Two Brush Fires Rage Tuesday

Two brush fires on the Lennoxville Road Tuesday threatened the Safrit Lumber Co. and the homes of Warren Willis and Sam Johnson.

The first alarm was called in to Beaufort firemen at 11 a.m. A brush fire was raging at the rear of the lumber company property and had started to burn a corner of a warehouse.

That fire was brought under control and a short time later the same alarm was rung again to call firemen to the area between the Standard Net Company and the Johnson and Willis homes.

A skeleton crew was left to mop up the fire at the Safrit property and the other firemen went eastward to the second blaze. They used the truck owned by the Rural Fire Association.

The fire had gained so much headway that a backfire had to be started to bring it under control. Water from the fire department's booster tank and the Rural Fire Association truck was used to put out the blaze. The Rural Association truck was refilled once.

Everything was reported under control by 2 p.m.

Department Drills Beaufort Fire Department went through its weekly drills last night. Aviation Fuel Terminals port. Last night's drill was the first this week. There was no drill Monday night because of the Fourth of July.

Fulcher-Gaskill Wedding Vows Given in Home Ceremony Saturday

The marriage of Miss Catherine Gaskill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gaskill of Sea Level, to Mr. Sterling Fulcher, son of Mr. Charles Fulcher of Stacy, was solemnized on Saturday, July 3, at 10:30 in the morning, at the home of the bride's parents in Sea Level.

The Rev. Louie Lewis, pastor of the Atlantic Methodist circuit, performed the double ring ceremony. White gladiolas, white pom-poms and ferns were used to decorate the house.

Prior to the wedding ceremony Mrs. Harry Simons, pianist, gave a program of nuptial music and Miss Ruth Taylor of Sea Level, soloist, sang The Sweetest Story Ever Told.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Eugene Gaskill of Fayetteville, wore a white dress of embroidered organza with imported lace. The dress was fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore white accessories and a sweetheart shaped hat of white straw and tiers of net. She carried a bouquet of white carnations showered with white ribbon and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Paul M. Gaskill of Atlanta, Ga., sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a yellow linen dress fashioned on princess style, a white straw hat, and carried a bouquet of orchid lilies with streamers of pastel net.

Alden Fulcher of Norfolk, nephew of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Before leaving on a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Virginia, Mrs. Fulcher changed into a pink silk shantung dress with black and white accessories, and wore her bridal corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Atlantic High School and of East Carolina College, Greenville, where she received both her BS and MA degrees. She has been a teacher in the Beaufort primary department for the past few years.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Atlantic High School and of the U. S. Coast Guard Specialist School. He is serving with the rank of Chief Boatswain in the U. S. Coast Guard.

On their return from their wedding trip, they will live in Portsmouth, Va.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill entertained at a reception at the Sea Level Inn to honor the bridal couple.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Nadine Harris of Atlantic and ushered to the receiving line, composed of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill and Mr. and Mrs. Paul-Gaskill.

Miss Fannie Robinson of Atlantic was in charge of the bride's book which was placed on a table covered with a linen damask cloth.

Mrs. David Beveridge of Beaufort and Mrs. Julian Gaskill of Goldsboro served the punch and Miss Ruth Taylor and Miss Lena Taylor, both of Sea Level, served the cake, nuts and pints to the guests.

The serving table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake with ivy and nosegays of white pom-poms on a white Madeira cloth. The table was centered with a large arrangement of white gladiolas and greens, and antique brass five-branched candelabra.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. D. M. Fulcher of Atlantic.
