NATIONAL BEAUTY SALON WEEK

FEBRUARY 22nd THROUGH 28th

PROFESSIONAL BEAUTY OPERATORS STUDY YOUR FACE BEFORE RECOMMENDING COIFFURE

Just like a dress is designed to fit the figure, so must a hair style be chosen to complement the shape of the face. A coiffure which is stunning on one person may be completely wrong for someone else with a different type of face. Your coiffure must be designed for you, designed to flatter your type of face and individuality.

SQUARE FACE

A wave which dips slightly, but still gives height, and sides that are waved upward are desirable lines for the square type of face.

LET'S BRING OUT THE BEAUTY IN YOU

TRIANGLE FACE

The sharp lines of this type of face must be ovalized. Interesting and unusual hair styles are attractive, and the very smartest of short cuts with smooth lines are excellent for this type of face.

FORECAST FOR SPRING HAIR FASHIONS

Short Hair, More Waves, Fewer Tight Curls

OBLONG FACE

A side part is most always the most flattering for the oblong type, since the objective is to soften the temple and forehead line and ovalize the jaw line.

ROUND FACE

The feeling of roundness can be broken with upward lines at the side of the head. Waved height across the top of the head is also desirable.

DIAMOND FACE

The main characteristic of this type of face is width at the cheek bones. To give an oval effect, the forehead and jaw line should be accentuated.
