

Board Appoints Hugh Salter Sheriff

New Sheriff, Deputy Robert Bell Sworn in Saturday

Hugh Salter, deputy sheriff and native of Sea Level, was named sheriff of Carteret County Friday morning. The appointment was made by the county commissioners who met in special session at the courthouse, Beaufort.

Sheriff Salter has appointed Robert (Bobby) Bell, Morehead City, deputy sheriff. Marshall Ayscue, Morehead City, the county Alcoholic Beverage Control officer, remains as deputy sheriff. They were sworn into office by A. H. James, clerk of Superior Court, Saturday morning. Others on the sheriff's staff are Ormsby Mann, Newport chief of police, and Em Chaplain, jailer and deputy sheriff.

All took oaths of office Saturday. The new sheriff replaces C. G. Holland who has been appointed assistant fisheries commissioner in charge of law enforcement. Sheriff Salter was born in 1921, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Salter. He attended school at Sea Level and Atlantic. In July 1940 he entered the Coast Guard.

Serves on Cutter
He served aboard the 327-foot cutter, Alexander Hamilton, which was torpedoed off Iceland in 1942. Twenty-six men were lost including Livingston Brooks of Harkers Island. The survivors were picked up by a destroyer and lifeboats.

Sheriff Salter says he came through "without a scratch." He then had a shore job in Boston, was transferred to destroyer escort 252 and immediately prior to his discharge in October 1945 was on LST 758. His rating upon discharge was chief gunner's mate.

Worked at Sea Level
He came home to Sea Level and worked with T. A. Taylor there and then went to barber school. Until July 1952 when he was appointed deputy sheriff, he worked at Jeff's Barber Shop, Beaufort. For three years prior to his appointment as deputy, he served on the county board.

His wife is the former Blanche Daniels, Cedar Island. They have two children, Jeffery who will be 10 in March, and Janet Carlston, two weeks old. Their home is in Hancock Park, Beaufort.

Sheriff Salter is a past commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Jones-Austin Post No. 2401, a member of the Masonic Blue Lodge, the Elks, and the Shrine.

Mr. Bell was born in Richmond, Va. He and his sister, Mrs. Fred Willis, Morehead City, were adopted as young children by Mrs. W. H. Bell who later married the late Elbert Chadwick, Straits, former sheriff of Carteret County.

Mr. Bell graduated from Morehead City High School in 1935 and completed the business course there in 1936. He was employed by Willis Brothers Lumber Company and Carteret Supply Company and for the past three years has worked for Sound Appliance Company.

His wife is the former Pauline Edwards of Beaufort. They have two sons, Barry 8 and Gregory 6. Their home is at 917 Arendell St., Morehead City.

Mr. Bell is a member of the Beaufort Choral Club and the choir of the First Methodist Church, Morehead City.

Home Agent Announces Club Meetings for Week
Miss Martha Barnett, home agent, yesterday announced five Home Demonstration Club meetings for this week. Today the Wildwood Club meets at 2:30 with Mrs. C. A. McCabe. The Newport Club will meet tomorrow at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Letha Henderson.

The Core Creek-Harlowe Club meets Thursday at 1:30 with Mrs. Emma Oglesby. Friday, Pelletier meets at 7:30 with Mrs. McDonald Gillikin.

Included among their vast holdings are D. E. Taylor and Company, the Norfolk Warehouse Company, Taylor Salt & Chemical Company, the National Wire Hanger Manufacturing Company, all of Norfolk. Also the Palm Beach Biltmore Hotel, Palm Beach Florida. In addition they own The India Fruit & Steamship Company of Norfolk and West Palm Beach. The steamship company operates a daily railroad car ferry service the honor guests at the dedication. Carl Goerch, Raleigh radio commentator, will serve as Master of Ceremonies. Concerts will be given by Marine Corps bands from Cherry Point Marine Air Station and Camp Lejeune.

The schedule of events is now tentatively set to begin with a flag-raising ceremony at 11 a. m. This will be followed by the formal dedication rites, at which time the hospital will be turned over to the Board of Trustees by Dan, eldest of the four brothers, and president of the Taylor Foundation. There will be brief speeches by distinguished visitors, followed by the picnic dinner.

The brothers, Daniel E., William R., Alfred T., and Leslie M., all forsook the relatively uninteresting lives of fishermen when they were young men, and sought their fortunes elsewhere. Their success has been phenomenal, to say the least. Today they are joint owners of numerous business enterprises in Norfolk, Va., and West Palm Beach, Fla., which are both national and international in scope.

Ministers Get Assignments

Two of County's Pastors Retire; Robert M. Poulk Enters Ministry

Two ministers from this section, the Rev. E. W. Downum of Atlantic and the Rev. W. Y. Stewart of Ocracoke, were retired by the Methodist conference at their annual meeting in Durham the end of last week. Mr. Stewart retired due to ill health.

The Rev. L. A. Lewis, former pastor at Core Creek, was named to replace Mr. Downum at Atlantic. Robert M. Poulk of Morehead City accepted the Beaufort Circuit which includes Core Creek Church.

Mr. Poulk, a Navy veteran, served in China from 1947 to 1950. He received his minister's license two weeks ago at New Bern and will be ordained in the near future. Until recently he was employed in the office at Morehead City Garment Company.

The Rev. A. L. G. Stephenson will replace Mr. Stewart at Ocracoke. At the Ann Street Methodist Church in Beaufort the Rev. J. D. Young of Snow Hill will replace the Rev. B. D. Critcher who was moved to the Fifth Avenue Methodist Church in Wilmington.

Ministers in the county who will remain at their charges are the Rev. D. M. Tyson, Straits; the Rev. H. H. Cash, Marshallberg; the Rev. Leon Couch of First Methodist and the Rev. H. T. Payne, Franklin Memorial Methodist, both in Morehead City; the Rev. J. H. Waldrop Jr., Newport; the Rev. Lewis Dillman, Camp Glenn.

Mr. Couch was appointed district secretary of evangelism.

Rural Leaders List Meetings

Robert Laughton, president of the County Farm Bureau, and R. M. Williams, county farm agent, will attend a district farm bureau meeting in Kinston tomorrow night at 7 p.m. It will be held in the agricultural building. Other Farm Bureau members who want to attend may contact either Mr. Laughton or Mr. Williams and transportation will be arranged.

A one-day training school for secretaries will be held in Washington, N. C., Thursday. Miss Josephine Stanton, home agent secretary, and Mrs. Edna Davis, secretary to Mr. Williams, will attend.

A Farm Bureau check-up meeting will be held in the county agent's office Friday night at 8 o'clock. Floyd Garner, chairman of the membership drive, requests that all solicitors turn in their lists of new members at that time.

The bureau is 37 members short of its goal for this year, Mr. Garner reports.

P.T.A. Nets $800 Thursday

The Beaufort Parent-Teacher Association made over $800 at the Halloween Carnival at the school Thursday afternoon and evening. Mrs. Robert Safrin, Mrs. C. G. Holland and Mrs. Martin Willis, chairman of the ways and means committee, said the success of the carnival was due to the generosity of all members of the organization and to the full cooperation that was given them.

Keith Midgett, as Captain Hook, and Mary Elizabeth Bellamah as a gypsy girl, won the prizes for the best costumes.

Emmett Pittman won first baby prize and received a silver cup presented by B. A. Bell Jeweler.

Tommy Potter received second prize, a child's plate and child's setting of table silver, and Sandra Clemons, winner of third place, received a bank and child's setting of table silver.

Father Killed
Mrs. Clyde Taylor, Harlowe, was notified through the sheriff's department this weekend that her father was killed in New Jersey. Sheriff Salter said he was killed in a wreck.

Former Sheriff Takes Office At 3 Saturday

200 See Administration Of Oath at Fisheries Building, Camp Glenn

More than 200 of his friends saw C. Gehrman Holland, Carteret's sheriff for the past 15 years, sworn in as assistant fisheries commissioner in formal ceremonies at the North Carolina Commercial Fisheries building Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The oath of office was administered by A. H. James, clerk of Carteret Superior Court.

'No Politics'

Ben Douglas, Director of the Department of Conservation and Development, in a brief address to the fishermen and friends of Holland attending the ceremony, said: "There is no politics involved in this appointment. I have a good job in Raleigh for 'Dick.' (C. D. Kirkpatrick), and I know Sheriff Holland can do the job down here."

The director explained to the fishermen that the commercial fishing regulations set forth by the C&D Board were not devised for the purpose of working a hardship on the fishermen, but were made solely in the interests of conservation.

The Commercial Fisheries Committee, along with fishermen themselves, he said, can do a lot towards eliminating some of these regulations.

"Let's work out a system," the director concluded, "whereby we can be friendly and neighborly, and do things that are for the best interests of the fishermen, and for the remainder of North Carolina's citizens. I ask your cooperation and advice in working out a program that is to the best interests of all concerned."

'Call Hugh'

Commissioner Holland told his friends: "You have been calling on me in the past, and I want you to continue to call on me when you need help." He then laughingly added: "But don't call on me for any sheriff duty, call Hugh Salter."

The new commissioner succeeded Kirkpatrick, who has been named by the C&D Board to make a survey of the industrial sites of the state. Commissioner Holland's offices will be the same as those occupied by Kirkpatrick in the Fisheries Institute Building here. Holland will have charge of enforcing the fishing regulations in the coastal section of the state.

The following state officials were on hand to witness the ceremony: Douglas, Kirkpatrick, Dave Holten, state purchasing agent, Dr. William A. Ellison, of the Institute of Fisheries here, Cecil O. Morris, of Atlantic, a member of the C&D Board, and Eric Rodgers, chairman of the Commercial Fisheries Committee.

County to Consult Barden On Mosquito Control Issue

P.T.A. Members Tour Air Station

Cherry Point — Climaxing the recent conference of the 10th District of the Parent-Teachers Association at Havelock was a tour of the Marine Corps Air Station here.

The sight-seeing trip was sponsored by the station Informational Services Office and Marine guides accompanied P.T.A. members about the base.

Of especial interest to the group were the link trainers used by pilots of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing to practice instrument flying. These trainers simulate the cockpit and controls of a plane.

P.T.A. members were also allowed to examine at first hand many of the aircraft used here, and pilots explained the complicated instruments peculiar to each one. Among the planes on display were the F2H-4 "Banshee," F3D "Skynight," the F7F "Tigercat" and the Sikorski HRS-1 helicopter.

Mrs. T. R. Easterling of Rocky Mount, state president of the P.T.A., Mrs. J. W. Burke of Gibsonville, state treasurer and head of the state office of the P.T.A., Miss B. Haley of Greensboro, field representative of the state organization, Mrs. Scott Topping of Paneto, Mrs. Joe S. Johnson of New Bern, district director, Mrs. Boy Morris and Mrs. Franklin P. Powell of Vanceboro were among those who went on the tour.

New Fire Alarm System Goes Into Operation Saturday Noon

President Announces Dates for Concerts

Mrs. George W. Dill, president of the Carteret County Community Concerts Association, announced yesterday that dates for the three concerts have been set.

Men of Song, a male quartet, will sing at the Beaufort High School Friday, Nov. 27, Ray Dudley, pianist, will give a concert Thursday, Feb. 18, in the Morehead City School and Miss Jane Hobson, mezzo-soprano, will give a concert in the Morehead City School Tuesday, April 6.

Town Has Four Fires, Two Minor Wrecks

Four small fires and two minor auto collisions produced a quiet weekend record for Morehead City.

The fire record was: Friday, 9 p.m., small floor furnace fire at the home of Edward Weeks, Noyes Ave., with damage slight.

Sunday, 3 a.m., mattress fire in an apartment in the Negro housing development, 13th and Fisher St., damage slight.

Sunday noon, kitchen fire caused by a deep fat fryer at the home of Mrs. Durwood Willis, 1510 Arendell St., with extensive kitchen damage.

Monday noon, grass fire at Carteret Supply Co., highway 70, Morehead City.

Mrs. Mary J. Willis, 3108 Evans St., is charged with failing to stop at stop sign, following collision of her car with another driven by Wilbert Main, 410 Havens St., Washington, about 2:45 p.m. Thursday at Evans and 24th streets.

According to Patrolman Joe Smith, Mrs. Willis failed to stop at Evans and caused Main's car, traveling west on Evans, to collide with hers. Damage to his car was $300 and to hers $200.

No charges were preferred by Captain Herbert Griffin in the collision Sunday morning at 9:25 of cars driven by John Holman Eaton II, RFD 1, Morehead City, and John Howard Dill, 110 Pollock St., Beaufort.

According to Patrolman Griffin, Dill swung his car wide onto Arendell street at 24th into the path of Eaton's car. Damage to Eaton's car amounted to $200, to Dill's car $125.

Beaufort's new fire alarm system went into operation at noon Saturday.

Cards with the new box numbers were distributed by firemen in Beaufort and in the outskirts of town Saturday afternoon. The list also appears on the first page of the classified section of the telephone book.

Twenty-nine stations have been established under the new system. Eleven of the areas, such as Radio Island, the causeway and other "out-of-town" sections are "phone stations."

J. P. Harris, fire commissioner, explained that this does NOT mean that there is a public phone there to be used to report fires. It means that persons must report the fires by phone, THEN the number assigned to that section is rung at the fire station.

"Phone stations" are Radio Island, the causeway, Pivers Island, Front and Ann streets extended, Lennoxville, West Beaufort, Highland Park, Hancock Park, highway 70 and highway 101.

The proposal to prevent traveling photographers from coming into town for several days was made by Jerry Schumacher, Morehead City photographer. Harvey Hamilton, attorney for an upstate photography concern, told the board that they could not keep one type of "peddler" out of town without excluding all.

The board decided not to take any action.

Ball, Harlowe; Gordon Laughton, Crab Point; Earl Day, Cedar Island; Gilbert Whitehurst, Straits; Roger W. Jones, Broad Creek; Everett Koonce, Swansboro; and W. J. Wynne Jr., Havelock.

Additional nominations may be made from the floor by any REA member at the annual REA meeting on Dec. 5 at the Morehead City High School.

Carteret Gets $4,972 from Courts

A. H. James, clerk of Superior Court, reported yesterday that the county received $4,972.80 from the courts during October. The report was made at the meeting of the County Board of Commissioners.

All receipts in the clerk's office during October amounted to $8,850.83. This includes bond money that was later returned as well as other funds disbursed by the court.

Fines and forfeitures from Morehead City Recorder's Court amounted to $796.50, from Beaufort Court $566.50, from County Recorder's Court $2,581.45 and from Superior Court $779.55.

Received from A. B. Cooper, mayor of Atlantic Beach $116, from Justice of the Peace L. W. Hassell $20 and from Justice of the Peace A. L. Wilson $15.

Social Security Man Will Be at Courthouse

N. A. Avera, manager of the Wilmington Social Security office, announces that a representative of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance will be in Beaufort at the courthouse on the first and third Wednesdays of the month, Nov. 4 and Nov. 18, at 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

"The representative will help in claiming your federal old-age and survivors insurance benefits; check your social security account, or get full information about old-age and survivors insurance," said Mr. Avera. The post office has application blanks for social security account number cards.

Santa Claus Will Visit Beaufort Dec. 9

At a meeting of the merchants committee of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce Thursday afternoon, Dan Walker, manager of the chamber, read a letter from Santa Claus.

The letter stated that Santa Claus was interested in making a special visit to Beaufort this year.

He said he would have candy and gifts for the youngsters and asked the merchants committee to set a date for his arrival.

The committee decided on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 15 p.m.

The committee suggested that the businessmen of the town stay open Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 25, and every Wednesday afternoon thereafter until Christmas.

It was also suggested that they close Thursday, Nov. 26, Thanksgiving Day, and that the Christmas holidays be Dec. 25 and 26.

The committee agreed to ask the fire department to put up the lights and Christmas decorations downtown.

Merchants and others interested are invited to the next meeting of the committee at 3 p.m. Thursday at the town hall, said Albert Chappell, chairman.

Attending Thursday's meeting were Odell Merrill, E. W. Downum, Lonnie Dill, Mrs. Virginia Potter, Christopher Jones, John Haynes, the chairman and Mr. Walker.

Police Arrest Two Women Saturday

Minnie Ford and Fozzell Merrill, Queen street, Beaufort, were arrested by Beaufort police Saturday night. The charge against them is possession of illegal liquor for purpose of sale.

Chief of Police M. E. Guy said the two women will be tried in Beaufort Recorder's Court this afternoon.

The chief of police, the assistant chief, Carlton Garner and Officers Mack Wade and Steve Beachem went to the Ford house at 6:30 Saturday night.

Chief Guy said one of the women went out of the house with about a half gallon of liquor in her hands and ran right into Assistant Chief Garner.

The sand asphalt top will be laid on the eight miles from Trader's Store to the Nine-Foot Road. The Mundine Road is called the 'Old Lake Road' also.

Mr. Humphrey also reported that work is progressing satisfactorily on destruction of the old bridge to Atlantic Beach.

Taylor to Dedicate Hospital Nov. 21

By NORWOOD YOUNG
The greatest Homecoming Day in the history of Carteret County is being planned for the four Taylor Brothers, native sons of Sea Level, in connection with the formal dedication on Saturday, Nov. 21, of the Sea Level Community Hospital. T. A. Taylor, president of the hospital's Board of Trustees, said upwards of 2,000 persons are expected.

Plans are being formed now for church groups and residents of the area to provide food for a huge picnic on the sandy shores of Nelson's Bay, adjacent to the hospital. There will be the county's favorite dishes, including barbecued beef, chicken, and pig, with assortments of seafood, cakes and pies.

Over 200 special invitations have already been mailed to distinguished guests, friends, and business acquaintances of the Brothers, including the Board of Directors of the Panama Canal, of which Dan Taylor is a member.

A spokesman for the Taylors said approximately 300 additional invitations will be mailed to friends throughout the nation, Cuba and other foreign countries. Approximately two train car loads of guests are expected from the State of Florida.

Medical Staffs Invited
Invitations are extended also to every doctor in Eastern Carolina, including the staffs of Duke and the University of North Carolina schools of medicine.

'North Carolina' Makes Port Here

The T2 Texaco tanker North Carolina made port for the first time, in the state for which it is named, when it docked Saturday afternoon at Morehead City to discharge asphalt for Trumbull Asphalt Co.

All Texaco tankers are named for states. The North Carolina was built in 1944. Its captain is John Grasse. While hold capacity is 137,500 barrels, having discharged the bulk of it cargo at a Connecticut port. Texaco asphalt is loaded at Port Neches.

T2 tankers are able to bring capacity loads into Morehead City only on high tides according to Gene Seelbinder, superintendent of Trumbull. Thus Morehead City generally becomes second port of call for most tankers.

10 Attend Girl Scout School

The Girl Scout training school met Thursday at the Scout Building in Beaufort with 10 women from the county present.

Miss Elizabeth Griffin of Goldsboro, field worker, conducted the workshop.

Leaders from the county who attended were Mrs. Earl Whitely, Miss Lucille Gould and Mrs. John Maggioni all from Newport; Mrs. T. R. Rice, Mrs. Luther Hamilton Jr., Mrs. Harvey Hamilton Jr., Mrs. W. M. Brady and Miss Elizabeth Lambeth, all of Morehead City; Mrs. Fred Garner and Mrs. W. I. Loftin from Beaufort.

A workshop will be held at the Scout Building each Thursday through Nov. 19. Anyone interested in Girl Scouting, even though they have no troop at present, is invited to attend.

Mrs. Loftin and Mrs. Rice were hostesses Thursday. They served coffee and cup cakes.

This Thursday, Nov. 5, the General Girl Scout Council of the Coastal Carolina area will have a meeting at the lunch hour at the Scout Building, Beaufort. Counties in the area include Wayne, Duplin, Onslow and Carteret County.
