Steel Trap Is Sprung

Temptation proves too great for Joseph Cotten as he relieves a bank vault of one million dollars in Thor Productions' "The Steel Trap." Teresa Wright co-stars in the Twentieth Century-Fox release.

Many of the advances of modern chemistry resulted from attempts by alchemists of the Middle Ages to make gold from baser metals.

Employees Study

New York (AP)—A big life insurance company (U.S. Life Insurance company) has sent its home office employees who correspond with policy holders and other agencies to school to brush up on letter writing. A three-month course is being given at New York university. More than 20 executives have already taken the course.

Payne Tries Convincing Dahl

John Payne seems to be having a hard time convincing Arlene Dahl of her ominous plight in this scene from "Caribbean," Paramount's Technicolor action thriller. Sir Cedric Hardwicke is also starred in this Pine-Thomas production.

Geneva Government Decides To Pension Ex-Commie Boss

Geneva, Switzerland (AP)—The cantonal government of Geneva has decided to grant former Swiss communist boss Leon Nicole, 65, a temporary pension of $140 per month out of funds reserved for relief of the poor.

The pension is larger than the average worker's wage in Geneva and is meeting with criticism.

Nicole was president of the canton from 1933 to 1936. Since then he has lost the support both of the voters and of his own party. Today's cantonal government does not include a single communist or communist-sympathizer.
