Neva Bell, Gene Barnhardt Wed On Parents' Wedding Anniversaries

On their parents wedding anniversaries Saturday, June 26, Miss Neva Chadwick Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roland Bell of Beaufort, was married to Mr. Eugene Wilson Barnhardt, son of Mrs. William Wilton Barnhardt and the late Mr. Barnhardt of Winston-Salem.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Ann Street Methodist Church, with the Rev. J. D. Young, pastor of the church, officiating.

Prior to the wedding ceremony, Miss Sallie Jean Kerner, organist, of Henderson, gave a program of nuptial music and Mrs. Jarvis Herring, soloist, of Beaufort, sang The Sweetest Story Ever Told and Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee.

Baskets of gladioli and fever few stood in the chancel, and lighted cathedral tapers in candelabra gave illumination to the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace and tulle designed with a portrait neckline applied with lace, long lace sleeves and a fitted bodice. The bouffant tulle skirt which extended into a train was applied with lace motifs, and her veil fell from a cloche of chantilly. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Frances Bell served her sister as maid of honor. She wore a gown of bride's blue made with high neck lace basque and a full tulle skirt. She wore a matching blue bandeau in her hair and carried rubium lilies tied with pink satin ribbon that fell in long streamers.

Mrs. William W. Barnhardt Jr. of Winston-Salem, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of carnation pink fashioned with a shirred basque of net and lace, attached net stole and lace peplum over a net skirt, and her hair was held with a matching lace bandeau. Her flowers were rubium lilies with blue streamers.

Mrs. J. T. Hayter of Kenansville, Mrs. Hogan Gaskins Jr. of Greenville, Miss Joyce Biggs of Raleigh and Beaufort, Miss Betsy Jones and Miss Nancy Russell, both of Beaufort, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns similar to the matron of honor and also carried rubium lilies with blue streamers.

Serving as honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. William Oglesby, Miss Pat Webb, both of Beaufort, Miss Ruth Derrick of Clayton, Ga., Miss Nancy Campbell of Chapel Hill and Miss Helen Bell Moore of Orville, Ohio.

William W. Barnhardt Jr. of Winston-Salem was best man for his brother and ushers were Harold C. Schaffer, C. William Teague, Edwin Anderson, all of Winston-Salem, Victor Casper and Morris Tarlton of Concord, Richard Gordon of Raleigh and R. W. Chadwick of Durham.

Mrs. Bell, mother of the bride, wore a gown of hyacinth blue with matching net cloche, and Mrs. Barnhardt wore a gown of rose lace with a cloche of the same material. Both wore white orchids.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bell entertained at a reception at their home to honor the bridal couple.

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Lena Duncan and ushered to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Barnhardt, the bride couple and the bridesmaids.

Mrs. J. D. Rumley directed the guests to the dining room where Miss Gladys Chadwick and Mrs. Harold Schaffer of Winston-Salem presided over the punch bowls.

Miss Laura Davis was in charge of the bride's book, and Mrs. W. I. Loftin and Mrs. Bob Carr were in charge of the gift room.

Summer flowers were used throughout the house except in the living room where magnolia blossoms outlined the mantel.

Magnolias decorated the dining room and two crystal punch bowls stood on either end of the table, with wedding cake, nuts and mints in the center. Four silver candle holders tied with lilies of the valley and white asters, holding cathedral tapers, stood on the table.

Before leaving for a wedding trip, the bride changed into a blue silk suit and beige accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Beaufort High School and received her bachelor's degree from Salem College in 1953. For the past year she has taught music in the public schools at Winston-Salem.

Mr. Barnhardt was graduated from Reynolds High School, Winston-Salem, and State College, Raleigh.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set. Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.
