April 5—An April Fool's Tacky Party was enjoyed April 1 by a group of 35 adults at the Church Recreation Hall. Eligibility to come was granted to "morons" from the age of 21 to 81, and the "younger generation" although they couldn't get inside, lined up outside to preview the tacky costumes.

Admission was one penny for each inch of waist measure and prizes for the "largest circumference" went to Mrs. Flora Spencer and Kelly O'Neal (this included the pillow stuffing), and for the "smallest circumference" to Mrs. Elizabeth G. Howard and Theodore Rondthaler. Saying the alphabet backwards at the fastest rate brought a prize to Mrs. Nora Gaskill.

Mrs. Flora Spencer, Kelly O'Neal, Mrs. Elsie Tolson, Benjamin Early Spencer, and Marvin Howard were awarded prizes for tackiest costumes, and Mrs. Doris Balance and Robert L. Vickery Jr. were awarded prizes in a contest. Many of the prizes turned out to be April Fool jokes, but this only added to the gaiety of the occasion. Cookies and punch were served.

Recent guests at Wahab Village Hotel included Miss Margaret Click of Elkin, Miss Virginia M. Pierce of New York City, Miss Elizabeth Poteat of Raleigh, all students from Woman's College in Greensboro. Several people from Washington, D. C., have also visited at the hotel recently, among them Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Klink and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Runyon and family, and Norman E. Eliason.

Horatio O'Neal returned to Washington, D. C., on Sunday with the Runyons, after a two weeks' visit with his parents and other relatives.

Religious Group Convenes Today

Washington, April 9—More than 500 delegates from 19 congregations in Eastern Carolina are expected for the semi-annual assembly of North Carolina Circuit I, Jehovah's witnesses, to be held at John H. Small School, Washington, this weekend.

Today's session, starting at 7 p.m., will include the regular weekly Theocratic Ministry school which is for the purpose of training all in attendance to become able ministers. The service meeting program will follow.

On Saturday, sessions for preparation in field service will be held and the highlight of the afternoon program will be a talk on baptism by John W. Davies Jr., circuit servant. This discourse will begin at 1:30 o'clock and immersion of candidates will follow.

The main feature of the three-day event will be the public lecture Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the subject, "Is Civilization's End Near?" The speaker will be W. D. Couch, of Brooklyn, N. Y., district servant.

The Sunday afternoon session will close with talks by O. S. Joyner, of Farmville, Davies and Couch.

Congregations from the following places will be represented at the assembly: Maury, Rocky Mount, Elizabeth City, Tarboro, Whitakers, Jacksonville, New Bern, Greenville, Edenton, Warrenton, Pink Hill, Wilson, Scotland Neck, Vanceboro, Morehead City, Henderson, Roanoke Rapids, Kinston and Washington.

John Clark Walks Off 'Job' Tuesday

John Clark, Negro prisoner on the road crew working at the western end of Arendell street, Morehead City, walked off the job Tuesday morning but was later picked up by W. B. Allen of Newport.

Sheriff Hugh Salter said that Clark was hitching a ride and Mr. Allen gave him a lift. He turned him over to Newport Chief of Police Ormsby Mann and Deputy Sheriff Marshall Ayscue who returned him to the prison camp.

Clark will be tried Tuesday morning in county recorder's court on a charge of escaping from the road crew.

and family, at Patuxent River, Maryland.

Mrs. Seth Carter Jr., was taken last Thursday to the Elizabeth City Hospital for an emergency appendectomy. Mr. Carter and their infant daughter are staying with his parents in Elizabeth City during Mrs. Carter's hospitalization.

SPRING CLEANING TIP

Spring cleaning requires a lot of energy—time—soap—and hot water. If you have an automatic electric water heater, you don't have to give the hot water a second thought!

You see, an automatic electric water heater is truly automatic. There is nothing to turn on or off—no ashes or dirt—nothing for you to do at all except enjoy abundant hot water for all household needs—including spring cleaning—at the mere touch of the faucet.

If there is not an electric water heater in your home—this Spring is a good time to get one!
