

Mrs. Bland, Corporal Harris Wed In Double Ring Ceremony Friday

Mrs. Laura Mitchell Bland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mitchell of this city, and Corporal John Richard Harris, Cherry Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Harris of Huron, South Dakota, were married Friday evening at seven-thirty in the Free Will Baptist Church.

The Rev. Noah Brown officiated at the double ring ceremony. Pink gladioli were used to decorate the church. Mrs. Theodore Phillips, organist, presented a program of nuptial music before the ceremony and the soloists, the Rev. Louis Dillman and Miss Carolyn Hill, sang "Because, I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of pastel pink nylon net. The off shoulder design was accented with delicate lace brocade trim and panelling. She wore a matching nylon net stole.

For a headress her veil of pink velvet and nylon net fell from a pink velvet tiara trimmed with flowers. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple throated orchid.

Miss Audrey Mitchell, sister of the bride, wore an off shoulder ballerina length gown of pale lavender. She carried a mixed posage of yellow flowers.

Best man for the bridegroom was Staff Sergeant Richard Crowell and ushers were Privates First Class Willard W. Johnson and William R. Batton. A formal military wedding was used with the men attendants in Marine dress blues and the groom and best man wearing non-commissioned officers' traditional sabers.

The mother of the bride wore a blue street length dress with a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the groom was not able to be present due to illness.

After a weekend in the western part of the state the couple are making their home at Camp Glenn. The bride is a graduate of the Morehead City High School and the post-graduate commercial course. She is presently employed at the Herald Printing Company, Morehead City.

Corporal Harris is a graduate of Shoshoni, Wyoming High School and attended the University of Wyoming. He worked with the Denver Post, Denver, Colorado, as staff photographer and at the present time is stationed at Cherry Point where he is photographic lab technician. He was stationed previously at San Diego, California and Pensacola, Florida.

Miss Emma Katherine Thomas was married to Mr. Theodore Gleason Kellogg, and Miss Annie Lee Thomas was married to Mr. Clarence Wade Bolton at four o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Stokesdale Methodist Church.

The brides, who have been living in Greensboro, are the daughters of Mrs. Lewis Sample Thomas of Stokesdale and the late Mr. Thomas. Mr. Kellogg is the son of Mr. James Wilford Kellogg of Morehead City. Mr. Bolton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bolton of Greensboro.

The double wedding was conducted by the Rev. Wade Rust, pastor of the church, and the Rev. T. G. Williams, pastor of the James-town Oakdale Methodist Church.

Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Paul Knight of Stokesdale, organist, and Mr. Howard Coble of Guilford.

Katherine was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Charles C. Thomas. She had Mrs. J. B. Aulbert as honor attendant and Miss Phyllis Thomas, her niece, as bridesmaid.

Annie was given in marriage by another brother, Mr. Sample Thomas, of Stokesdale. Her sister, Mrs. Dempsey Ellison of Stokesdale, was matron of honor and Mr. Bolton's niece, Miss Billy Jean Capps, was bridesmaid.

The brides wore identical gowns of white lace and net over taffeta, fashioned with deep sweetheart necklines, long-sleeved lace bodices and tiered net skirts.

Their net veils fell from lace caps trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. They carried bouquets of purple throated orchids and white carnations.

The honor attendants wore blue lace over blue taffeta gowns, with matching blue lace headpieces sprayed with forget-me-nots. They wore blue gloves and carried bouquets of pink carnations. The bridesmaids wore pink organdy over taffeta and carried blue carnations.

Mr. Kellogg had his father as best man and Mr. Bolton had Mr. James Gilbert as best man. Ushers were Mr. Howard Lambert of Julian and Mr. Benjamin Tongue of Wendell.

The mother of the brides wore aquamarine crepe with black and white accessories. Mrs. Kellogg wore rose chiffon over taffeta and Mrs. Bolton chose navy with pink and navy accessories. All wore carnation corsages.

After July 6 Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg will be at home at 1315 N. Elm St., Greensboro. Mrs. Kellogg is a graduate of Stokesdale High School and of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing at Winston-Salem. She is a pediatric staff nurse at Cone Memorial Hospital in Greensboro. Mr. Kellogg, who attended State College, is district executive of General Greene Council, Boy Scouts of America.

After July 10, Mr. and Mrs. Bolton will be at home at 907 Grayland St., Greensboro. Mrs. Bolton is a graduate of Stokesdale High School and attended King's Business College, Raleigh. Mr. Bolton, who has attended Greensboro College for the past three years, is a draftsman for Newman Machine Co.
