on the registration books. This must be done in writing to the Carteret County Board of Elections.

The party challenged has the right of appeal and can cast his vote in the election prior to ruling on the challenge. The challenged voter places his ballot in an envelope, which is set aside until a ruling by the board. If he is found to be okay, his vote is counted.

The Board of Elections is made up of three persons, two Democrats and one Republican. The board is headed by Fred R. Seeley of Beaufort. The other member is D. Ira Garner of Newport. The late James H. Davis was the Republican member of the board.

In Morehead City, the Jaycees' governmental affairs committee, headed by Charles Summerlin is urging everyone who hasn't registered, to do so by sundown tomorrow.

Registration places are open from 9 a. m. to sundown.

President Names Year's Program Committee

Gerald Hill, president of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, has appointed Halsey Paul chairman of the 1954-55 chamber program. Others on the committee are Dr. W. L. Woodard and Odell Ferrill.

This committee, with Glenn Adair, treasurer of the chamber, will also serve as the budget committee.

Businessmen having project suggestions for the chamber should contact one of the members of the committee.

Bar Association Sets Docket for June Court

The Carteret County Bar Association, in session Wednesday at the courthouse, set the docket for the June term of Superior Court which opens Monday, June 7.

The lawyers also passed motions requesting the county board to ask the chief justice for a special two-week civil term in July or August and to request the solicitor to petition for a one-week criminal term during July or August.

The association set one case, Trader vs. Walker, as the first to be heard in the December term of Superior Court.

Miss Jean Robinson, Beaufort, won the television set given away Wednesday at Atlantic Beach's grand opening.

Other prize winners were Mrs. Daphne C. Guthrie, Morehead City, a bathing suit; Pat Henninger, Cherry Point, casting rod and reel; beach umbrella, Hyacinth Currey, Cherry Point; electric percolator, D. R. Whiteham, Cherry Point; surf rod and reel, Mrs. Marie Newsome, Morehead City.

Joe Cashton, Boston, Mass., steam iron; Bruce Grisham, Morehead City, toaster; and Mrs. Thelma Seitter, Morehead City, dinette set. The matching lamp set was won by D. B. Hill, Morehead City.

Winner of 10 beach towels were Mrs. Marie Newsome, Mrs. Joseph T. Lewis, Sue Russell, Mrs. Robert Seamon, Mrs. R. O. Trout, all of Morehead City; Mrs. Charles Cosno, Newport; Mrs. Thomas Southwick, Havelock; Mrs. Robert Southwick, Mrs. Charles Novick Jr., and Mrs. L. DeLean, all of Cherry Point.

Libby Arendell and Mrs. George Gillikin, Morehead City, won a novelty lamp and a lawn chair.

Good Crowd

The opening was termed a grand success with a good-sized crowd attending, said Mrs. Sally Moore, chairman of the opening day committee.

She said every part of the program went off smoothly and the general opinion of those attending was that it was one of the best beach openings.

During the day, prizes were given away at random. These included beach balls, balloons, ladies' handbags, silver dollars, a scotch cooler and free kiddie rides.

Registration for the main prizes took place on the street side of the beach from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. and again from 7 to 8:45 p. m. Drawing stubs for the main prizes were Michael Wagner and Mary Frances O'Conner of Morehead City.

Band Plays

The Morehead City High School Band gave a 45-minute concert from the Heart of the Beach patio which was followed by a parade of 25 party boats. Preceding the party boat parade, shrimp boats cruised by.

A water skiing exhibition followed the boat parade. The skiers were pulled by Vernon Guthrie, Morehead City, in his speed boat.

The fashion show followed water skiing on the ocean side of the Heart of the Beach. Six models displayed street wear, sports wear and beach wear.

Winding up the afternoon's activities was a life saving demonstration by Atlantic Beach life guards.

The iron, toaster, dinette set, and television set were given away during the evening. A street dance was held in front of the Heart of the Beach at 8 p. m.

Music was furnished by the Duke University Ambassadors.

Mrs. Moore said the committee is grateful and extends its thanks to all those who helped in making the program a success. She said she especially wanted to thank E. C. Willis and Sons for the lumber for the band stand and the Community Bus Lines for donating a bus, free of charge to carry the high school band to the beach and back.

Next scheduled event at the beach is Wednesday when a fireworks display will take place at 10 p. m. The display can be seen from any part of the beach. No admission will be charged.

Court

latter charge. He was sentenced to 10 days on the streets on the first charge. It will be suspended on payment of court costs.

Abel Nolen, charged with following too closely was fined $10 and costs. Prayer for judgment was continued four more weeks in the case of Leon English, charged with being drunk.

Charlie Wickizer, charged with being drunk on the highway, was sentenced to 30 days on the streets. Sentence will be suspended on payment of $10 and court costs and six months good behavior.

Thomas Richard Stewart, charged with reckless driving and drunk driving, was fined $100 and costs. Farley Hayes, charged with being drunk, and being a public nuisance, was sentenced to six months on the roads.

James Monroe Sutton, charged with driving on the wrong side of the highway, wasn't present in court and forfeited bond.

The state decided not to press charges against George Shipp, charged with being drunk and disorderly and disturbing the peace. The case against Richard Lewis Lucas, charged with speeding, reckless driving, and drunk driving, was taken off the docket until the defendant is discharged from the hospital.

Leroy Shingola, charged with no operator's license, was fined $25 and ordered to pay one-half court costs. The fine will be remitted if Shingola shows a valid license to the clerk of court in 30 days.

Drops Charges

The state decided not to press charges at this time against Charles G. Harris, charged with public drunkenness.

Dolph Austin Golden was fined $25 and costs for failing to stop at a stop sign and a stop light. Patricia Worley Sirman and Percy Ray Walston, both charged with reckless driving, were fined $25 and costs.

William Robert Benton, charged with drunk driving, requested a jury trial and the case was transferred to Superior Court under $150 appearance bond. Adolphus Thomas Best, was found not guilty of a speeding charge. The court dismissed the case against Sam Williams, who was charged with falsely accusing Lucille Williams, no kin, of stealing money that belonged to him.

Court Costs Paid

The following were taxed with court costs: James Elton Bell, improper muffler; Albert Nelson Yates, driving on the wrong side of the road; Randall D. Howard, speeding; Eric Eugene Midgette, interfering with an officer; and Winston Hunter Hall, failing to stop at a stop sign.

Sheldon Clarke Merrill, Leslie Barber Dehaven and Luther Roman Lewis, charged with failing to stop at a stop sign; and Michael W. Karam, drunk on the highway. Harold Clayton Rockcliff and William Edward Copeland, charged with running red lights, were taxed with one-half court costs.

The prosecuting witness was ordered to pay court costs in the case of Donald Finer when the warrant was withdrawn. Finer was charged with stealing a car. The court ruled frivolous prosecution.

Cases continued were: James Wilbert Taylor and Floyd Lee Stevens, speeding; Marvin Andrew Holcombe and Nicholas Peter Demulder, drunk driving; Harold Willis, drunk and disorderly and disturbing the peace; Earl E. Rhodes, molesting children; and Charles Davis, using loud and profane language in public.

Town Courtroom Has New Seats

The new seats in the Beaufort Town Hall courtroom were permanently installed this week.

Five rows of seats were put on each side of the courtroom with two rows of seats near the solicitor's desk for officers and other court officials.

The seats are theatre type. They were purchased by Judge Earl Mason in Baltimore recently. Workmen have been busy repairing and installing the seats during the past two weeks.

The Diesel-powered Jimmy D III, owned by General Motors, will be demonstrated Monday and Tuesday at the Machine & Supply Co., Beaufort.

Beaufort Jaycees Name Chairmen for Pageant

Beaufort Jaycees appointed a beauty pageant chairman and committee members at a meeting of the club Monday at the Scout Hut.

Ronald Earl Mason was placed in charge of the pageant which will take place June 5 at the postoffice dock in Beaufort.

Holden Ballou is in charge of judges, John Duncan, admission arrangements, James Steed, tickets; Bill Davis and Vic Bellamah, concessions; Bill Downum, contestants; Carroll Ann Downum, director; Bill Sutton and Haywood Snell, props; Don Willis, lighting; Carl Sadler, the band, and Mr. Mason, publicity.

Horace Loftin, club president, will escort the winner to the state finals; and Glenn Adair will be emcee of the pageant.

Newly-elected officers took office Monday and Mr. Loftin appointed Mr. Mason, state director. He also announced that the sergeant-at-arms will be elected at the next meeting.

Bill Sutton, in charge of the picnic table sale reported that tables are still available. They can be ordered from him or any member of the Jaycees. Ten have been sold to date.

Guests of the club were Bill Downum, Don Willis, and Lynn Stoller, all of Beaufort.

Judge Frizzelle Makes Decision

Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, in his chambers at Snow Hill, has ruled that First Finance Inc. is the owner of a 1952 Packard automobile. The ruling was made in the suit, First Finance Inc. vs. Charles O. Styron Jr.

Prior to ruling that the finance company owned and is entitled to possession of the car, the judge agreed, on motion by the defendant, to allow a voluntary non-suit as to a counter-claim filed by Styron.

He ordered that the finance company pay the costs of the action in which they re-gained possession of the car.

In other recent Superior Court rulings, H. H. Smith was ordered to pay $259.39 with interest from Oct. 25, 1953, to A. B. Roberts, T. J. Thomas, W. P. Freeman and R. W. Freeman trading as W. P. Freeman Wholesale Grocer. Smith was also ordered to pay costs of the action.

The court has ruled in favor of the plaintiff in the suit, Pangburn Co. Inc. vs. Thomas E. Wade trading as S&W Drug Store. The court ruled that the firm shall recover from Wade $450.47 plus interest from Oct. 7, 1952, also that he shall pay court costs.

A voluntary non-suit was taken and action dismissed in the case Earle W. Webb vs. Earle W. Webb, trustee and others.

Judge Morris Hears 13 Cases In Short Session

Judge L. R. Morris heard 13 cases in Carteret County Recorder's Court Tuesday in a session that lasted only an hour and a half.

Reginald Conway and E. C. Landrum, charged with issuing bad checks, were assessed court costs and told to make the checks good. Jonathan James and Herbert William Shives, charged with failure to grant the right-of-way, were ordered to pay $10 fines and costs.

Judge Morris also heard three speeding cases. Carl J. Lehman pled guilty to speeding 70 miles an hour and paid $10 and costs.

The court assessed a $10 fine on John Francis Mitzen, who pled guilty to speeding. He must also pay court costs. Willis Junior Noe, charged with speeding, paid a $5 fine and costs.

Carlos J. Nugent and Daniel Small, each charged with driving without a license, were told to pay costs. Robert C. Frank, charged with no operator's license and allowing an unlicensed person to drive, was taxed with court costs.

David E. Horton, charged with drunk driving, was fined $100 and costs. Horton was also found guilty of driving with a license. Forrest Duane Howell was found guilty of reckless driving and fined $10 and costs.

Court costs were imposed on Kenneth C. Grove, charged with driving with improper muffler and lights.

Cases continued were Herbert H. Jones, speeding; Harold Neil Grossnickle, drunk driving and speeding; Vandie H. Alligood, non-support and abandonment; James P. Harrell, public drunkenness.

William Batson, selling illegal whiskey; Ted Day and Paul Cody, issuing bad checks; Clyde Gillikin, parking on the highway; Paul Deaton Betts, improper muffler; Theodore Johnson, possessing non-tax-paid liquor; Joseph Gerald Rhodes and Maurice King Smith, reckless driving. William Alston, misuse of dealer plates and Kenneth Lee Best, drunk driving.

James R. Sanders, cashier of the Morehead City First-Citizens Bank and Trust Co., James H. Davis, cashier in Beaufort, and Nathan H. Garner, manager of the branch bank in Newport attended the North Carolina Bankers Association convention at Pinehurst. They went Sunday and returned Monday night.

is concerned. If a corner of the handkerchief sticks out far enough for him to get his teeth on it, he stands on his hind legs and works and works 'til he gets the whole handkerchief.

No, he doesn't hold it up with his paw and blow his nose in it, but it wouldn't surprise folks if he did.

Someone once offered Mr. Ayscue $125 for the dog. You know the answer. There isn't enough money in the world to buy Spot. Just ask the Ayscues.

Milton Dall, New Bern, has taken over the Carteret Gas Co. Inc., S. 8th St., Morehead City. The former manager, Al Awtry, has gone to South Carolina to engage in a similar business.
