

Public Ceremony Installs New Matron, Patron of Eastern Star

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Phillips were installed as worthy matron and worthy patron of the Morehead City Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in an impressive public ceremony Friday evening at the Masonic Lodge Hall.

The hall was decorated with blue and white carnations, white gladioli, fern and bamboo. White tapers in star and silver candle holders were placed at each officer's station.

The east was decorated with the huge star of the east banked by white carnations, with five rays of blue ribbon extending across the back drop under silver stars. Behind each star point's chair was a white ladder covered with a large bow in the color appropriate to that station.

As the outgoing officers entered the chapter room a star was formed. As each officer passed by the outgoing worthy matron, Mrs. Evelyn Norwood, each gave her a red rose. During this time "Only a Rose" was being sung to her by her son, Bill Norwood.

Morrills Entertain Friday Evening at Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morrill entertained out-of-town guests here for the public installation of officers of the Eastern Star Friday evening with a dinner at their home on Shepard street. Honor guests were the new worthy matron and patron, Anabel and Theodore Phillips.

The cottage was decorated with spring flowers and lighted tapers in the colors of the worthy matron, blue, white and green.

A ham and turkey dinner was served buffet style, and guests seated themselves at small tables arranged in the living room. On each table was a blue taper and a floral arrangement. Place cards were blue stars attached to a tiny china figurine, a gift for each guest from the Morrills.

The names Anabel and Theodore were on the table cloth, napkins, bun warmer and the decorated cake.

Guests for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mamie and Kinne Parker, New Bern; Bertie Reed, New Bern; Nannie and Guy Matthis, New Bern; Mae and Garrell Moser, Jacksonville; Frances and Gudlow Turner, Jacksonville; Sadie Starling, Jacksonville; Mary and Ted Phillips.

Miss Kirkman, Mr. Mobley Wed. In Free Will Baptist Church

Miss Mary Emma Kirkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Kirkman, of this city, and Mr. Clayton C. Mobley, of Fort Macon and Hinesville, Ga., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mobley of Hinesville, were married Friday evening at seven o'clock at the Free Will Baptist Church.

The Rev. Noah Brown performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with baskets of white gladioli. The organist, Miss Joyce Willis, presented a program of nuptial music before the ceremony.

The bride, who was given a marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle. The Irish lace yoke, which extended into double points at the waist, was fashioned with a portrait neckline and puffed sleeves. She wore matching elbow length mitts. The satin skirt was gathered at the waist.

Her fingertip veil of Irish lace and net fell from a white satin Juliet cap, trimmed with rosettes of white satin. She carried a white prayer book topped with white carnations.

Mrs. Albert McElmon was matron of honor. She wore a strapless gown of green taffeta with a net overskirt and matching stole. She carried an orchid surrounded by pink and yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jessie Ruth Kirkman, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Henry Gurney. Miss Kirkman wore a pink gown and Mrs. Gurney wore orchid. Both were fashioned identical to the honor attendant's. They also carried orchid and carnation corsages.

Mr. James Whitmore was best man for Mr. Mobley and ushers were Mr. William Lloyd and Mr. McElmon.

Flower girl was Miss Sandra McElmon and ringbearers were William and Walter Kirkman, twin brothers of the bride. Miss McElmon wore a gown of pink organdy made with a round neckline and cap sleeves which were trimmed with tiny flowers. The net overskirt extended into a point in the front and was trimmed with flowers. On her hair she wore a band of pink flowers and she carried a white basket of blue and white flower petals.

Mrs. Kirkman wore a formal gown of blue tissue faille and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Mobley wore a formal gown of aqua cotton lace over taffeta and a corsage of yellow roses.

After a wedding trip to southern states the couple will make their home at 1709 Shepard St. The bride graduated from Morehead City High School and at the present time is employed at Rose's. The groom is a graduate of Hinesville High School, Hinesville, Ga., and is a radioman first class, stationed aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Agassiz, Fort Macon.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the new home of the bridal couple on Shepard street. Mrs. M. W. Johnson, aunt of the groom, presided over the bride's book.

Mrs. Fred Richardson, sister of the groom, served punch and Mrs. George Springle, aunt of the bride, served cake.

Mobley-Kirkman Wedding Guests

Out-of-town guests here for the Mobley-Kirkman wedding Friday evening were Mrs. Carrie K. Crockett and Mrs. James Kirkman, aunts of the bride and Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mrs. E. A. Atkinson Jr., cousins of the bride, all of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mobley, parents of the groom, Norman Mobley, brother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loufer, all of Hinesville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson of Carlton, Ga.; Mrs. Lee Joyner, grandmother of the groom, of Hinesville; Mrs. George Springle, aunt of the bride, of Raleigh; James Springle, Raleigh.
