Gaskill-Thorson Vows Given In Henderson Methodist Church

Miss Barbara Lou Thorson of Washington, D. C. and Mr. Paul McLean Gaskill of Atlanta, Ga., and Sea Level, were married Saturday, April 3, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Methodist Church, Henderson.

The Rev. Allen P. Branley, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli, snapdragons, carnations and sweet-peas, and ferns. White candles in silver and wrought iron candelabra gave the only illumination.

Prior to the wedding ceremony, Miss Charlotte Nixon, niece of the bride, played nuptial music on the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her foster-brother, Donald E. Nierling of Williston, wore a light grey suit with white linen collar and cuffs, and white accessories. She wore a white straw hat and carried a white prayer book topped with a purple throat orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Miss Allen Clayton of Richmond was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a princess style dress of pink shaded into deep lavender, and carried a bouquet of deep lavender sweet peas centered with a pink carnation.

Mr. Eugene Gaskill Jr. of Fayetteville, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Robert Glen Gaskill of Sea Level, brother of the bridegroom, and Ralph Gaskill of Atlantic, cousin of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given at the home of Mrs. B. H. Mixon sister of the bride, of Henderson.

Mrs. Etta D. Thorson, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gaskill, parents of the bridegroom, and the bridal couple formed the receiving line.

Mrs. Thorson wore a teal blue taffeta dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Gaskill wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following a wedding trip to the south, the newly-married couple will make their home in Atlanta.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Etta D. Thorson of Henderson and the late Dr. H. A. Thorson of Elizabeth City. She is a graduate of Louisiana Junior College and of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. At the time of her marriage she was head of home furnishings advertising with the Hecht Co., in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Gaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gaskill of Sea Level, is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and is now an auditor with the general accounting office of the Federal Government in Atlanta.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Miss Catherine Gaskill, sister of the bridegroom, Sea Level; Mrs. Ralph Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harris, Atlantic; Mrs. D. E. Nierling, Williston; Mr. Charles F. Gordon, Newport, Mrs. Ruby Holland, Smyrna; Mr. Al-dredge Daniels, Sea Level; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graves, Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Graham Honeycutt, Raleigh, Mr. Leoland J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Mixon, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Gaskill, Goldsboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Gaskill of Dunn.
