Woman's Auxiliary Meets With Mrs. Robert Hicks

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Hicks on Arendell street. Mrs. Paul Webb, president, presided during the short business session. Mrs. Mary Shockley was elected delegate to accompany the president to the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of East Carolina to be held this year in St. Paul's Church in Greenville. Mrs. R. H. Dowdy and Mrs. O. H. Johnson Sr. were elected alternates. Mrs. George R. Wallace presented the lesson for the evening from the book, "The Door is Open to Japan."

Stork Shower Wednesday Honors Mrs. Munden

Mrs. W. P. Freeman and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Freeman, entertained Wednesday afternoon at a stork shower for Mrs. Freeman's daughter, Mrs. Grover Munden. The party was held at the Ocean King Hotel on Atlantic Beach. Eleven tables of bridge and two tables of canasta were set up for play in the lobby. Potted hydrangeas and geraniums were used for decoration. The honoree's table of gifts was decorated with a large stork and stuffed nursery animals. During play the hostesses served iced drinks and nuts in favors made in the shape of storks and cradles. After progressions they served yeast cobbler in a mode and coffee. High score winner in bridge play was Mrs. Douglas West. Mrs. J. R. Sanders was second high and Mrs. Jesse Lewis was low. Miss Patsy Hardesty won high in canasta play.
