Catholics Complete Plans for Ice Cream Festival Tomorrow Night

Last minute arrangements have now been completed for the second annual ice cream festival, to be held on the grounds of St. Egidius' Catholic Church, tomorrow night between 7 and 10 p.m.

The last committee meeting was held Tuesday night, with Mrs. Dom Femia, chairman, submitting her final report.

The town of Beaufort has again lent its Christmas street-lighting system for use in lighting the area of the festival. The local radio station has loaned a public address system for the entertainment program.

As previously announced, entertainers from Morehead, Beaufort and Newport will lend their talents to the show.

Ice cream, a drink and home made cake will be included in the admission price.

Maola Milk Company is donating the ice cream that will be served, and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company is donating the drink.

Mr. Vic Bellamah of Beaufort, chairman of the arrangements, expressed the gratitude of the committee and of the church for the generosity of these two companies.

Besides refreshments and entertainment, a bake sale and a white elephant sale will be featured. Tickets have been selling well in the last two weeks. Mrs. Femia reports, and they will also be on sale at the gate throughout the evening.

In case of bad weather, she said, refreshments will be served in the cars. Ample parking area on the church grounds is available.

Next time you are preparing a hot stew, try adding rounds of frankfurters to the salad. Heat the frankfurters by covering them with boiling water and then letting them stand off the heat for 5 to 7 minutes.

Here's a snack for weight-watchers! — a sandwich without bread. Spread salami slices with seasoned cottage cheese; top each with another salami slice. At serving time, cut each of these sandwiches into four wedges.

IT COSTS LESS TO GET WELL

It's a fact! The price trend for modern drugs that are so effective in overcoming diseases continues downward. You pay less for medicine that speeds recovery and reduces the time you are kept away from your work. You protect your income when you protect your health. See your physician for a check-up; then see us for any medicine he may prescribe.
