hall at 7:30 p.m. Friday night under sponsorship of the Republican executive committee. "Plans are to be made and is cept which is fundamental in m Christian churches. sues met before January 1, 1953," Furor over Nothing according to the announcem Local ministers, in general, be-lieve that Mr. Hux is creating a The public as well as all Re publicans are invited to attend.

CP&L Officials

Meeting this week at the Ocean

King hotel. Atlantic Beach, is the supervisors' conference leadership training program for supervisors of the Carolina Power and Light company. This program, which began Sunday, will continue through Fri-

Supervisors are here from North and South Carolina. A similar meeting was held two months ago. The twelve attending the meeting are T. A. Albright, Raleigh, northern division personnel representative;

E. P. Bazemore, Rockingham, dis-tric manager; B. W. Blake, Wilm-

L. W. Brown, Florence, S. C., southern division chief clerk; J. L. Duke, Canton, western division

chief dispatcher; H. F. Gill, Ra-leigh, northern division appliance service supervisor; W. F. Harper, Southern Pines, central division distribution engineer; F. C. Lennon, Goldsboro, assistant district manager of Goldsboro, H. N. McGeachy, Wilmington,

James Named

Local Chairman

A. H. James, jr., Beaufort, who with his father in law operates the Blake and James Furniture co., Morehead City, has been appointed

This appointment was announced Saturday by LaVern Baker, district manager. He stated that this group ington, meter supervisor.

Meet at Beach

day.

furor over nothing. The consen-sus among them is that the new Bible, based on years of research. is a much more accurate transla-tion than any previous version. The strongest denunciation of the Rocky Mount pastor's action came from the Rev. C. R. Berry of the First Christian church of Morehead City. Mr. Berry said, "It's a bunch of fanaticism. There should be some law against burning a Bible. The objection is ground-less anyway. The revised New Testament, which has been in use since 1946, refers to the concept of eastern division personnel repre-sentative; H. I. Seeley, Raleigh, chief accountant; J. A. Nelson, Ra-Two Carteret county students at State college have been reprimanded for their action while serving as delegates to the state student legisleigh, safety training director; P. C. Holladay, Florence, S. C., southern division personnel director. lature.

The Rev. Priestley Conyers. III, pastor of Webb Memorial Pres. byterian church, Morehead City, believes that the only real issue is the accuracy of the new Bible. Mr. Conyers said, "The main is-sue here centers around the question of what is the word of God. Mr Hux is defending the King James See BIBLE, Page 2

Giles Willis of Gloucester and Donald E. Davis, together with Howard A. Wells of Winston-Salem, engineered a bill aimed at removing John W. and David Clark from the board of trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina.

The college's campus govern-ment council said that the trio had acted irresponsibly and embarrass-ed the college, its students and its

The Clarks are leaders in the state's textile industry and have been the center of many storms involving university policy. When word of the impending bill was printed in the campus newswas printed in the campus news-paper, college officials let it be known they opposed the bill. The State college delegation to the stu-dent assembly then adopted a sub-stitute measure that made no men-non-profitably. tion of the Clarks. James will be in charge of col-The bill was passed by the stulecting ballots on the personal dent legislature. It would put a limitation on the length of time a opinion of business men on five government questions. The original ballots will be mailed directly to trustee could serve, plus an age limit. The bills passed by the stu-dent legislature have no force ex-Congressman Graham A. Barden in Washington, D. C. Copies of the ballots will be sent to the national federation of independent business. cept as an expression of studen opinion.

Negro Arrested for Theft

Asher to Speak This Saturday At REA Meeting

John W. Asher, jr., will be the principal speaker at the annual membership meeting of the Car-teret-Craven Electric Membership corporation next Saturday after-

He will speak at the afternoon session of the meeting, and officials of the group will make their reports before new directors are elected. The morning session, beginning at 10:30 a.m., will feature service.

John W. Asher, jr.

guests.

A wild ride ending in a wreck on the Atlantic Beach road Saturday night brought four charges against a Cherry Point marine. The marine, James Melvin Mul

Marine Held on Four Charges

After 75-Mile-per-Hour Chase

Bridge Failure Forces

Long Detour for Drivers forced to go from Beaufort to Morehead City and Cherry Point by way of route 101 and the Mill

Creek road yesterday morning when the Morehead City-Beaufort drawbridge failed to close.

The bridge was opened at about 6:40 a.m. and attendants were unable to shut it until almost 8 a.m. A defective switch is believed to have caused the

The December civil term of the alendar of 26 cases facing Judge

Judge Harris will hear 11 divorce

Chadwick, Raper vs Ballou, Kelton vs Kelton, and Carteret county vs

Yesterday's session of the More herd City recorder's court was can-session. Although superior court is expected to still be in session today, the county recorder's court will meet. The session will be held in the grand jury room on the first floor of the court house.

M. C. Harris of Raleigh, the pre-failure of the bridge

Scores of motorists were hern, was charged with drunken driving, careless and reckless driv-ing, driving without a license and speeding in excess of 75 miles per ur in a 20-mile zone. Mulhern was arrested by Highway Patrolman J. W. Sykes after his car hit a light pole when he failed to make a curve on the beach road. The marine was unhurt, but a companion, W. A. Jarrett, suf-fered lacerations of the forehead and chin. The third man in the car, W. H. Milam, was also unin jured. Superior Court The wild chase began near the Curve Inn on U.S. 70 west of Morehead City. Sykes and Patrolman W. J. Smith, jr., were patroling the Term Begins road when they saw the speeding convertible driven by Mulhern. The two officers started to pursue the car, but heavy traffic kept them from catching it. Sykes said that he was driving at Carteret county superior court opened yesterday morning with a

75 miles per hour as the two cars crossed the beach bridge and the convertible was drawing away from him. Sykes slowed down when he saw that his quarry was not going to make the curve Mulhern struck the light pole, knocked it down and disrupted all electric service to Morehead City and Atlantic Beach. The lights in Morehead City were out from 7:45 to about 8 p.m. Service to Atlan-tic Beach was not restored until later in the night. Damage to a discussion of a rural telephone co-operative to meet the needs of Carolina Power and Light's proper ty was estimated at $400. those in Carteret and Craven coun-Mulhern was taken to the More ties unable to secure telephone head City jail where he was held under $300 bond. 'He was released on bond Sunday night. He will ap-Asher is an official of the Rural Electrification administration and pear Monday in Morehead City reserves as director for the northeast corder's court. ney, Perry vs Hill, Collins vs Tru-man, Kelly vs Willis, Machine Sup-ply vs Dowdell, McLawhorn vs area covering 17 states. He will

Beaufort Pastor

The Rev. Winfrey Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church of Beaufort, submitted his resignation to the congregation Sunday morning, and it was accepted at a con ference meeting of the church Sun day evening. The resignation will

Mills to Receive Mr. Davis has been suffering ill health for the past two months and is now on sick leave from the

The presentation will take place at a special luncheon given by the association in honor of Mills and the other Tar Heel dealers who have loaned new cars free of charge to high schools for use in the driver education program. Governor-elect William B. Um-stead will pay tribute to the deal-the five years in which during the five years in which reports have been published on the num-ber of permits issued. The only permit issued by A. B. Roberts, building inspector, during November was to Lillie Styron for alterations to a house on Evans street. The proposed alterations will cost $800. ers receiving the award. Dr. Charles F. Carroll, superintendent of public instruction, will make the presentation on behalf of NCADA, the National Automobile Dealers association, and the Inter-f Permits issued during the first e eleven months of this year total $241,240. During the same period last year, the permits totalled $423,286. Industry Highway Safety commit-

Wiley Taylor, jr., Beaufort attorney, was appointed solicitor of the county recorder's court at yesterday's meeting of the county commissioners.

Taylor, a unanimous choice, will fill the post left vacant by the recent death of M. Leslie Davis. The new solicitor holds a similar post with the Beaufort recorder's court.

The commissioners also heard a protest from a delegaion of Newport residents who feltthat their town had been slighted with regard to road paving. They wanted to know why work had not Santa to Arrive begun on the paving of the Deep Creek road. The road was to have the men said that the road Here Tomorrow been paved some time ago.

serves some 65 farm families and should be paved. They reported that the residents of the section Santa Claus will pay his annual visit to Beaufort tomorrow after wanted to know why their road has not been paved when roads have noon at 4 o'clock, weather per-mitting, arriving on the good ship been paved in the eastern part of Mistletoe, manned by members of the Coast Guard. He will land at the government the county.

The commissioners instructed the dock where Boy Scouts will pro-vide protection for him until he clerk to write to the state highway commission for information about progress of the work on the Deep reaches the fire engine on which he will ride down Front street. Creek road.

After the Newport delegation had left, J. L. Humphrey, county road superintendent, arrived and reported that work on the Deep the Beaufort high school band and the Queen Street school band. He will have a present for each child who presents him with a let-

Wiley Taylor, jr.

Creek road will begin shortly. He said that the work has been ap-proved by the highway commission and the money has been allocated.

The commissioners appropriated

$40 to send Coroner Leslie Springle to a two-day school for coroners at Chapel 2¹⁴. Ticy also appropri-ated $25 to be donated to the Christmas fund at the Caswell Training school.

The commission orderd the clerk to write to the utilities commission and register the board's opposition to the proposed telepho

Building Permits

Hit Record Low

Building permits issued in Morehead City in November reached the lowest level of any month during department.

ter. Santa Claus' visit is annually sponsored by the Beaufort Mer-chants association. Tomorrow will also mark the

Also in the parade will be both opening of the Christmas season for the merchants of Beaufort. Starting tomorrow, the stores will remain open every Wednesday afternoon until Christmas. On Dec. 17, the stores will begin to remain open until 8:30 p.m. every night.

Every Saturday morning from now until Christmas, the merchants will give 20 silver dollars to each of five people. The money will be given away at 11 a.m. on Dec. 6, Dec. 13 and Dec. 20. On Dec. 24 200 silver dollars will be divided between four people. Tickets may be obtained from participating merchants.

Loastmasters Debate Ike Trip

The NCO Toastmasters club at Cherry Point debated Presidentelect Eisenhower's trip to Korea at their Wednesday night meeting. The members discussed the question of whether or not Eisenhower should take General MacArthur to rate increase. The commissioners voted to join Korea with him. The group also discussed the qualifications and abilities of the men named to cabinet posts by the Morehead City and Beaufort in installing and maintaining a police president-elect. short-wave radio system to be op-erated by the Morehead City police president-elect. Speakers at the meeting were Maj. H. M. Benscoter, M/Sgt. H. F. Muth, Capt. E. L. Warren and M/Sgt. L. Rhynard. Major Bens-otes and Castein Warren Strategies coter and Captain Warren were ex change speakers from the Officers Toastmasters club, T/Sgt, G. L. Harrell was elected secretary-treasurer to replace M/Sgt. L. Rhynard who has been Transferred to another duty station. New members accepted into the club were T/Sgt. R. N. Bourgholtz-er and T/Sgt. J. L. Draughn. Tomorrow night's meeting will be devoted to repairing articles donated to the club's drive for tow donated to the club's drive for toys for underprivileged children.

Navy, Marine Officers Meet with Port Manager

Navy officers from Norfolk and Marine officers from Camp Lejeune and Cherry Point were in Morehead City last week to con-fer with J. D. Holt, manager of the port terminal. The men discussed preliminary plans for the largest troop move-has the largest individual member-ship of any business organization in the United States and operates Held Yesterday

Miss Etta E. Manson, 85, died Saturday at a hospital near Raleigh after a long illness. Funeral services were held at 3:30 yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church, with the Rev. J. P. Dees, rector of the church, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Miss Manson, with her sister, Emma, who died several years ago, had operated their home, which was known as the Manson house, as me effective Dec. 31.

Resigns Post

church. He said in his letter that actions and will hear motions in two cases. Jury trials have been requested in 13 other civil actions. Divorce cases to be heard are Hicks vs Hicks, Dixon vs Dixon, Burgess vs Burgess, Holland vs Holland, Rice vs Rice, Morris vs Morris, Gillikin vs Gillikin, Becton vs Becton, Fleming vs Fleming, Garner vs Garner, and Dickinson siding jurist.

vs Dickinson. The two cases in which motions will be heard are Jarman vs Hinson and Taylor vs Kozakiewicz. Cases set for trial are Gillikin vs Lawrence, Yeomans vs Piner, Lewis vs Downum, Sutton vs Deibert, Town of Beaufort vs Court

Patrick.

