Customer Uses Ruler To Measure Haircut

Martinsville, Va. (AP)—A man entered a barber shop here and plopped into the chair of A. C. Trull, instructing that his hair be cut to a length of 1 1/2 inches. Trull worked carefully for 30 minutes and the customer gave him a dollar.

Trull then watched as the customer produced a ruler, measured his hair, said it was cut too short and demanded return of the dollar. Somewhat amazed and disgusted Trull complied, but says rules are prohibited from now on.
