keep the BEAUTY of the DAY FOREVER JALOUSIE JIM says: "We have aluminum Jalousies OR outside Venetian Blinds for inclosing porches for better summer use — and absolute privacy. Aluminum Jalousies may be used on windows instead of other types of awnings, especially where the wind blows so hard. Aluminum Jalousies are ideal for summer homes that are closed up two-thirds of the year — and they tend to minimize break-ins. If interested, give us a buz for a FREE ESTIMATE." We saw Cap'n Charlie Norcom in Beaufort the other night — the first time we have seen him in thirty-two years. The last time we saw him was the night before he moved away from Carteret County — he went into Mr. Richard Dickinson's store to tell some of his friends goodbye. Cap'n Charlie, by the way, is cousin of Mayor "Pat" Dill, of Morehead City. The Frank Kings are building a new home just east of the W. C. U. N. C. lab on Front Street, Extension. This is a very nice location, and they are preserving many of the trees that were growing there. These will add much to the natural beauty of the surroundings. We had a nice chat with Mrs. Charles Tolson the other day. We say "chat" — Mrs. Tolson did most of the chatting and we did most of the laughing. Mrs. Tolson is very humorous and we enjoy talking with her. Some of you may not remember it, but Mrs. Tolson was at one time post-mistress of Morehead City. Many folks are now replacing their conventional outside doors with Clearview Glass Louvered Doors. Down Our Way

By JAMES G. WHITEHURST

We think we have one of the most interesting jobs in this section . . . since we have the opportunity of going around and seeing the inside of so many homes. We would be reluctant to give up this phase of our work — we see so many pleasing decorating schemes in going from home to home.

Often times when we go in a home to measure for Venetian Blinds we are only aware of the windows, so intent are we on getting the correct measurements, etc. But when we return we are able to get a look at the home decorations.

Many of you ladies would enjoy making the rounds, as we do, and seeing all the lovely interiors of homes. We travel and do business through four counties regularly, and it is impossible to mention the names of the home-makers who have the lovely homes — there are just so many of them!

Homes and their interiors are like people — all built along the same general lines . . . but all SO DIFFERENT. We never go into a home unless we see at least one thing that we have never seen before — it may be a lovely antique . . . or it may be something very new on the market. It is quite interesting to see the extent some ladies go to in converting a house into a home.

Homes very often denote the personalities of the people living within them. Years ago we went into a strange home at Camp Lejeune. . . . It had an oriental decorating scheme and every book in the book-case was on some phase of oriental life. So we were not at all surprised to later learn that the colonel and his wife had spent many years in China. This is an extreme case, but every home reflects to a greater or lesser degree the personalities of the people living there.

And what sparkling personalities the ladyfolks have nowadays, judging from the lovely home interiors they are creating . . . !

Several months ago we sold Mr. A. F. Fleming, of Grimesland and Atlantic Beach, eight Clearview Glass Louvered Doors for a motel he is building at Atlantic Beach. Now Mr. Fleming is getting five more Clearview Doors for a new addition to the motel — BECAUSE he liked the first order of Clear-view doors so much!
