Eagles Stop Pamlico County 56-50 Tuesday for Fifth Win 64-50 Tuesday

Newport Cops Cage Victory From Dixon

Newport grabbed another win Tuesday night at Dixon, but not without a fight. Dixon finally was overwhelmed 57-47 by the last half efforts of Newport led by Harlan Carraway and Sidney Manning.

Dixon led at the end of the first period 18-15. Newport outscored the home team to pull up to a 26-26 tie at halftime. A 16-point third quarter brought Newport into the lead where they stayed for the remainder of the fourth period for the win.

points and Manning contributed 17. Leading Dixon was J. Smith with 23 and Simms had 12.

Newport High girls copped another victory at Dixon 42-39 Tuesday as both teams battled down to wire before a fourth period rally gave Newport the win.

The scoreboard read 8-8 at the end of the first period, 18-14 in favor of Dixon at the half, and 32:31 at the end of three periods of play. A fourth period scoring flurry led by Miss L. Mann gave Probable starting lineup that has the visitors the victory.

Miss L. Mann led the visitors points towards Dixon's efforts Elijah Holland, 6-1 center, will year came in the Masters at Augusta where his 14 under par 274 shattered the 14-year-old tournament

Mexico City with 286, two under par.

He won the Colonial Invitation at Fort Worth for the fourth time.

He was neither satisfied nor dis-appointed in his game as he headed for Oakmont, Pa., and the U.S.

283 total. He had beaten par by the only golfer to win five U.S.

73-71-70-68 for 282 gave him a four-stroke margin over three rivals. His 68 was a new competitive record Almost anything else in golf dur-

Stave Off Fourth Period Basketball Rally to Continue Streak SCORES

Staving off a fourth quarter rally, Morehead City High School's improved basketball squad notched its fifth win, fourth straight, over a fine crew from Pamlico County 56-50 Tuesday at Morehead's gym.

The Eagles led all the way and weren't in any serious trouble until the waning minutes of the final quarter. Pam-

With the scoreboard reading 54-50 in the Eagles favor and 35 seconds remaining, Jerry W. Willis, Morehead guard who played a brilliant game, was fouled driving in for a layup. He hit both free throws to ice the Eagles' fifth vic-Eagles Control Boards

The Eagles were a well-rounded, smooth working aggregation with Wayne Cheek, 6-5 forward, and Jerry T. Willis, 6-4 center, controlling the boards with their rebounding and doing stellar work under the basket.

Denny T. Lawrence and J. W. Willis did an excellent job on the floor and contributed to Eagle with five personals.

Three quick layups gave Pamlico paced the Eagles with 15 each, the advantage again, shaving the Cheek had 13, and J. W. Willis con-fast pace, hitting for seven points and tossed two beautiful buckets before the visitors could recover; without hardly stirring the cords, then only for two field goals. Morehead was scoring consistently on set shots and jumps, keeping Pamlico on the outside of the zone try ing set shots.

Led by Jerry T. Willis, Morehead pulled away to a 19-8 first quarter lead and increased its score to 33-21 at halftime, connecting for 14 points. Pamlico had rallied at the outset of the second period as Frank Barnes and Wesley Avery teamed up to provide a scoring

Pamlico Surges

Gary Caton and Larry Barker were beginning to scrap for the first five for Pamlico was Avery ball under the boards and provided Gahagan. Barker, Caton, and Avery and Joe Gahagan with the George Gilgo. ball. Morehead was keeping ahead on the dead-eye layups of J. T. Dalmon Lawrence for the Eagles

Willis.

After controlling the ball most Score by periods:
Sore by periods:
Morehead City 19 33 44 56
Pamilico County 8 21 32 50

driving layups shaved the 10-point lead of the Eagles to four points. under the buckets might have lost start to connect with any accuracy until the waning moments of the third quarter stop.

Putting on a full-court press the start of the final frame, Pamlico opened up full-throttle with fast breaks that unnerved the home team. With four minutes left in the game Pamlico had shaved the lead to 49-41 and showed prospects of completing the job.

At this point Caton ran afoul of the five-foul rule and had to leave the game. This perked up the Eagles who hit five points on three free throws and a field goal. Cheek left the game during this flurry tributed 11. ing in for a layup, was fouled. He The Eagles started out with a calmly stepped to the charity line

Avery Hits for 19

After one try at the bucket Pamlico again snatched the ball and were passing toward the net as the game ended

Avery led for Pamlico with 19 as Gahagan and Caton contributed nine. The visitors hit 12 for 19 at the charity line. Morehead connectew for 14 out of 21.

Starting for the Eagles was Bob-y Willis, J. T. and J. W. Willis, Cheek and D. T. Lawrence.

and Frank Barnes for Pamlico.

Caretaker Cuts Acres Of Grass Twice Weekly

fairways twice a week.

are entered, making a total of 30

ing through the hot summer Arnold uses 720,000 gallons daily, rain or shine, at the rate of 750 gallons per minute for 16 hours every day in the year.

shrubbery occasionally, but what if sees to that, even if he has to drive nails into the trunks of bouganvilou had H. H. Arnold's job?

He has to cut 145,000 square feet lea to make them bloom on sched-

Think it takes a lot of water to sary because the course takes a keep your lawn green and grow-terrific beating every day, partic ularly from the Saturday and Sunday crowds.
Last year 79,000 rounds of golf were played over the course, an average of more than 216 rounds a day. Greens fees are $2.50 for six months during the season, and $1.50 the remainder of the year.

The course grossed $109,000 and showed a net profit of $26,000 last pines, palms, hibiscus, ole- exists, except as another stretch of fairway

Devilpups Snap Beaufort Win Streak 48-45 Tuesday

Camp Lejeune, N. C.—The Camp*
Lejeune Devilpups salted away their seventh win Tuesday night, barely nosing out a strong Beau-fort High quintet in a neck and neck game, 48-45, here at the Goettge Memorial Field House.

The last two minutes of the game saw 800 fans scream with excitement as they watched Lejeune come from behind, and, instead of freezing the ball for the remain-

Spectators are invited to the Pro Amateur Golf Event at the More-head City Country Club Monday and Tuesday, C. C. McCuiston, club pro, emphasized yesterday. Top-flight golfers from eastern

North Carolina will be on hand to participate in the 18-hole event for pros and amateurs.

Pamlico Stops Eagle Girls

Tyndall, Spencer Pace Visitors Easy Win Over Scrappy Hosts

Pamlico County lassies stopped the Eaglettes basketball crew 64-50 in a free scoring game Tuesday at Morehead paced by the deadly aim of Hazel Tyndall and Jo Spencer.
Miss Tyndall, a real tall forward, just couldn't be stopped and Miss Spencer's left-handed drive from the side was equally potent as Eaglette guards were helpless. Miss Tyndall connected for 29 and Miss Spencer contributed 25 to the Pamico gals' victory.

The Eaglettes were not without offensive power as Ann Long, Daisy Brock, and Carolyn Guthrie kept their team battling right down to the wire. Miss Long paced the home team with 29, Miss Guthrie contributed eight, and Polly Steed had nine.

Pamlico Jumps to Lead Pamlico jumped to a 6-1 lead in the first period before the Eag-lettes could rally. Geraldine Best and Ann Hardy gained control of the board to fire the ball to Miss Long. Good guarding and defensive work under the bucket gave Outscoring the Eaglettes in the second period with 21 points, Pam-lico led at halftime 37-23. The visitors had the boards covered too well with Ellen Lupton, Maria Jones, and Berry Lynch. Despite the stellar performance of Miss Brock and Miss Hardy, the Eag-lettes could only hit for 14 points.

the visitors a 16-9 first quarter

In the third period the Eaglettes were guarding better and taking their time to work the ball in for shot. But the offensive power f Pamlico gained two points on the home team to lead 51-35 at the end of the period.

Miss Hardy and Corinne Webb left the game via fouls in the fourth period as Pamlico continued its scoring spree. Subs played the last two minutes of the game as the Eaglettes absorbed another loss. Score by periods:

Pamlico County ... 16 37 51 64 Camp Lejeune

Golf Club to Sponsor Blind Bogey' for March of Dimes fit of the March of Dimes next trant will pay a 50-cent entrance fee. Proceeds will go to the March of Dimes. The tournament will be in progress Saturday, Jan. 23 and Sunday, Jan. 24.

Nine holes will be played by each contestant. Par will be be-tween 35 and 45. Each player will choose his own handicap. At the end of play the numbers between 35 and 45 will be put in a hat and one drawn.

The player whose score is closest the number drawn wins.

Mr. McCuiston added that the Ringer Tourney now in progress will continue through Jan. 31.

Beaufort Tops Camp Lejeune

Outscoring the Camp Lejeune lassies in every quarter, the Beau-fort High girls' basketball team breezed to a 43-25 win Tuesday at Camp Lejeune.

Colleen Guthrie paced the Beaufort lassies to victory with 34 points, Shirley Piner had four, and Peggy Williams contributed four Beaufort's girls jumped to a 10-6 first quarter lead, built this to a 24-14 edge at halftime, and coasted to a 17-point lead at the third quarter stop, 37-20. The fourth quarter found Beaufort outscoring Camp Lejeune by one point, 6-5 for the victory.

Defensive stars in Tuesday's ime were Leona Davis and Anita Copeland, who were terrific under the basket.

Dixie Hardick, Camp Lejeune forward, posted 19 points for her team's scoring honors. Score by periods:

9 23 35 50 Beaufort

Queen Street Cagers Top Bayboro 49-30 Wednesday The Black Knights of Queen game at the end of the third frame Street High toppled the Negro with an injury.

Athletic Association Class AA Conference leaders from the top with a sound 49-30 thrashing Wedesday at Beaufort.

Bayboro was leading the conference with a 5-0 record until meet-ing the hard driving Knights. The Knights now have a conference record of 3-1 and a season record of 3-3.

The Knights tumped to a 16-4 first quarter lead with the deadly shooting of Matthew Godette, who paced the Knights with 14 points. The Knights hit for five points in the second quarter for a halftime edge of 21-10.

Jones, Ellison Contribute

third quarter that put the game on Knights 16 points and the game. Hitting 17 out of 71 field goal ttempts, the Knights were led by Godette and Ellison, who had 13, and Jones with 12. Defensive standouts were Johnnie Jones and William Jordan. William White played his usual stellar game uner the basket.

Jordan was forced to leave the Bayboro der the basket.

Queen Street hit 15 out of 24 tries from the charity line. Godette hit seven out of 14 field goal attempts for a .500 average. Ellison posted the best free throw mark with four out of five.

Leading the Bayboro attack was eight.

Queen Street will travel to Bayboro tonight for a return game.

Girls Lose

The Queen Street girls were handed their fourth straight loss Wednesday 29-12 by Bayboro. The Queen Street girls fell behind in second quarter after playing Bayboro on even terms in the first Bayboro took a 14-6 halftime lead and were never threatened after that. Miss Dudley and Miss Garrison led the winners attack

Queen Street with six. The Queen Street girls hit four out of 35 field goal attempts and sank six out of 14 free throws.

Score by periods: Queen St. (Boys) 16 21 Bayboro

The BEAUFORT BAR'S

Pocket Billiard TOURNAMENT

7:00 P. M. MONDAY, JAN. 18

WILL START AT

The Public Is Invited No Admission Charge

The BOALDERDE

TURNER ST.

BEAUFORT, N. C.

C. C. McCuiston, pro at the More-head City Golf and Country Club, announced yesterday that there will be a Blind Bogey for the bene-will be a Blind Bogey for the bene-Prizes will go to the winner and runner-up and will be donated by Mr. and Mrs. McCuiston. Each entrant will pay a floori will have a chance to watch New-port's State Champs in action to-has already beaten Beaufort. Morenight in Morehead City against the head has yet to play Beaufort and Eagles of Morehead High.

Newport is bringing its once beaten aggregation to Morehead to- cities battle it out. night for a clash with the Eagles who have won four straight games and are eager to dump the highly touted visitors.

Cage fans will see the crack centre of the offing.

ter, Sidney Manning, in action as well as his team mate Harlan Carraway. These two boys have been hitting for a 10-point average per

Newport also has an outstanding defensive unit that has held its op-ponents down to almost nothing in fine board work.

Coach Gannon Talbert, of the Eagles, will have a surprise in store Dixon tonight in a battle of unfor the champs as Wayne Cheek and Jerry T. Willis will be able to match Manning and Carraway Morehead has shown a lot of improvement since the holiday vaca-tion, especially in the perform- Atlantic's ances of Denny Lawrence and Jer-W. Willis.

Morehead City basketball fans | This game may well decide the will be on hand to see the twin Morehead has the advantage of its home court and is riding the crest of a victory streak. An up-

Other Games Set

Other action in the county to night sees Beaufort trying to get back on the victory road at home against Smyrna after Camp Lejeune. Beaufort has beaten Smyrna already this season and these days of high scores by their by the Sea Dogs' fine showing lately will top Smyrna.

derdogs. Swansboro has taken two straight losses and Dixon has also been whipped twice in the last two starts. Swansboro, playing at home, stands an even chance of beating Atlantic's opponent for tonight wasn't available as the paper went to press.

Jerry Schumacher

Now He's Peddling Shrimp Trawlers: Wants Summer

there you have it.

Elmer Willis, that human dyna-mo from Williston, is building Williston, is building shrimp trawlers that are a thing of beauty, so is the Morehead City Yacht Basin, also heard several places elsewhere in the state are ing the same thing.
Why? Well, first the shrimp were plentiful in 1953 and sec-ond, if you strike it lucky you ond, if you strike it lucky you can pay for your boat and equipment in short order and realize neat profit besides It seems that other people in these United States like shrimp be-sides us on the ocean. Used to be when I was a boy we had difficulty getting fresh seafood at Hartford, Conn., just a hundred miles from the ocean, but now even Kansas City has sea food restaurants.

That reminds me, I think that Morehead City has the finest cating places of any town in the country of similar population. Smith with 13, and Monk with at its best at several waterfront restaurants, a wonderful supper club if you are a meat eater, and also a good Italian restaurant, but no chop suey joint. How come?

Ironically, 90 per cent of the people that go to a Chinese restaurant order chop suey and it isn't even a Chinese dish. No sir! It was invented - do you invent recipes? — well anyway, it's an honest to goodness Ameri-

Wanna buy a shrimp trawler? plays golf like he does everything Everyone should have at least one else, he is going to be hard to shrimper. Just dig up $40,000 and beat. Basil Wood, a fine fellow who plays golf every day, was seen carrying a sack of groceries into the clubhouse. Guess he is going to camp out there.

With the icy blast whistling down the waterfront, it's hard to remember the wonderful summer days with all the fish lined up or the racks and all the tourists milling around, the race track crowds trying to get waited on in the waterfront restaurants, the traffic congestion all over town, especially at the beach; beautiful girls in scanty shorts, bragging fishermen midnight revelers singing Sweet Adeline and keeping everyone awake on the waterfront - Oh Lordy, won't summer ever get

While this isn't generally known, I'm wealthy. My Glamour Gal, who incidentally is my wife, loves me; I live in Morehead City, my golf game is improving every day, I'm healthy as a horse, business is good, I'm happy; in fact, I'm the richest man on earth, but I just haven't got any

Diet Change Sought

Ankara, Turkey (AP)—Turkey's government has sent a 3-man team to tour the Black Sea region of the country to persuade people in the area to eat wheat bread rather than can dish, so there!

Earle Mobley's taking golf lesens. Look out you pros, if Earle surplus wheat crop.

See This FREE Movie At The Agriculture Building 6:30 P.M., Tuesday, Jan. 19th

Sponsored by Newport Tractor & Equipment Co. Newport, N. C. Phone 237-7

All tobacco farmers and their friends are invited to see this full color movie of the Silent Flame tobacco harvester in operation. See how this remarkable machine can help you make more money on your tobacco crop this year.

Manufactured by Long Manufacturing Company, Inc.
Tarbore, North Carelina

finished with $10,000 for second. The shot meant $50,000 to former U. S. Open champion Worsham. As a result, Promoter George S. May signed him to a $35,000 exhibition contract. Worsham also led the money winners with $33,807 in tournament earnings. Doug Ford of Harrison, N. Y., was runnerup. Blond, curly-haired Walter Burkeyes, 34 of Detroit troupeed for kemo, 34, of Detroit, trounced for the PGA final 7 and 6 by Snead in 1951, won the 1953 crown in his own back yard when he beat Felice Torza, 2 and 1. Gene Littler, 23, of La Jolla, kemo, 34, of Detroit, trounced for the PGA final 7 and 6 by Snead in 1951, won the 1953 crown in his own back yard when he beat Felice Torza, 2 and 1. Gene Littler, 23, of La Jolla, Calif., on Navy leave, won the U.S. Amateur at Oklahoma City. He did it by sinking a 20-foot putt on the 26th hole for a birdle 3 to beat Dale Morey of Indianapolis, 1 up. Harvie Ward of Atlanta reached the final in defense of his British Open crown but bowed to Ireland's Joe Carr, 2 up. Among the women, Louise Suggs North Carolina will be on hand to of freezing the ball for the remaining 20 seconds, play the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last period, it was Lejeune's Charlie Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball and snared rebounds to set the stage for Billy Hudson, who netted 13 for the game, with Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball for the remaining 20 seconds, play the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last period, it was Lejeune's Charlie Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball for the remaining 20 seconds, play the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last period, it was Lejeune's Charlie Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball for the remaining 20 seconds, play the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last period, it was Lejeune's Charlie Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball and snared rebounds to set the stage for Billy Hudson, who netted 13 for the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last period, it was Lejeune's Charlie Sells and Johnny Mugford who stole the ball for the remaining 20 seconds, play the game right up to the last second by sinking another bucket as time ran out. Trailing 36-33 going into the last second by sinking another bucket

Morehead City (Boys) Pamlico County Morehead City (Girls) Beaufort (Boys) Camp Lejeune ... Beaufort (Girls) lico, using a full-court press and Camp Lejeune Queen Street (Boys) Bayboro

Newport (Girls) Carraway paced Newport with 19 W. S. King Cagers

Prep for Action The W. S. King School Monarchs will host West Street High of New Bern tomorrow night in the W. S. King gym for a basketball double header beginning at 7:30.

Queen Street (Girls)

The King girls will take on the West Street girls in the first tilt. The Monarchs, sporting a 3-1 log, will be on hand for the second tilt of the evening. In promises to be a thriller. Coach J.

given the Monarchs added height will be Norman Williams and with 16, Miss J. Henderson had Luther Tootle at guards, Ike Wilnine, and Virginia Mann contribnine, and Virginia Mann contrib-uted six. Miss Sandlin contributed footers, will be at forward, and

Ben Hogan Reaches Pinnacle In Golf at Retiring Age New York—If ever a man reached the pinnacle of success in sports at an age when most athletes are heading downhill that man was

Ben Hogan, the goffing perfection-ist from Fort Worth, Tex. Starts Monday At 40, less than five years after an automobile accident almost took his life, the sometimes silent man A pocket billiards tourney will be held in Beaufort starting of the fairways was acclaimed the day. Vic Bellamah, owner of the greatest golfer in history. He tri-umphed in the Masters, U. S. Open and British Open at rugged Car-noustie in Scotland. robin tourney. The contestant win-ning the most games will be de-clared city champion. He will re-Hogan's first big victory of the ceive a trophy inscribed with his The tourney will be conducted record by five strokes. He next won the Pan American Open at under the auspices of the Billiard Congress of America, the governing body of billiards in the United States. Congress rules will apply.

Matches will be held at 7 p.m. each day beginning Monday and ontinuing until the champion is crowned on Feb. 5. Six persons

Open. It was one he wanted to win for in previous Oakmont opens games to be played.

Prizes will be given for high rur par had mastered all competitors. At the end of four rounds Ho-gan's cards were 67-72-73-71 for a and best game, Mr. Bellamah said. Defending champ William S. Skykie" Thomas heads the list of "Skykie" entrants. Others entered are George D. Lewis, Howard O. Hunnings Charles O. Styron Sr., Pierson Wil Sam Snead, by six. It was Hogan's fourth open and placed him in a position whereby he can become lis and James M. Stallings Jr.

Beaufort Bar, has announced. The contest will be a round-Miami. Fla. - (AP) - You! They're at their flowering peak think it's a chore to mow the for the $10,000 Miami Open golf lawn twice a month and trim the tournament in December. Arnold of greens daily, and 85 acres of ule, which is exactly what he does fairways twice a week. In the last few years, every green Arnold is manager of the Miami on the course has been rebuilt and Springs County Club, only golf the fairways lengthened and improved city of Miami.

Seven men are on the job daily, cutting greens and fairways, spraying, transplanting, sodding, trimming trees and hedges.

Keeping the 18 greens, each measuring 6,500 square feet or more, free of bugs and worms is quite a task, too. Greens are tested daily for any signs of pests, and treated frequently with arsenate of lead and chlorodane.

When Arreld took over the job.

One fairnest kent sinking into daily for any signs of pests, and reasible to use it for other purposes treated frequently with arsenate of lead and chlorodane.

When Arnold took over the job 22 years ago this November, there were three pine trees on the property. Today there are more than 100 varieties of trees, shrubs and flowers, including native and Australian pines, palms, hibiscus, ole-

Spectators to Golf Event

Raymond Ellison and Johnnie ones contributed to the 12-point