Annie Louise Willis Married To Maurice Peterson on Friday

The marriage of Miss Annie Louise Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Theodore Willis, to Mr. Maurice Wells Peterson, son of Mr. Hansen Peterson and the late Mr. Peterson, was solemnized Friday, May 22, at 7:30 in the evening, in the Ann Street Methodist church.

The Rev. B. D. Critcher, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with fern and baskets of white gladiolus and carnations.

Prior to the wedding ceremony, Mrs. John Butler, organist, gave a program of nuptial music and Miss Nancy Whitehurst, soloist, sang "Because and Always." As the benediction she sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina length dress with lace bodice and nylon accordion pleated skirt. Her lace jacket had a peter pan collar and the long sleeves ended in calla points over the wrists. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a colonial nosegay of carnations and snapdragons.

Mrs. Jack Crosswell, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green lace dress similar to the bride's and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow snapdragons and carnations.

Cecil Peterson was best man for his brother and ushers were Leonard Peterson, brother of the bridegroom, Earl Willis, Donnie Dudley and Delbert Rhue.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Willis entertained at a reception at the American Legion hut to honor the bridal couple.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Claude Guthrie, aunt of the bride. Mrs. A. T. Bowen was in charge of the bride's book.

Mrs. Percy Howland of Morehead City, aunt of the bride, served the punch and Mrs. Clarence Guthrie, aunt of the bride, served the cake, assisted by Mrs. William H. Willis, Miss Helen Manson, Mrs. C. B. Morning, Miss Monica Robinson and Miss Edith Ann Willis.

Mrs. Willis, mother of the bride, wore a yellow french voile dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Peterson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. C. C. Guthrie, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a blue sheer dress and a corsage of pink carnations, and Mrs. L. L. Garner of Morehead City, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore a gray dress with pink carnations.

The bride attended Beaufort high school. The bridegroom attended Beaufort high school and served for a while in the Army. He is now employed at the A&P store in Morehead City.

The young couple will make their home on Pollock street, Beaufort.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a pink linen dress and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hill wore a navy blue print and a white carnation corsage for her daughter's wedding.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Hill entertained at an informal reception.

Mrs. C. L. Beam and Mrs. Vera Smith served cake, punch, nuts and to the guests and Mrs. W. I. Loftin presided over the bride's book.

Sibley Paintings Are Nationally Recognized

Art lovers of Rochester, N. Y., will have an opportunity to get acquainted with "Back Landing" in Beaufort this summer when a painting by that name will be on display.

It is the work of Charles Sibley of Portsmouth and was recently purchased by the Rochester museum. The canvas shows the scene with the familiar boats as one looks across Town creek to Gallants Point.

Mr. Sibley has just returned from Austin, Texas, where he was with the art department of Texas university during the past school year. He and a friend, James Buckles, stopped briefly at the home of Miss Mattie Duncan in Beaufort and then left for the Sibley home at Portsmouth, N. C., where the artist will spend the summer painting at his studio there.

During his absence from Carteret county, he has been represented in a number of outstanding exhibitions, among them the Carnegie International at Pittsburgh, Pa.; Pennsylvania Academy, Philadelphia; the Corcoran Biennial, Washington; and the National Academy and Whitney museums of New York.
