

Women of Baptist Circles Hear Mrs. Lamont Edgerton, Goldsboro

The circles of the First Baptist Church met at the church Tuesday in an all-day meeting. The group opened the meeting with the hymn of the year, Jesus Saves. Miss Adie Norvell of the Kennedy Home, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George McNeill, led in prayer.

Mrs. L. J. Norris, president, introduced the speaker of the morning, Mrs. Lamont Edgerton, of Goldsboro and Atlantic Beach. She spoke on prayer. Dr. John H. Bunn, pastor, then led in prayer.

Mrs. Howard closed the afternoon devotionals with a poem and the Lord's Prayer.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. B. D. Bunn of Whiteville and Morehead City. She spoke on Seed-time in the Philippines. Mrs. M. L. Piner led in prayer.

Among the visitors was Mrs. D. J. Eure, former president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church.

The circles adjourned to meet separately in their respective classrooms for business sessions. Lunch was served in the assembly room by the Addie H. Jones Circle.

At the afternoon program Mrs. Norris opened with the group singing the woman's hymn, Come Women, Wide Proclaim. Mrs. Ida Eaton led in prayer. Mrs. H. S. Gibbs Sr., secretary, read the minutes and the count of circles was taken.

Mrs. George Howard Sr. gave the devotional. Her topic was Salvation by Faith. Taking part on this part of the program were Mrs. John Oglesby and Mrs. Eaton. Mrs. Sadie Webb Wood led in prayer.

Presbyterian Circles Hold Combined Meeting

Three circles of the First Presbyterian Church met Monday night in the Sunday School rooms of the church.

The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. R. B. Howard, leading in a hymn and a prayer. The Bible lesson was given by Mrs. A. F. Chestnut, on the topic, Beginning of World Missions by Paul and Barnabas.

The meeting closed with a prayer chain. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John James Jr., Mrs. Gannon Talbert and Mrs. W. E. Guthrie.
