By JAMES G. WHITEHURST

We were favored recently when Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Stroud, of Greenville, dropped in for a "pop-call." We have known the Strouds for many years — in fact, we attended the sixth grade with one of their daughters. Mrs. Stroud came from Beaufort, having been the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Felton, and the sister of Mrs. Gerald Hill. About five or six years ago we installed a bunch of Kool-Ver Awnings on the Stroud summer home, which is located near the West End of Evans Street in Morehead City. Since then they usually drop by once or twice a year to see us. The Strouds recently entertained two visitors from Canada — you may have read about it in the News & Observer. The man held the job equivalent to the Secretary of Treasury in this country (we've forgotten his exact title). We kidded "Miss Maggie" about entertaining "royalty" — told her we didn't know royalty, but we knew someone that did. . . . The Strouds are interested now in Aluminum Jalousies or OUTSIDE Venetian Blinds for their summer home here in Morehead City. If you go by the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dill, 110 Pollock Street, Beaufort, please notice their new canvas awnings. We are real proud of the looks of that job. Or better yet, ask the Dills how they like their new awnings. We make up in our plant aluminum-frame screens that have a solid frame going around the entire perimeter of the screen. These fit tight all way around the frame, preventing insects from entering around the edges. If you are interested we'll be glad to show you a sample and quote prices. We have sold quite a lot of these and everyone seems pleased with them. Unless you have had some connection with property listing or the collection of taxes in the county, you have no idea how many out-of-town people own property in Carteret, and especially is this true of Morehead City and Atlantic Beach. There are more than two hundred property owners in the Morehead township that live out of the county and out of the state. Surprising, isn't it . . . ? Honestly, the best salesmen we have ever had are — yes, you are reading right — our Satisfied Customers. They are just as much an asset to us as our machinery and inventory. Just couldn't get along without Satisfied Customers . . . ! You know where the Vickery Pottery Shop is on Live Oak Street in Beaufort . . . ? See anything new when you passed by there . . . ? You've noticed the new canvas awnings on the Shop and on the Vickery home . . . ? Well, we did 'em. Don't go by — go in . . . ! Mrs. Vickery has the largest and most varied collection of pottery, do-dads, thing-u-ma-bobs, living room ornaments, knickknacks, et cetera, we have seen any where around here. Interesting, to say the least . . . ! JALOUSIE JIM Says: "If you are interested in sleeping with your bedroom windows open this summer and don't want to be bothered about closing the windows when it rains, have us install Aluminum Jalousies or OUTSIDE Venetian Blinds on those windows AT ONCE before hot weather gets here. You'll never regret getting these. (You say you don't know what we're talking about . . . ? Well we'll be glad to show you these anytime, and quote you installed prices, too.)"

Dom's Lunch, located in the Stroud Building in Morehead City, is sporting two bright, new awnings — made and installed by Whitehurst Awning and Blind Co. (Of course!). Dom is quite an enterprising young fellow. Not only does he operate Dom's Lunch in Morehead City and Dom-El's on the Atlantic Beach causeway, but he has recently taken over the operation of the fruit and vegetable market formerly operated by Mac Willis, across from Garner's Service Station, on Arendell Street. Having your porch enclosed with Clearview Louver Windows will give you worlds of pleasure this summer, and many years to come. We have these in a variety of price ranges — depending on the type of glass used. We have these using 7/32" crystal sheet glass, 1/4" polished plate glass, and in 1/4" polished heat-resisting SOLEX Glass. And any of these three can be had in obscure. We'll be glad to quote prices on your porch job without obligation. This column is printed each Tuesday as a paid advertisement by the WHITEHURST Awning and Blind Co. Morehead City, N. C.
