Men's Fellowship Meets at Jasper

E. P. Blair, principal of the Farm Life School of Vanceboro, gave an inspiring and challenging address at the Christian Men's Fellowship-Pamlico District meeting at Jasper recently.

The men met at the Community Club House as guests of the men of the Bethany Craven Christian Church. There were 124 of them, representing 16 churches of the district. The Christian churches of Morehead City, Live Oak Grove, and Otway were well represented at the meeting.

Harner Wetherington, of the host church, welcomed the guests and the Rev. M. Elmore Turner of the Broad Street Christian Church of New Bern gave the invocation. A delicious turkey supper was served by the ladies of the Jasper church.

After the business session and the address of the evening by Mr. Blair, the meeting was closed with the Fellowship Circle.

Feb 23—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noyes and son, Alfred, are taking a two weeks vacation in different parts of Florida. They are visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Sabra Noyes, who attends college at Louisiana, Green Brier College, West Va., is on the dean's list.

Miss Ruth Taylor, who attends East Carolina College, Greenville, was home this weekend.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Gaskill Sunday. Relatives from different states were present. They had not seen each other in 20 years. They were all sisters and brothers of Mr. Gaskill. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce, Mrs. Edna Hall of New Bern and others.

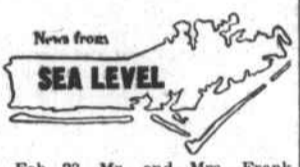

Mrs. Sarah Lewis of Norfolk spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Norwood Gaskill. Hilda Lewis of Cherry Point also visited Mrs. Gaskill this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ishmel Mason and children of Atlantic visited Mrs. Mason's aunt, Mrs. Deliah Lupton, Sunday.

The members of the Methodist Church here are working hard to finish the inside of the new church and get the yard cleaned up in time to hold Easter services there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson of Conoco, Va., spent the weekend with Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Emily Tosto.

Johanne Taylor, USCG, stationed at Norfolk, is visiting his family this week.

Package Contains Note, Cookies for Postoffice
 Oklahoma City (AP) — Oklahoma City Post Office employees received a chuckle from a package which arrived here from San Antonio.

Attached to the outside was a transparent bag containing oatmeal cookies and a note reading: "Last Christmas I mailed a doll, insured for $25, and the doll was broken when it arrived. They would only pay me $5 for the broken doll, so please handle this package with care—it isn't insured. And help yourself to a cookie."

Jefferson Standard Life Completes Its Biggest Year

Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co. completed its greatest year in the business with more than $163 million new life insurance sales, according to F. A. Cassiano, the company's representative in Morehead City.

Total insurance in force is now more than $1 billion 200 million, and the company's assets are in excess of $355 million.

Mr. Cassiano, in reviewing his company's annual report, said: "Direct payments to policyholders and beneficiaries during the year amounted to $15,426,907. Total amount credited to policyholders and beneficiaries, including the policy reserve, was $42,500,000, the largest amount in the history of the company."

The Jefferson Standard, with home office in Greensboro, N. C., has sales and service offices in 29 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico and boasts more than 365,000 policyholders.

Jefferson Standard's local representative says he is particularly proud of the fact that his company, while guaranteeing 2½ per cent on policies currently issued, has never paid less than 4 per cent interest on dividend accumulations and policy proceeds left with the company at interest in the 47-year history of the Company.

"Four per cent is the highest rate of interest paid by any major life insurance company in America," he said. "This means extra income to Jefferson Standard policyholders and beneficiaries who take advantage of 4 per cent interest by leaving dividends and policy proceeds with the company to accumulate at interest."

Mr. Cassiano, whose office is located at 2906 Evans St., Morehead City, has been associated with Jefferson Standard three months.

Eggs are one of the few farm products in which Connecticut is self-sufficient, with production totalling about two dozen a week for every family in the state.
