Judge Hamilton Withdraws From Judicial Race

Jurist Says His Son Will Seek Nomination May 29 As Solicitor

Judge Luther Hamilton, Morehead City, announced Wednesday his withdrawal from the race for superior court judge.

He said that in withdrawing his candidacy, his son, Luther Jr., will seek the office of solicitor of the fifth judicial district.

Makes Statement Judge Hamilton, a retired super-ior court judge, made the follow-ing statement:

"In the race for nomination for Solicitor from this the Fifth Judicial District are several candi-dates, all of whom at this time are from the County of Pitt. If I were not in the contest for Judge, my son, Luther Hamilton Jr., would be happy to run for So-licitor. With that office having been held by a Pitt County incumbent for the past 28 years, it would seem that the district should be willing to recognize some other county for a season.

I am glad, therefore, to withdraw I am glad, therefore, to withdraw from the judicial contest in order that the young man might have an opportunity at the solicitorial. My friends, I am sure, will understand that my ambition to return to the Bench cannot possibly be so strong recognition accorded my

Four to Run

Others who have filed for solici-tor for the fifth district are Robert Rouse Jr., Greenville; Cecil W. Beaman, Snow Hill. Horton Roun-tree and Jim Roberts, Pitt County, have also announced that they would seek the office.

Judge Hamilton announced his candidacy Feb. 18. Others seekcandidacy Feb. 18. Others seek-ing the judgeship of the fifth district are Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, Snow Hill, and William J. Bundy, Greenville, present solicitor in the

Directors OK Sales Campaign

The Morehead City Merchants Association plans to launch an intensive cooperative advertising campaign, aimed at establishing campaign, aimed at establishing Morehead City as the shopping center of Carteret County, as a result of a noon meeting yesterday of the association's board of directors.

The board discussed several types of retail promotions, and decided on a program for a post-Easter sales campaign. The proposal will be presented to the asso ciation at its next meeting, April 6.

It was also decided that all members of the association will include in all advertising, both newspaper and radio, starting at once, the words, Member of the Morehead City Merchants Association.

Says $200 Received

Mrs. C. E. Paden, chairman of the Junior Woman's Club project to raise $200 for a fence at the east side of Beaufort School, announced Tuesday night that the $200 had

She thanked all who contributed

To Put Up Fence

Appearing on page 6 section 2 of today's paper are stories by is also given. One of the 4-H stories, by Sadie L. Harris, Beaufort,

Board of Equalization To Meet at 10 Monday

The Board of County Commis-sioners will sit as the Board of Equalization at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the court house. Beaufort.

County residents who have complaints about tax evaluation or who want to discuss tax problems are required by law to sent their grievances at this Law prevents the county board from making tax adjustments at any other meeting. After Monday there will be no Board of Equalization meeting until 1955.

Jaycees Discuss Two-Skit Show

Beaufort Jaycees discussed their

Monday night, March 15, was named as casting date for "We-manless Wedding." Mrs. James Steed was named director. Outside Lewis, and various others have agreed to help.

The cast was named for the Bridge Game skit. "Actresses" are T. H. Potter, Billy Davis, John, Duncan, and Albert Chappell.

Date for the program, at which a ocal dance orchestra will perform. has not yet been announced

Firemen Answer Call To Net House Tuesday

Morehead City firemen called out Tuesday night to a ne house on the waterfront between 10th and 11th Sts., owned by Alec

The fire was out when firemen Members of the board present arrived. Fire Chief El Nelson specwere Al-Awtrey, Bob Howard, Oscar Allred, Clyde Blanchard, Bill to the old net house and then put Girl's Records and Achievement. I

Ray Cummins, Morehead, Applies

Outstanding 4-H Member Tells Of Her Work

By SADIE L. HARRIS

Beaufort Senior 4-H Club "There is a little work in all play and a little play in all work." I find this old saying very true in 4-H Club Work. In my five years with the 4-H Club, there has been great deal of work as well as My 4-H life began back in 1949. I was only 13 years old, but I knew then that I would learn to love 4-H and work to improve it in my school and county. In the sum-mer of my first year, I attended camp at White Lake.

camp at White Lake.

To top this wonderful experience,
I was presented with the "Best Housekeeping Award" for girls at the close of the week. You can forthcoming "Womanless Wedding" and bridge game skit at their meeting Monday night at the line. In the club and I had line tinn.

won an award

The next year there was a ruling in the school that only high school students could be in the 4-H Club, thus. I was counted out that year. help will be used for the play because there are more parts and jobs than members. Milton Lipman, Gehrmann Holland Sr., Cliff was elected vice-president of my Lewis and various others have man, I rejoined. This year 1950-51, I was elected vice-president of my local club. This gave me the opportunity to be a member of the County Council. I won the County Dress Revue, which gave me the privilege of being in the State Dress Revue in Raleigh. This proved to be one of the highlights of my work proved to be one of the highlights of my work.

The next year, 1951-52, I was elected president of my local club and the County Council. These offices gave me a keener feeling of responsibility. That year, I won second place in the County Dress Revue and was county winner in Revue and was county winner in Clothing and Frozen Foods.

Last year, 1952-53, I was re-elect-ed president of my local club and the County Council. This particular year proved to be my most profitable year. I won four county Durham, Joe DuBois, and Bill it out. He said nets were stored am proud of all my honors, but willis. Nothing was damaged. See 4-H LIFE, Page 6, Section 2

Skinner Chalk Chosen to Head Symphony Group Recesses, May Re-Open Today

Skinner Chalk, Morehead City was named president of the Carter et Chapter of the North Carolin Symmphony society Tuesday after-noon when members of the society met at the Webb Memorial Civic Center, Morehead City. He will succeed C. D. Davant who has served for the past year.

The Rev. J. P. Dees, Beaufort, was elected vice-president, James Webb, Morehead City, treasurer, and W. S. Kidde, route 1 Morehead

City, secretary.

The office of vice-president has been vacant since the death of Dr. N. T. Ennett, Beaufort. Mrs. H. L. Joslyn, Morehead City, served as ecretary-treasurer last year.

The Little Symphony will give a children's concert in Morehead City Wednesday afternoon, March 24, and an adults concert in Beaufort that night. At the concert for adults, John Richard Prevatte, tenor, will be featured.

The full symphony will play at Rocky Mount Tuesday, March 23, in Wilmington April 21, in New Bern May 17 and in Wilson May

Members of the society are en-titled to attend these concerts as will as the one being given in the

Puerto Rican Expresses Regret

J. D. Holt, manager of the More head City port and one of the di-rectors of the South Atlantic and Caribbean Ports Association, got word this week that the association received a telegram from Puerto Rico expressing regret at the shooting of five United States Congressmen by Puerto Rican fanatics.

The telegram was sent by Salva-dore V. Care of the Puerto Rico Transportation Authority who is a director of the South Atlantic and Caribbean Ports Association Mr. Caro said:

"I wish to convey to all members of the association the profound in-dignation aroused in the people of Puerto Rieo. We condemn the sor-did agression to Congressmen by fanatics of an insignificant, despice able group as it constitutes it treacherous offense to Democracy and ourselves. We are all united in our prayers for the immediate recovery of the wounded.

The telegram was dated March 3, 1954, San Juan.

Three Head Red Cross Drives

Irwin Guthrie has accepted chair manship of the Red Cross Fund Drive for Harkers Island. Mrs. M. Harris of Marshallberg will be chairman of the drive in her community and Mrs. D. F. Merrill has been named chairman for Beau-fort replacing Miss Mildred Whitehurst. These announcements were made by Mrs. James Rumley of Beaufort, fund chairman, Wednes-

Other community Red Cross Fund chairmen were named Mon-day by Oscar Joslyn, Morehead City chairman, and Irvin W. Davis, Club Meetings Scheduled of the clerk of superior court was the will of Charles V. Webb, More-

Two home demonstration club meetings have been announced by Miss Marths Barnett, home agent. Today the Bettie club meets with Mrs. Dyon Simpson. Monday the Wire Grass club will meet at 7:30 with Mrs. M. M. Eubanks.

Newport Businessmen Sponsor Sign Contest

The Newport Businessmen's Association will conduct a contest to promote Newport as a shopping

Plans were made at their meet-ing Monday night to award a $25 government bond to the person ing for the welcome signs to be erected at each end of Newport.

The signs, constructed of wood, are 8 by 16 feet and will be put up one mile from town limits. Rules for the contest follow: the wording

Slogan Contest, Newport Business

At Monday's " meeting Charles

The association also dis

Hill, president, was appointed to serve on Newport's Red Cross com-cussed the peddler situation in Newport, but no action was taken

H. L. Joslyn, county superin-endent of schools, received a telegram Tuesday from Congressman

Graham Barden informing him that he county's application for federal maintenance funds for schools has

The money can be used only for maintenance and current expense the school official explained.

Some of the fund should be forthcoming soon, remarked Mr. Joslyn. The rest is not expected until after school closes for the March of Dimes Treasurer

Announces $8,220 Total

A goal of $6,445 was set. The campaign was sponsored by the Carteret Business and Professional been approved.

Schools to Get signs at night.

ending in the best slogan or

Jaycees Discuss Forthcoming Variety Show

Discussion centered around the forthcoming "Bubbles Becker Show" at the Morehead Jaycee meeting Monday in the Hotel Fort Macon dining room.

Sam Guthrie, chairman of enter tainment committee, told the club that the show would start at 8 p.m. Monday in the high school auditorium. The Morehead City High School band will play before the

Mr. Guthrie also stated that the band and the Jaycee football fund would split net proceeds. Frank Cassiano reported on the advertising and promotion of the show. arms Cratch gave club members ckets to sell. Band to Assist

Bubbles Becker

It was also reported that mem-bers of the band would sell tickets. Because of the show, the club vo-ted not to have a business meeting school auditorium.

H. O. Phillips Jr. announced that bids for the 1955 Miss North Carolina Beauty Pageant must be in by April 1. A committee was named by P. H. Geer Jr., club president, to meet and decide if it would be feasible to sponsor the pageant again this year.

They are to report their finding board of directors at 6:30, Named to the committee were Mrs. C. L. Beam, March of Dimes treasurer, announced yesterday Herbert Phillips, Jasper Bell, H. S. Gibbs Jr., and Ralph Gardner. To Elect Officers March of Dimes campaign $8,220.60.

Mr. Geer announced that elec-tion of officers for the new year will be April 19. A nominating committee will be appointed to se-lect candidates. Installation of the officers will take place during the first week of May. Mr. Geer will name an installation banquet chair-

Guests of the club were Joe Beam and Preston Midyette Jr., of Morehead City.

method of teaching primary pupils their three R's was presented by C. S. Long, program chairman, at a meeting of the Newport Rotary Club Monday at the school cafe-

The movie, entitled "Skippy and His Three R's," showed how teach ers deal with the modern day prob lem of educating primary pupils, getting them interested in school and schoolwork by using objects they were familiar with.

Principals Propose Change In Camp Glenn Student Body H. L. Joslyn, county superinten- to Morehead City. Camp Glenn ucation will receive a recommendation that in the fall of 1954 chil dren from the west side of 24th street westward attend the Camp Glenn School.

A survey has been made by G. 1

School accommodates children in grades 1 through 8. After they leave that school, they attend high

If the County Board of Educa-tion approves the recommendation, the children now using Franklin Memorial Methodist Church for classrooms, can be accommodated in the school bouse. Two teachers are taking care of children at the church and two teachers at More-head City achool have no home-room.

Judge Malcolm Paul Plans Saturday Session

It's been a hectic week as far as anyone involved in superior court is concerned.

Judge Malcolm Paul came down with flu at the end of the day Monday and tentatively scheduled court to re-convene yesterday morning at 9:30.

But he phoned A. H. James, clerk of superior court,

Wednesday night at 10:30 and said the doctor ordered him to stay home yesterday, so court was tentatively scheduled to reconvene at 9:30 this morning. Whether it will is anyone's guess. If it does, it is expected to continue tomorrow too.

To put it briefly, it's the great-

Judge Laid Low by Flu; Court must promote the town; entries must be in the association's hands est mess that ever was. Men sum-moned for jury duty have arby April 1; Anyone, anywhere, may send in wordings for the signs. En-tries should be addressed as follows: ranged to take time off from their Lawyers, defendants plaintiffs are mumbling in their men's Association, Newport, N. C. beards. Employers are getting a bit disgusted at the whole affair and court officials have been busy The signs are completed, needing only a suitable slogan and a coat of paint. The color has not yet been decided upon. The association is making plans to light the saying, "Sorry, no court," all week.

Dog in on it

Even Deputy Sheriff Marshall Ayscue's dog, when he hears the question, "Is court in session?" balefully shakes his head no.

The grand jury continued its ork but their report will not be returned until the judge is on the Should Judge Paul not be able to come to the county today, Mr. James said a special term will have to be ordered by I. M. V. Barnhill, chief justice of the state supreme court. Chief Barnhill issued the or der last weck sending Judge Paul here for this term in the place of Funds for Upkeep Judge Clawson Williams who had originally been scheduled. No reason was given for the change.

True Bills
True bills were returned by the grand jury Monday and several cas-es, including divorce suits were disposed of. Four divorces were granted and the others on the dockt were continued.

True bills returned thus far an get will be "enlarged" by about $30,00%, and Mr. Joslyn, but some of the money has already been spent on re-finishing outside walls at the Newport School. Some of it the following: Charles Edward Anthony, drunk driving, (case continued); L. F. Williams, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill; Homer Lloyd Mentzer, speed-ing; Warren Charles Smith, breakis also earmarked for making repairs on the W. S. King School, Morehead City. entering and larceny; and ip Nevel Thomas, driving drunk.

David Truman Harris, driving lrunk; and James W. Taylor, as saulting wife, disturbing the peace drunk and disorderly, (the state decided not to prosecute Taylor at present).

Fred Smith, drunken driving John William Willia, speeding; Herbert George Mohr, drunken driving; Henry D. Smith, drunker speeding, careless and driving; Leroy Gaston reckless driving; Leroy Gaston Simmons, speeding. George Hoover, two indictments seduction and abandoning and refu-sing to support an illegitimate child; Elton Littleton, abandonand non-support; Delma

Albert Copes Found Guilty

Of Assault

Albert Lee Copes was to a year on the roads Tuesday in Albert Lee Copes was sentenced Beaufort Recorder's Court. The term need not be served if Copes remains on good behavior for two Copes was charged with assaulting Rosenwald Copes. He was also charged with threatening to do serious bodily harm, but the state struck that charge from the war

The court also sentenced Fred Fulford, charged with public drunkenness and being a public nuisance, to run consecutively with the 30-day sentence given him last week for drunkenness.

Pays Fine, Costs

Dave Howard, charged with pub-30 days on the streets, suspended on payments of $25 and costs.

The state decided not to pros ecute Emory Mack Williams. charged with failing to stop at a stop sign. The state also said it would not prosecute Earl Watson if he paid for repairing the park-ing meter he damaged. Watson was charged with reckless driving William Augustus Vail and George Huntley Jr. were ordered to pay costs or court for failing to stop at a stop sign. Archie W. Kennedy and James F. Wooten were ordered to pay court costs for failing to stop at a stop light.

Leary Thomas Horton, charged with speding and failing to stop at three stop signs, was ordered by Judge Earl Mason to pay $10 fine and court costs. Henry Kirk, charged with failing to stop at a stop sign, was ordered to pay court costs in three weeks.

Case Dismiss The court dismissed the case against William Dudley, charged with running a red light. Thomas Preston Oglesby, charged with hav-ing an improper muffler, was ordered to pay court costs.

Cases continued were James W. Piner, and Elisha Murray, running through a red light; John Davis Nelson and Frederick C. Raymond, speeding and running through a Krouse, failing to stop at a stop

C. P. Fessant Resigns; Port Job Filled by W. Friederichs For Permit to Put Up Radio Station Mrs. C. E. Paden Ray Cummins, Morehead City, Manday marked the opening of the drive for funds with posters being set up in various business firms throughout the county. Contributions may be given to community chairmen or sent to the munications Commission to put a day and night radio station in Car Save $200 Perceived. Mrs. C. E. Paden Save $200 Perceived. Mrs. Friederichs, Salisbury where he has been at the Morehead City port has submitted his resignation and Walter Friederichs, Salisbury, N. C., armethod of teaching primary pupils their three R's was presented by C. S. Long, program chairman, at a meeting of the Newport Rotary of your local postoffice. Mrs. Friederichs was primary pupils their three R's was presented by C. S. Long, program chairman, at a meeting of the Newport Rotary of your local postoffice. Mrs. Friederichs wife and very commission to put a meeting of the Newport Rotary of the Newpor

Mr. Fessant's resignation be-comes effective March 31. An-nouncement of the change was nouncement of the change was made Tuesday by J. D. Holt, port

Mr. Friederichs, a graduate of the New York Maritime College in 1941 was born in Hamburg, Germany while his father was in the United States Merchant Marine. The Friederichs came back to the United States when Walter was 6 and he attended New York City

After graduating from college he was employed by the Isthmiar Steamship Co. as junior third mate He left the firm in 1943 as second mate and became instructor at the United States Maritime Academy at King's Point, N. Y.

Following eight months there, he went with American President Lines as chief mate and terminated Lines as chief mate and terminated his work with them in 1947 as assistant port captain. Mr. Friederichs in 1947 went into the marine insurance business in New York and Colombia, S. A. He was also shipper for the Esso of California subsidiary in Colombia.

In 1950 he was employed by the Transportation and Packing Survey of the Southern States, a study sponsored jointly by the Association of American Railroads and the Fiberbox Association. After a year on that job, he became waies representative for the Royal Brass

Mr. Friederichs' wife and year nd-a-half-old daughter, Lisa Ann are still in Salisbury but will arrive here shortly. Mrs. Friederichs is the former Ann Thomasson of Mr. Fessant started his work at the Morehead City port Jan. 1,

Troop 130 to Get Renewed Charter

Boy Scout troop 130, Morehead City, will have a charter presenta-City, will have a charter presentation and parents' night at 7 p.m.
Thursday, March 18, in the First Methodist Church education building, T. D. Kemp, troop committee member, announced yesterday.
The charter of Troop 130, sponsered by the Morehead City Methodist Men, will be renewed at the meeting. A film on parent coapperation will be shown.
Mr. Kemp said that parents of members of Troop 130 are invited and any others interested in Scouting are welcomed. Light refreshments will be served.

The Girl Scout Council which Carteret proposes to join would be comprised of Duplin, Wayne, Onslow and Carteret Counties. At a meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the Recreation Center, Morehead City, adults will vote on whether they should affiliate with

Belong to Proposed

The Girl Scout Development Committee has set $500 as the county's share of the council budget. The total council budget is $15,327. The money will be used to employ professional workers, train leaders, and employ a cen-tral office staff. Girl Scout leaders and troop committee members are unpaid volunteers. Parents of Scouts, ministers, teachers and other community lead ers are asked to attend Monday

Play Try-Outs Will Begin At 7 O'clock Tonight

The Carteret Community Theatre will hold try-outs for the next play, Father of the Bride, at 7 o'clock tonight at the radio station. The group is conducting a membership drive, and since the next play will have 17 parts, anyone interested in dramatics or stage management is urged to attend, announced Mrs. Wiley Taylor Jr., business manager. ers will meet for their monthly session next Thursday night at the municipal building at 7:45 p.m.

Temperature in 60's

Following the weekend cold spell, the mercury climbed back to the low 60's as fresh, warm winds from the south brought a real touch of Sprips Spring.

The first three days of the week were cloudy and overcast with the sun breaking through in the afternoon. Yesterday the sun came out early in the morning, accompanied by fresh variable winds.

Temperature readings follow:

Max. Mis..

Monday 64 39

Tuesday 60 45

Wednesday 63 48

Brings Touch of Spring

has applied to the Federal Communications Commission to put a day and night radio station in Car- Of Charles V. Webb. teret County. The application was filed last Thursday. The proposed station will be located just outside the town limits of Beaufort. "The application was filed to serve the public, both as a convenience and necessity for a full-time day and night schedule of good local radio programs, Mr. Cummins told THE NEWS-TIMES yesterday.

and said she felt sure those was gave money have prevented a youngster from either falling in the ditch by the school or running out into the highway into the path of
into the highway into the path of director, assistant station manager director, assistant station manager and sports announcer there.

New Operation

Emphasizing that the proposed station is a new operation, sep-arate from WMBL, Mr. Cummins said that he expects his broadcasts "to fill a need in Carteret County for more complete and diversified service."

service."

"Throughout the 19-hour broad casting day, the station will provide 26 outstanding special services for listeners of all ages, business and income brackets," Mr. Cummins says. "The intensive public services campaign will encompass all phases of community life, and the public can rest assured that this station will be on hand day and 6:13 a.m.

See CUMMING Page 3

Filed last Friday in the office

head City. The will, drawn Aug. 27, 1941, was entered for probate Jan 4, 1954. Mr. Webb named his wife, Mam S. Webb, executrix. He requested that he have a proper burial and left to her all his real and person-

Witnesses to the will were David B. Webb and John T. Willis, both of Morehead City.

Tide Table

Tides at Beaufort Bar Friday, March 12 8:44 a.m. 8:52 p.m. 9:54 a.m. 10:03 p.m. dent of schools, announced this week that the County Board of Ed-

A survey has been made by G. T. Windell, principal of the Morehead City School, and R. W. Davis, principal of the Camp Glenn School, and they believe, Mr. Joslyn said, that such division will relieve the 12:00 p.m. 15

12:02 a.m. Children living on the east side 12:32 p.m. of 24th street will continue goins school at Morehead City.

If the County Board of Education