To illustrate his point, the hospital administrator used John Doe, a plumber, as an example. Today he goes to the hospital for an appendectomy, stays five days and pays $15 a day for hospital care or a total of $75. He earns $100 a week and loses $100 pay for the time he is in the hospital.

But 20 years ago when he was earning just $60 a week, he went to the hospital for an appendectomy, stayed 12-14 days and lost $120 pay or $20 more than he does today. The 12-14 days in the hospital test they what fire days do today. cost then what five days do today. But in the final analysis the patier gains - due to new methods of treatment and new types of drugs he's out of the hospital in a short-

The hospital picture has changed too, the speaker said, in that it de pends for existence now on its earned revenue and not endow-ments of philanthropic gestures. Hospital incurance plans, he said, re replacing endowments. His talk, followed by a question

An amendment to the by-laws, providing that office holders must attend at least nine of the 12 yearly meetings or relinquish their office was approved. Miss Shawnee Spears and Miss

Lil Morris, club representatives at the recent United Fund meeting in Morehead City, gave their report.

Mrs. Beam then announced that the club would be responsible for the public affairs discussion at the district meeting in September. Mrs. Ruth Cubbage, club public affairs chairman, will be in charge.
The club was also invited to a picnic given by the Goldsboro Club next Wednesday.

Mrs. Phillip Jackson, a member of the Pittsboro B&PW Club, gave a report on club activities. She was a guest of her mother, Mrs. D. M. Fulcher, Atlantic.

Other guests, in addition to the speaker and his wife, were Mrs. Gertrude Cahoon, Winston-Salem Lucien Peeling, York, Pa. Mrs. Thomas Noe. Beaufort; and Ramona Williams, Morehead
