Literary, Art Department Votes Donations to Groups

At the Tuesday night meeting of the Literary and Art department, held at the civic center, several donations were voted upon. The members voted to sponsor a girl to attend girls' state this year, to buy a $25 membership in the North Carolina Little Symphony society, $25 to the children's library at the Webb Memorial Civic center and $25 to Mrs. Rosalie Dowdy to establish a newspaper in the high school.

They also voted to pay the expenses of three seventh grade students who are financially unable to go to Raleigh with the rest of the class on the annual tour.

The next meeting of the department was postponed from the third Tuesday in April until the fourth, April 28. Mrs. Dowdy gave an interesting program on Modern Poetry.

Ice cream floats and nuts were served by the hostesses.

Gala Dinner Honors Choir Of First Baptist Church

The choir of the First Baptist church was honored Tuesday night with a St. Patrick's Day dinner in the assembly room of the Sunday school building.

Dr. John H. Bunn, pastor, gave the invocation, Warren Beck said the welcome and Ralph Wade, choir director, responded. A dinner consisting of roast turkey, corn-bread dressing, string beans, McGrady salad, Irish potatoes, cranberry sauce, hot biscuits, cake and coffee was enjoyed by the entire choir.

Little George and Terry Mizsko sang the Wearing of the Green and Jerry Bowers sang When Irish Eyes Are Smiling. All were in costume and after Jerry's performance he released green balloons.

The master of ceremonies, W. C. Carlton, led in group singing after the entertainment. The choir sang "That's an Irish Lullaby, Smilin' Through, My Wild Irish Rose, Peggy O'Neil and Little Annie Rooney.

Presbyterian Women of Church Install Officers Monday Night

The Rev. Priestley Conyers, III, pastor of the Webb Memorial Presbyterian church, installed the new officers of the Women of the Church at the general monthly meeting Monday night.

Officers installed were elected at the February meeting. They were: Mrs. R. B. Howard, president; Mrs. J. W. Kellogg, vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Cherry, secretary.

Mrs. S. W. Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. H. L. Joslyn, historian; Mrs. Priestley Conyers, III, spiritual growth; Mrs. Kenneth Prest, world missions; Mrs. Gannon Talbert, church expansion.

Mrs. Charles Suthard, Christian education; Mrs. A. F. Chestnut, annuities and relief; Mrs. Frank Pigford, stewardship; Mrs. C. W. Marrow, assembly special causes.

These new officers will begin their duties April 1, the beginning of the new church year.

As this was the last meeting of the church year all officers and committee chairmen made their annual reports. These reports showed an increase in the work done by each department.

Increases were shown in Bible study, family worship, Bible reading, tithing, and the amount of money contributed by the members of the three circles.

Two delegates, Mrs. J. W. Kellogg and Mrs. William J. Cherry and two alternates, Mrs. Beulah Gardner and Mrs. Frank Pigford, were elected to attend Presbyterianial which will be held in Clinton, April 16 and 17. Mrs. R. B. Howard, the new president, will attend as a delegate by virtue of her office.

New circle chairmen were appointed. Mrs. W. E. Guthrie, Mrs. J. D. Holt and Mrs. Beulah Gardner are chairmen of circles one, two and three respectively.

Garden and Civic Club Hears Talk on Flowers

Mrs. J. R. Morrill, program chairman of the Garden and Civic club, introduced Mrs. M. L. Davis of Beaufort as the speaker, Wednesday afternoon at the civic center.

Mrs. Davis spoke to the club members instructively on altar and church arrangements of flowers. She told the type flowers to use with certain interiors.

A benefit bridge was discussed, which members hope will take place in May. Also discussed was the ordering of club calendars for the fall. This topic was left open until the next meeting when the number to be ordered will be decided upon.

The hostesses, Mrs. W. P. Freeman, Mrs. J. Dewey Willis and Mrs. W. G. Oglesby served iced drinks, cookies, candies and nuts after the business session.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cherry Entertain Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cherry were hosts to the Couples Bridge club Wednesday night at their apartment on Bridges street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with jonquils and flowering almond.

Mr. James B. Macy was high scorer and Mrs. Cherry was low. The hostess served candy and iced drinks during play and lemon chiffon pie and coffee after progression.

I hear the boys' Hi-Y boat ride was a huge success. I also heard that a few, such as Virginia Couch, Alice Mills, Terry Norman, Enid Rose and Gene Smith, thought that the boat rocked a little too much.

The trip was made in the Sea King, owned by Mr. Robert Taylor and captained by Mr. Ashton Willis. During the trip to Cape Lookout the engineer showed the students around the boat. Everyone had a wonderful time even though the mosquitoes were pretty bad.

The date of payment for this year's annual has been extended to March 25, so everyone hurry and get one.

Helen Pipkin, president of the Morehead City chapter of the FHA, gave a talk at Newport recently on "Keeping the Spirit of FHA." Also attending the meeting from Morehead City was Mrs. Florence Cordova, home economics teacher.

A meeting of the FHA was held Tuesday at 1:30. Discussion was on the Mother-Daughter banquet or buffet supper to be held April 7, and on ways to raise money to send a delegate to the national convention at Columbus, Ohio, in July.

Nothing was decided upon. Helen Pipkin gave a short talk on the advantages of the FHA and she and Mrs. Cordova told of their recent trip to the Newport club.

The lovely pictures decorating the downstairs halls were done by Mrs. Robert Taylor's eighth grade. They will continue to decorate the halls with Easter pictures.

The Literary and Art club has made a $25 donation toward the establishing of a school newspaper. This donation was recommended by Mrs. Darden Eure.

A meeting will soon be held and all pupils interested in the newspaper should attend. This paper will contain ads from popular merchants and will be published every two weeks.

A play entitled "A Lazy Afternoon" was given last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Alfred Walence's eighth grade. The setting was spring and decorations of porch furniture to be used on the veranda were generously donated by the parents. A flower garden and peach and dogwood trees finished the scene.

Richard Roberts played Herbie; Henry Taylor was Jack; Tommy Oglesby was Mr. Jason; Jean Ingram, Marilyn; Wayne Guthrie, Melvin; John Engall, Harry. The moral of the play was, a good situation can be spoiled by a lazy person.

The senior class has selected its play for this year. The title is Atomic Blonde and it will star the following: Florence Danielson McClain plays Oriole Byrd; Bobby Willis is Bob Nickerson; Mary Lou Norwood is Katinka Katzenpfeifer; David Freshwater is seen as Skid Werling; Sonny McDonald plays Parsimonius Jackson.

David Newberry is Doggie Deane; Tommy Ballou, Sylvester Butterfish; Mary Ellen Rice, Mrs. Philo Pratt; Patricia Willis, Miss Wilella Wylie; Edward Beard.

Mrs. Herbert Thornton Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Herbert Thornton entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club this week at her home in Mansfield Park. Guests were Mrs. G. Henry Jackson and Mrs. S. A. Horton.

Mrs. C. B. Arthur was high scorer and Mrs. Jackson was low. The hostess served iced drinks, cookies and pop corn after play.

Finchley St. Joun, III; Perry Taylor, Gurney Maddox; Velma Conway, Mrs. Adelaide Burkeleigh-Banks; Ann Darden Webb, Doreen; Carolyn Laine, Betty Hartford.

The play will be presented in the school auditorium on April 10 at 8 o'clock and the admission will be 35 cents, 50 cents and 75 cents.

Last Tuesday night, March 10, the annual Roman banquet given by the Latin classes was held in the home economics rooms. The faculty was invited as special guests. Feature of the feast was a Roman engagement and wedding. Jesse Staton, teacher, proposed a toast to the bridal couple.

Helen Pipkin and Joe DuBois were the bridal couple, Doran Kilpatrick was father of the bride, Walter Fulcher was father of the groom, Lynne Richardson was matron. Guests were Bernice Willis Parkin and Louise White. The slaves were first year Latin students. Typical Roman food of that time was served.

Suzanne Land Circle Meets With Mrs. Walter Lewis

The Suzanne Land circle of the WSCS of the Franklin Memorial Methodist church, met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Lewis. Mrs. Carl Lewis, co-hostess, was in charge of the program.

After a short business session, the hostesses served refreshments of iced drinks, cookies, nuts and candies.
