

Home Department Members Hear Report on County Cancer Drive

The American Home Department of the Woman's Club met Monday evening at the Civic Center for the last meeting until the fall. In the absence of the president, Mrs. R. E. Willis, Mrs. W. C. Cottingham, vice-president, presided.

Mrs. George Ball, commander of the cancer drive being carried on this month, gave the members an outline of the work which has been done in this county. She stated that the Rev. Leon Couch, pastor of the First Methodist Church, has been a big help in the publicity for this drive and he has arranged for films on this subject to be shown in the educational building of the church.

Mrs. Ball announced that the drive would continue through the second week in May. She called attention of the members to the flower show, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club, which will be held in the Recreation Center May 6.

Also she reminded the club of the general Woman's Club meeting May 7.

Mrs. J. M. Davis introduced Mrs. Charles Hassell, Beaufort, pianist, and Mrs. J. H. Waldrop Jr., Newport, soloist, who presented a musical program. Mrs. Waldrop sang the two theme songs from the radio Firestone Hour. They were, "If I Could Tell You, and, In My Garden, both written by Ida Firestone.

For her last number she sang an aria, "One Fine Day, from the opera Madame Butterfly, for which she wore a costume. Mrs. Hassell explained two numbers from the Broadway musical, "Kismet, and played parts of both. She plans to give both numbers in the next concert of the Beaufort Choral Club of which she is director.

The hostesses, Mrs. Earl Norwood, Mrs. M. M. Ayscue and Mrs. Fred Lewis, served ice cream sodas, cookies and nuts.
