Junior Woman's Club Will Put Playground at Bridge

Property on the Beaufort side of the Beaufort draw bridge has been made available for the construction of a community playground, Mrs. David Hill, chairman of Beaufort Junior Woman's Club recreation committee, has announced.

The property, now an empty field, has been made available by Harvey Smith, of the Fish Meal Co., Beaufort. The playground will be a joint project of the Junior Woman's Club and the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce. It will tie in with the Finer Carolina project of increasing recreational facilities of the town, Mrs. Hill said.

Arrangements have been made to start leveling the land by bulldozer. The playground will be for youngsters up to 8 years old.

Equipment for the playground will be supplied by the Junior Woman's Club, with the Chamber of Commerce assisting if needed, Braxton Adair, chairman of the chamber's playground committee, said.

Plans are being made to have a playground supervisor. Gerald Hill, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and N. F. Eure, general chairman of the Beaufort Finer Carolina Contest, expressed their pleasure at the Junior Woman's Club project.

For a number of years, various organizations in Beaufort have been trying to get a community playground, they said. This is the first firm step in that direction, and Mr. Hill and Mr. Eure said they are grateful to Mr. Smith who is allowing his land to be used and to the Junior Woman's Club for handling the project.

Did You Pay "Uncle Sam" TOO MUCH?

If you, like most people, consider your telephone more of a necessity than a luxury... you paid too much. While Jewelry... Furs... Cabaret and Movie Admissions were taxed ONLY 20%, your long distance telephone calls were taxed 25%.

Your local telephone service is taxed at 15%. Yet Passenger cars... Television sets... Fishing gear and Musical Instruments have only a 10% Federal excise tax.

For each telephone that you have, you paid an average of over $10 in Federal excise taxes last year.

WE SUGGEST...

If you consider your telephone a necessity, write to your congressman and tell him so.
