The Rev. W. T. Cockman Accepts Mission Charge

The Rev. W. T. Cockman, of Southeastern Seminary, has been named assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, Morehead City. He will be in charge of the Parkview Baptist Mission, located on highway 70 opposite Mansfield Parkway.

Mr. Cockman is a graduate of Mars Hill Junior College, Mars Hill, N. C., and Furman University, Greenville, S. C. For the past three years he has been pastor of Jupiter Baptist Church near Asheville, N. C.

The mission is proceeding with plans to become a church. Sixty persons have indicated a desire to be charter members.

Mr. Cockman, his wife and daughter arrived in Morehead City last week and are living near the mission on highway 70.

The mission, sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Morehead City, was organized last October for persons living west of the town who were unable to attend church in town.

The American Legion Hut was used until the first of the year when a suitable building was found and rented. Through efforts of the mission leaders and cooperation of pastor and members of the First Baptist Church, the property was purchased in April.

The beginning Sunday School membership was 45, now 90 are enrolled. Prayer service is held each Wednesday night and with assistance of various ministerial students church services have been held each Sunday since last fall.

Thomas Edison died at 84 in 1931. About 4 per cent of the land area of New York State is classified as urban.

The Rev. W. T. Cockman begins work here

Woman Driver Requests Police to Remove Pole

West Hartford, Conn. (AP)—Police Sgt. Everett T. Fredin, on desk duty, received a telephone call from a woman. The utility pole in front of her house, she said, was too close to her driveway. Could the pole be moved, please?

"My daughter and I have just learned to drive," she explained, "and I just know that I'm going to hit that pole."
