Lawyer Studies For Priesthood

Pittsburgh (AP)—If the Rev. John McGrath achieves his ambition to become a doctor of canon law in the Roman Catholic Church he may be one of the few who already has a background as a lawyer. Father McGrath, recently ordained, had his shingle out in Pittsburgh more than a year before he decided to study for the priesthood.
 The 31-year-old priest got his law degree by teaching at a Catholic high school during the day and studying at Duquesne University nights. Midway, he took three years out to serve as an artilleryman in the Army.
 This fall he will enroll at Catholic University at Washington. But it will be three years, including about two years of study at Rome, before he will be entitled to his doctorate.
