

Superior Court to Open Monday For Two-Week Criminal, Civil Term

The June term of Superior Court will begin Monday and continue through Friday, June 18. From Monday until Friday, June 11, criminal cases will be heard.

Civil court opens Monday, June 14, and continues through Friday, June 18. Judge Clawson L. Williams will preside over both terms with William J. Bundy as solicitor.

Cases to go before the grand jury are as follows:
Jack Mayo, crime against nature; William P. Dalton, Gordon Herbert Salter, Lamont Edgerton, Robert Alvin Kelly, William Robert Benton, and Frank C. Railsback, drunk driving; Henry D. Smith, larceny; and Ted Day, bad checks.

Criminal cases docketed for Monday are the following: Charlie Mack Day, to hear judgement; Wilford Norman Penny, state to nob pros; Delmas Gutierrez, Elton Littleton, Abraham Williams, and Adrian Brooks, abandonment and non-support.

Noe Emory, public nuisance; William Bennett, peeping tom; Beatrice Monroe and James and Beatrice Collins, liquor charge; Herbert Collins, Earl Tootle, and Warren Charles Smith, breaking, entering, and larceny.

Tuesday Docket
Cases set for Tuesday are James Howland, arson; Charles R. Bonini, confiscation; J. D. Arnold Jr., larceny; L. F. Williams, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill; and George Hoover, seduction, abandonment and non-support.

Homer Lloyd Mentzer and LeRoy Gaston Simmons, speeding; Lea-mon Corbett, motor vehicle law violation; and Ted Day, bad checks.

Wednesday's cases are John Jones, false pretense; Steve Dudley, driving drunk; Jesse Bryan Garner, Leslie Drew Feagle III, and Edward Ray Alexander, speeding; Robert Dudley, gambling; Robert Martin Maxin, motor vehicle law violation; Henry D. Smith, larceny, Carolina Racing Assoc., injunction.

Thursday's Docket
Thursday's cases are Kenneth Lee Best, Frank E. Railsback, William Robert Benton, Oscar B. Elliott, and Delbert Reno Burgdorf, driving drunk; Henry Turner, reckless driving; Cecil Guthrie, two counts of peeping tom; and George Dudley Sr., assault.

Friday's cases are Edward Plymou Smith, driving drunk; Vernon Richard Bowen, motor vehicle law violation; and Henry Joel Clark, speeding.
Cases docketed after the calendar was set will be added, A. H. James, clerk of Superior Court, said.

Building Inspector Issues Three Permits

Three Beaufort building permits were issued in May, Gerald Woodard, Beaufort building inspector, announced yesterday.

Permits were granted to Mrs. Violet Tatum, Orange Street, alter dwelling, $1,200; Claud R. Wheatly Jr., Front Street, repair dwelling, $700; and Marcus Carpenter, Fulford Street, repair dwelling, $300.

Court Frees Negro Charged With Stealing

Starkey Mobley, Negro, was found not guilty of theft Monday in Morehead City Recorder's Court. Mobley was charged with stealing a .22 rifle, a shrimp boat, and a fishing reel from Mrs. Lucinda Dudley. The case was heard last week and prayer for judgment was continued until Monday.

The court said prayer for judgment would be continued for two weeks in the case of Eldridge Willis and Marvin North Willis, brothers, charged with fighting and disturbing the peace.

The case of James Wilbert Taylor, charged with speeding, was removed from the docket until the warrant is served. Hazel Moore Guthrie, charged with two counts of speeding, was fined $10 and costs.

Case Dismissed
The court dismissed the case against Henry E. Taylor, charged with assault and battery and being drunk and disorderly, when it learned the case arose outside the court's jurisdiction.

The prosecuting witness was taxed court costs when the warrant, charging William Kelly with attempted rape, was withdrawn. The court ruled frivolous prosecution.

Frederick J. M. Benedette, charged with no operator's license, was given 10 days on the streets. Sentence will be suspended on payment of $25 and costs. The fine will be remitted, the court said, if the defendant shows a valid license to the clerk of court in two weeks.

William C. Hewett and Edith Love Brown, charged with no operator's license, were fined $25 and costs.

Celeste Gold, charged with no operator's license, and running through a stop sign, was fined $25 and costs. Fine will be remitted if defendant shows a license to the clerk of court in two weeks.

Bond Forfeited
Floyd Lee Stevens forfeited bond when he did not appear in court to answer to charges of speeding.

The prosecuting witness was taxed court costs when the warrant, charging Carl D. Garner with being drunk and disorderly, was withdrawn. Court ruled frivolous prosecution.

The state decided not to press charges of no operator's license against James Michiel Padgette, but he was ordered to pay court costs on a speeding charge.

The state decided not to prosecute Jerome J. Coffin, charged with no operator's license, but he was taxed court costs on failing to stop for a stop sign.

Court costs were imposed on the following: Theodie N. Johnson, running a red light; Roy D. Clifton, speeding; George Alcott O'Neal, speeding and failing to stop for a stop sign; George Walter Franzer Jr., insufficient brakes; and Jack Lee Ackers, speeding.

The court ordered the following to pay two-thirds court costs: Elmer James Musselwhite, Albert J. Crew and Laura Rennie Wynne, all charged with failing to stop for a stop sign; Alice Victoria Carlson, running a red light; and Harold John Delbert, passing at an intersection.

Cases continued were: Vestal Adair Grant and Vivian C. Dawson, failing to stop for a stop sign; William N. Pappas, speeding; Edna Whaley Stevens, breaking, entering and larceny; Elwood Newman, speeding and bad check.

Harold Willis, public drunkenness and drunk driving; Cecil Joe Rouse, no operator's license; Ed Fitzpatrick, public drunkenness; and Frederick Hughes, drunk and disorderly and using loud and profane language.

Alton Lennen, an Umstead appointee, Lennen conceded victory to Scott Wednesday. Scott's state-wide vote totaled a majority of about 4,500 over all his other opponents.

Scott also polled a majority vote for the senatorial short term. The short term runs from the time the State Board of Elections declares the results of the November election until Feb. 20, 1955. As the Democratic nominee, Scott is virtually assured an easy victory over Republican Paul West, Raleigh. He will take office following the November election.

Lennen has pledged Scott his support.
The county's board of commissioners will be comprised of the four commissioners who were re-elected, Moses Howard, Dr. K. P. B. Bonner, Walter Yeomans, E. H. Potter and the newly-elected member of the board, Alvah Taylor, Sea Level.

The fifth board member, Tilden

Davis, Harkers Island, did not seek re-election.

Commissioner Howard polled the highest number of votes given commissioners and was fourth high man on the ticket. Next in order, by votes polled for commissioner, were Bonner, Yeomans, Potter and Taylor.

For state offices, Edwin Gill was re-elected state treasurer and Charles F. Gold was re-elected insurance commissioner. They carried the county as well as the state, Gill defeating Joshua James and Gold defeating John F. Fletcher.

In the only constable race in the county in Morehead Township George Smith, chief of police at Atlantic Beach, defeated Murphy Jenkins, Morehead City, by 381 votes. Smith received 1,040 votes as against Jenkins' 659.

The total number of votes cast in the county were 5,128, about 100 more than in the 1950 primary when Frank Graham ran against Willis Smith for the U. S. Senate and Vivian Chadwick and Leo Simpson were running against Gehrman Holland for sheriff.

Sheriff Releases Workers Tuesday

Sheriff Hugh Salter said Tuesday that the two Negro migrant laborers being questioned in connection with the alleged murder of Robert Wright, migrant laborer, were released under $50 bond Tuesday.

There is no basis for a murder charge against them since Wright's body cannot be located and other investigations produce no conclusive evidence, he said.

The two men who were released, Randolph Cummings and Paul Hildebrand, are being charged however, with engaging in a fight Sunday morning. They will be tried in Recorder's Court Tuesday, June 22.
