TODAY'S meditation

The Upper Room
 THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. (Galatians 5:14). Read Galatians 5:13-15.

A farmer told of a misunderstanding he had once with one of his neighbors. An open clash had been narrowly averted between the two neighbors. Then one rainy day as the farmer was on his way to town, he noticed an automobile stuck in the mud. The man in trouble was his neighbor. He thought first to pass by on the other side, but instead he stopped and helped his neighbor.

That act lost the farmer an enemy but won for him a close friend. How great the reward that resulted from such a small act of Christian neighborliness! That which angry words and fiery tempers could never do was achieved in a matter of minutes by an act of Christian neighborliness at a mudhole.

In the market place, in the subway, on the busy thoroughfare, or in the mudhole, brotherhood in Christ will work miracles today. Mankind around the world and next door is hungry for this Christian neighborliness of loving service. "By love serve one another!"

PRAYER
 Our heavenly Father, help us to be loving and kind to all Thy children. Teach us the way of Christian neighborliness in our relationships with our fellow men. Grant that Thy peace may ever rule in our hearts. We ask it in Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 "By love serve one another."
