TODAY'S Meditation

The Upper Room
 THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

FRIDAY, MAY 29
 They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. (Daniel 12:3). Read II Timothy 2:19-26.

In a small city in Pennsylvania is a certain church that over the years has been growing by various means. Evangelistic meetings have been held. Earnest groups of spirit-filled, faithful members, both young and old, have helped to lead scores to find the Saviour and join the church.

Still others have joined the fellowship of that church through the efforts of one layman. He worked in a window glass factory. But his main life purpose was to win souls, to bring friends to our Saviour. He would invite a man to go for a walk.

PRAYER
 Our Father, help us to seek out men and women and bring them to knowledge of Thy saving power. Guide us to see opportunities this day for witnessing to Thee. Quicken our love and devotion for all mankind. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 Our business for the Father is to win others to love and serve Christ.
 H. B. Milward, Journalist (New York)

Mr. Jones, pastor of the church, has invited the public to attend both the revival and the Bible school.

Flying Bishop in Alaska

The Rt. Rev. William J. Gordon, Jr., Bishop of Alaska, stands beside his airplane, "The Blue Box," contributed by the women of the Episcopal Church through their United Thank Offering. Year round Bishop Gordon travels to the 47 Episcopal mission and parish stations, holding regular services in the smaller missions which have no residing minister, and confirming and baptizing in the larger missions and parishes. Each station is visited at least once a year. Seven months out of the year the plane travels on skis, as pictured above. During the warm weather when the snow thaws, wheels are substituted for the skis.
