The Morehead City town board Last Meeting of Year held an informal meeting Monday night to allow the newly-elected members of the board to become familiar with board procedures before they take office. The two new members of the board will be Ted Garner and D. J. Hall everything from a crow ar to a floor sander, in cluding various equipment occasionally needed around the home. Rental charges reasonable. All new equipment.

Renta Tool

Belt Sander Gasoline Torch Cement Tools Caulking Gun Car Polisher Crow Bar C. C. Saw Electric Drills Drop Cloths Cords, H. D. Ext. Lawn Fertilizer Spreader Flaring Tool & Cutter Floor Sander Floor Edger Floor Polisher House Jacks Elec. Ice Cream Freezer 20 & 40 ft. Ext. Ladders 6-8-10 ft. Step Ladders Rotary Gas Lawn Mowers Lawn Roller Lawn Sweeper Pipe Dies & Cutters Pipe Vise & Tripod Pipe Wrenches Plank with Ladder Jacks Post Hole Digger 6 & 8 inch Elec. Saws Saw Horses Oscillating Sander Lawn Seeder Sewer Auger Sledge Hammers Elec. Soldering Iron Stapling Machine Tin Snips Tree Trimmer

BEAUFORT HARDWARE CO., INC.

Wheelbarrow

Lead Pot

Lead Ladle

PHONE 2-4686 Merrell Bldg. Beaufort, N. C.

Ocracoke PTA Holds

Ocracoke - The PTA enjoyed a culminating a year of hard work for Ocracoke school needs. A final report to date by treasurer, Mrs. Doris Ballance, indicates that the organization raised approximately $850 this year and spent approximately $650 on various items of school equipment, including venetian blinds for the library, a curtain track for the auditorium, cupboards for the kitchenette and for classroom use and many other. and many

About 45 members enjoyed the Monday night supper, after which group singing and a spelling match ere features of the evening's fun

Beaufort

(Continued from Page 1)

er, Lola Pratt, Ronnie Quidley, Julia Kelly Robinson

Patsy Sadler, Corrinne Scurlock, Jackie Simpson, Bobby Smith, Ted Spivey, Donald Taylor, James Tay-lor, Jean Carol Taylor, Vicky Tay-lor, Terry Whitley, Elizabeth Wood ard, Lewis Woodard, Wilma Wood-

Chief marshal for the mencement exercises will be Patri-cia Daniels of the Junior class. Class marshals will be Janice Keller and Helen Lee, juniors; Janice Murphy and Virginia Hassell, mores; and Sylvia Harrell and Peggy Williams, freshmen. The marshals are chosen on the basis of scholastic attainment.

the Battle Hymn of the Republic the Morehead City high school chorus and glee club ended their Port Captain fourth annual spring concert Tues day night in the school auditorium

David Small sang the solo part in this last number, which was re-ceived with such a great ovation that Mr. Ralph Wade, director, said, "I see nothing to do but to sing it over," which they did.

James B. Willis, jr., played as a piano solo, Prelude in G Minor by Rachmaninoff. After much persuasion he played Rapsody in Blue by Gershwin as an encore.

In the Garden of My Heart was a duct sung by Miss Velma Con-way and Billy Laughton, two beautiful voices. During the concert by the boys' glee club David Small carried the lead in The Erie Canal. His is the type of voice to sing Ol' Man River, which is exactly what he presented at the concert last year.

Let Us Break Bread Together, white spiritual, was sung by the boys' glee club with Mary Laura Guthrie and Janice Lewis lending soprano support. Deep in My Heart Dear, from the Student Privce, Romberg, was next.

Opening number was The Spirit of Music with band accompaniment and solo parts by Mary L. Guthrie, Janice Lewis and Velma Conway sung by the entire chorus. In this first portion of the program they also sang John Peel and The Sleigh. Bill Murrell added a real istic touch to this last selection by ringing sleigh bells.

The girls' glee club gave Trees, Homing and My Hero, from the Chocolate Soldier by Strauss. Leading up to the grand finale the entire chorus joined to sing Oh. Susanna and Lover Come Back to Me from Romberg's New Moon. Piano accompanists were the Misses Mary Lou Norwood, Ann Darden Webb, Ann Garner, Corinne Bell Webb and James B. Willis, jr. They are also members of the chorus.

Two Local Marines Return from Korea

Among the marines who landed at San Francisco, May 17, after duty in Korea were Sergeant Leslie D. Feagle, III, of Morehead City and Staff Sergeant Duane D. Peters of 302 Cedar street, Beaufort.

These men were a part of a group of 3,044 veterans of the First Marine division in Korea who were returned aboard the USNS Gen eral Walker.

The returnees are being process ed for separation from the service or leave and new duty assignments at the Marine Barracks, Treasure Island, San Francisco.

Seriously ...

Graduation is the time for rejoicing. Not that we may throw away our books, forget about our homework, make sneering faces at our teachers without fear of punishment - But . . .

rejoicing that we have come to that point in life where we rightfully assume our responsibility. Many .

of you will go to further learning, and later becoming the backbone of our community, our nation.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES TO YOU

SCARBORO - SAFRIT LUMBER CO. Lennoxville Road

Beaufort

Morehead City School Negro Given Ocracoke — The PTA enjoyed a pot-luck supper on Monday night, Glee Club Scores Hit

To Be Released

Lt. Lawrence E. Kelly, Coast Guard port captain for both More-head City and Wilmington, will be released to inactive duty June 2, to be served consecutively. according to the fifth Coast Guard district headquarters.

Lieutenant Kelly, a reserve officer, has been port captain at Wil-mington since April 1952 and as Nei sumed the same duties at Morehead City last August after the dedication of the port terminal.

| Fight | Barlow of Camp | Lejeune | Fight | Barlow of Camp | Fight | Fig tion of the port terminal.

Lt. Lawrence E. Kelly

Guard office in Wilmington until Lieutenant Kelly's successor named by officials of the fifth Coast Guard district. Lieutenant Kelly is a native of Oklahoma and spent several years as a high school football coach before joining the Coast Guard in

After wartime service in the United States and Europe, he was similar charge.

When the states and Europe, he was similar charge.

Mose W. Godwin paid costs for the state of the 1946. He was recalled to active duty in January 1951.

Before being assigned to Wilnington, he was an instructor in enness. explosives loading at the Naval Magazine, Port Chicago, Cal.

After his release from active duty, Lieutenant Kelly will make his home in Moore, Okla., where he will serve as athletic director at Moore high school.

Diners Hear Singer At Restaurant Here

Jimmy Swittel, Decca records re cording artist, gave an impromptu performance last week at Capt. Bill's restaurant. He stopped in Morehead City while touring the

He is best known for his recordings of hymns issued under the Decca label. Diners at the local restaurant enthusiastically applauded his songs.

60-Day Term

Robert Dudley, Morehead City Negro, was sentenced to 60 days on the roads Monday in Morehead City recorder's court after his trial on charges growing out of a fight in a Morehead City cafe.

Dudley was sentenced to 30 days for being drunk and disturbing the Willie Pickett, also a Negro, in-volved in the fight with Dudley was found not guilty of disturbing the peace. Judge George H. Me Neil found that Pickett had merely been defending himself during the CBM J. A. Lewark will be in was given a six-month suspended temporary charge of the Coast sentence after he was found guilty of driving while under the influ-ence of alcohol and being involved in an accident, causing personal in-

The sentence was suspended or condition that Barlow remain on good behavior for two years, re-frain from driving for one year, pay Delfido Cordova $350 for damages to his car and pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Barlow is to pay the damages and fine in three monthly installments. Carlton Pittman was sentenced to 30 days on the roads for public drunkenness. He served notice of appeal to superior court. His bond as set at $100. Dave Hill was given a 30-day suspended sentence for public drunkenness. The sentence was suspend-ed on condition that Hill remain on good behavior for six months and pay a fine of $10 and costs. He was placed in the custody of his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Howland. Walter I. Smith was fined $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was found not guilty of operating a vehicle with improper motor Charles V. Dunn was fined $10 and costs after he was found guilty of being drunk and disturbing the peace at the Jefferson hotel. Alton F. Catlett paid court costs on a public drunkenness at the Jeffer-son hotel. Woodrow Wilson Forehand paid costs for public drunk-Walter Moreland was fined $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of alcohol. Dean Mc-Connell was fined $10 and costs for speeding.

Francis Whitley was ordered to pay half of the costs for operating a taxi without a permit.

The state declined to prosecute cases against Mrs. Louise Seamor and Nick Tiberi, both charged with being involved in an accident.

James Edward McBride was found not guilty of failing to stop for a red light.

Cases were continued against
Norman B. Larkee, Howard Car-

There were 127,400 more persons injured in U. S. motor vehicle accidents last year than in 1951.

Newport Rotary Hears Discussion Of Public School

Edgar B. Comer, principal of the Newport school, discussed the North Carolina public school sys-tem at the meeting of the Newport Rotary club Monday night. The two main problems in school administration today, he said are "lack of space and a tremendous."

"lack of space and a tremendous shortage of teachers."

C. S. Long, president of the club, presided over the meeting. The members voted to meet next Monday night at 6:30 p.m. instead of 7 p.m. in order to avoid conflicting with the graduation exercises of the Newport school. The graduation starts at 8 o'clock.

Visitors at the meeting were Frank E. Cahoon, jr., of Newport and six presidents-elect from other Rotary clubs in the district. The presidents-elect were C. P. Mid-yette of Oriental, Obie O'Bryan of Pollocksville, Gene C. Smith of Beaufort, K. W. Prest of More-head City, C. K. McCotter of New Bern, and Charlie McCullers of Kinston. Mr. McCullers is gover-nor-elect of the district.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Waldrop, pastor of the Newport Methodist church.

Morehead

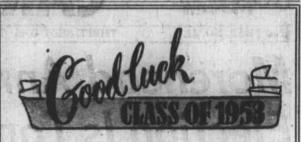

Enid Rose, Henry Harrison Scott, jr., Evonne Smith, Sherwood Vaughn Smith, Perry Meloan Tay-lor, III, Ann Darden Webb, Jarvis Earl Weeks, Helen Christine Willis, Mack Fair Willis, Patricia Ar Willis, and Robert Wayne Willis.

Ann Garner will be chief mar shal for the commencement exer-cises. Other marshals will be David Small, Maxine McLohon, An Swanson, Molly Barker, Corinn Bell Webb, Ann Scripture and Hilliard Eure. Alternates will be Joe Dixon and Betsy Ann Davis.

> FOR FINE FUR STORAGE IT'S

230 Middle St. - New Bern "Bonded Fur Storage" "Since 1932"

More than 12,000 people read every issue of THE NEWS-TIMES

Sound Esso Service

1312 Arendell St.

Morehead City

LANE CHESTS MOM and DAD: Your gift of a Lane will bring your graduate happi-ness now, and at the same time build AS ADVERTISED IN LIFE

ONE GARMENT SAVED FROM MOTHS PAYS FOR A CANEL

PHONE 2-7201

505 LIVE OAK ST.

BEAUFORT, N. C.

FRADS OF

The Home of Better Values 700 Arendell St.

YOU NOW HAVE THE KEY FOR OPENING MANY DOORS OF SUCCESS - - - - USE IT WISELY. GOOD LUCK AND GOD BLESS YOU.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.

Express Your Congratulations By Giving! What to give the graduates you know and love means a lot. So why not let us help you. We can give you good ideas for gifts that are appreciated and gifts you like to give.

JOE HOUSE DRUG STORE

Phone 2-3331

Congratulations

Front St.

Beaufort

With eyes clearly focused on the Future, with feet stand-ing firmly in the Present, with hearts revering Ameri-ca's great traditions of the Past—may the members of the Class of '53 bring Joy to parents, Pride to teachers, Honor to nation and Fulfill-ment to themselves.

YOUR CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH DEALER

509 ARENDELL STREET

PHONE 6-3332

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.

1213 BRIDGES ST.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.

WE WISH FOR YOU A SUCCESSFUL

FUTURE. GOOD LUCK!!