Pineapple Trifle Serves As Dessert for 12 Persons

Pineapple trifle takes its cue from the famous English dessert.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

"What shall I serve 12 people for dessert?" That's a query we often get when our friends are giving a buffet supper or just having guests for coffee and dessert in the evening.

A trifle, styled after the famous English sweet, is one answer. It can be made in the morning or even the day before the party and refrigerated. Then just before serving, if you use a spring-form pan, it can be slipped onto a plate. Or if your kitchen doesn't boast a large spring-form pan, you can make the trifle in a casserole. It will still look pretty because of its garnished top, and you can cut it in front of your company.

There are various schools of thought when it comes to trifle. Mrs. Beeton, famous 19th Century English cookery author, has four recipes for this dessert. But one of the pan or casserole; arrange half of the pineapple tidbits over them. Prepare vanilla pudding according to package directions, using 4 cups milk. While the pudding is still hot, pour half of it over the pineapple layer. Repeat layers of lady fingers, pineapple and pudding in the same order and chill dessert thoroughly. (Reserve 4 pineapple tidbits for garnishing). Refrigerate. Just before serving, remove sides of spring-form pan and place trifle on serving plate; or serve from casserole. Split reserved pineapple tidbits in half. Make two flowers by placing a cherry in the center of each, and arranging pineapple pieces and almonds alternately around cherry for petals. Make stems of angelica or sliced green maraschino cherries. Whip cream, sweet to taste and flavor with vanilla; spoon cream around edge of trifle. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Pineapple Trifle
Ingredients: 36 lady fingers, 1 cup raspberry jam, one No. 2 can pineapple tidbits (drained), 2 packages vanilla pudding, 4 cups milk, 1 cup cream, 8 whole blanched toasted almonds, 2 red maraschino cherries, angelica or green maraschino cherries.

Method: Split lady fingers in half lengthwise and spread each half with jam. Stand lady finger halves on end, jam side to the center, around the edge of a 10-inch spring-form pan or straight-sided casserole. Place half of the remaining lady fingers jam side up, in an even layer in the bottom

'My Buddy' Act Jails Friends

Long Beach, Calif. (AP)—"I'm worried about my buddy," Earl D. Bucher, 21, told police. "He hasn't come home and I think he may have had an accident. His name's Jerry Shore."

Lt. C. J. Novotny said Shore was not reported in any accident. "Maybe he was arrested then?" suggested Bucher. Novotny found that was true.

"Well, I think you got the wrong guy. I'm the one you want on that traffic warrant," offered Bucher. Sure enough, the officer discovered Bucher actually was the wanted man.

"Then you'll let Jerry go now?" "Now, we can't do that. He's wanted in Denver on a forgery rap. That's why we picked him up. You just talked yourself into jail, my boy."
