County Solicitor Reports Teen-Age Drinking 'Abates'

THE NEWS-TIMES, conveying his warning that charges would be filed against certain adults, was of casions with the comment, "OK, much value. Mr. Taylor said several weeks ago that adults were known to be buying whiskey for teen-agers and unless the violation stopped, the adults would be prose

At that time he said too that boys under 18 years of age were known to be drinking heavily and on several occasions had to be got-minors are being sold beer. ten off the streets before they were ty Recorder's Court, told THE certain young people and adults they were 18 years of age. In NEWS-TIMES yesterday that he believes teen-age drinking in Beauing an eye on the situation and if the law is violated or teen-agers are 18 or older," the solicitor said. In his opinion the recent story in found drinking, he will be notified.

The solicitor said that he has you've closed up the race track, how about doing something about Atlantic Beach?" (Mr. Taylor brought action early this summer which resulted in the closing of the dog track at Morehead City).

He said that he has been to At- a general rule. lantic Beach on numerous occaminors are being sold beer.

"I saw young people drinking, of the forum w some of whom had had too much, Age Problems."

Wiley Taylor, solicitor of Coun- Mr. Taylor revealed yesterday that | and I asked them for proof that During all of July, he added, five investigators from the ABC mall beverage division were at Atlantic Beach and they were unable to find evidence sufficient to bring ac tion for closing any beer-selling place on the beach.

Mr. Taylor said that there may be occasional violations but not as Carteret's solicitor will appear on a forum over WNCT-TV, Greenville, at 1:45 p.m. Sunday. Subject of the forum will be "These Teen-fort, who claims he never seemed 100th birthday Sunday.

Mr. Gus Willis, Beaufort, To be 100 Years Old Sunday

Atlantic to Get Boy Scout Troop

A Boy Scout troop will be organized at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Atlantic Methodist Church, N. F. Eure, Beaufort, Carteret Scout District chairman, announced Tuesday. The church will sponsor the troop.

Plans for organizing the troop were discussed at a district commit tee meeting Monday in the Civic Center, Morehead City.

A delegation of five was pres-ent from Atlantic to aid committee members in organizational plans. Other plans discussed in-cluded the annual Fall Round-up, to get underway Sept. 25; and the finance campaign, scheduled for

It was also reported that Camp Croatan, Boy Scout Summer Camp, had a successful season. Scout troops of this area attended the camp and returned. "favorably im-

Attending the meeting were Mr. Eure, Fred Bertram, Dr. Henry Kritzler, Dr. Walter Chipman, and B. J. May, all of Beaufort; Paul Ak-erfey and Dr. Darden J. Eure of Morehead City, and Bill Wall of

Beaufort Jaycees Discuss Football

Beaufort Jaycees discussed plans Monday concerning the coming Beaufort High School football sea-

The football field will receive a thorough going-over, bleachers will be renovated, and the concession stand will be fixed up, said Horace Loftin, Jaycee president.

A favorable report was given by Wiley Taylor Jr. on the condition of the athletic equipment. New equipment has been added where needed and some repairs were made, he said.

Season tickets for the six home games will be available soon, said Mr. Loftin. Tentative plans call for the Beaufort High band to help Jaycees sell the tickets, Mr. Loftin

Financial Report

Photo by Roy Eubanks Gus Willis

County Board Officially Accepts School

The County Board of Education ccepted the new Camp Glenn School building at their recent August meeting.

The board decided that in the future it will meet every quarter, as provided by law, rather than monthly as in the past. Special Reader. meetings will be called as neces-sary, said H. L. Joslyn, county su-perintendent of schools. The meetings are scheduled for the first Monday of January, April, July and

The board decided to make no changes in the firms with which changes were made, a 22 per cent discount gained by holding long-term policies would be lost, accordbeen requested by insurance sales-

The president of the North Riv-er Parent-Teacher Association requested that the teacher of last year be retained but the board could not comply with the request because another had already men to deal with other companies.

The board's next regular session the front yard of his home in Smyrna, as an 8-year-old boy, clad in the home-spun clothes woven by his mother, listening to the re-ports of the guns as the Yankees took Fort Macon away from the Confederates April 24, 1862. "Those were hard times after the war. They had everything in the family.

closed up and you couldn't even get a pair of shoes," he said.

Shoes Were Rare

" 'Course I didn't use shoes too much in those days anyhow. I can remember a lot of times when I would walk barefoot across the ice on little ponds in the winter."

He went on to say, "I guess fish-ing was my favorite past time in those days. A bunch of boys would get together in the fall and go out for about two or three "I didn't go to much school. A fellow came down here and open-ed up a school in the winter some but I didn't go but about three times. We used to study the Blue Backed Speller and McDuffie's his license.

"I read everything I could get my hands on and, after all, that's out all education is anyway, as far as school is concerned. know, I believe that Webster is the best authority on education we ever had. I put a lot of confidence in changes in the firms with which school insurance is carried. If to learn how to spell," he com-

Mr. Willis married the late Martha Copeland Willis, also of Smyrna, in 1883 when he was 29. She

When questioned about the late age of marriage, Mr. Willis said with a chuckle, "In those days everybody wanted to have a feather bed before they got married and I had to get that bed."

Had 12 Children Mr. Willis and the late Mrs. Wil See MR. GUS. Page 2

Beaufort Town Board The Jaycees met Monday at the Sea Level Inn with their wives and guests in a combination ladies night and business meeting. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees will meet at the Inlet Inn Aug. 23. The Jaycees met Monday at the Sea Level Inn with their wives and guests in a combination ladies night and business meeting. Beaufort's town board approved a tentative $96,858.75 budget for 1954-55 at their monthly meeting Monday night. The largest amount alloted was the $25,350 budgeted to the street was entenced to six months on the roads, suspended if he stays on good behavior two years and pays the costs of court. Arrest Made Alvin Hodge, 32 was arrested Monday morning at 6 a.m. in Beau-

Makes Report

Dan Walker, clerk of court, announced yesterday that Besufort Recorder's Court netted $406.79 during the month of July after taking in $1,429.60.

Expenses which had to be met were support of minors, medical and hospital bills, officers' retirement fund, salaries, juil fees, bond balance refunds and prisoners' board. Paid to the county in fines and bond forfeitures was $215.

Mr. Walker stated that the bank balance in the court account is now $676.34. Eight hundred dollars has been transferred to the town general fund.

Chamber to Publicize

Low-Cost Fishing Here

Ted Davis, manager of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, amounced this week that the chamber is publishing a pamphlet publicizing low-cost game fishing in Morehead City.

The pamphlet will list fishing plers and charges for using them, also the small partyboats available.

Makes Report

In his report to the Beaufort town board Monday night, Police to the Davis of the police department.

Real estate taxes are expected to bring in the bulk of the income, $33,000. The Powell Street fund beau for vehicle violations accounted to bring in $9,000.

Budgeted for administrative eviet three arrests for assault, Livee juvelie arrests is go go for general expense.

The fire department budget was cut by approximately $1,000 to session of non-taxpaid whisky, six $10,007.50. At the meeting, J. P. Harris, Beaufort fire commissioner, pointed out that the fire department did not expect to have to buy any new hose this year although $1,500 was allotted to supsting meter money turned in was $917.19. Bicycle tags brought in an additional $27.

Chief Guy reported that 15 court expenditure amounts to $77,888.75. Interest on general refunding bonds will cost the town $12,150 and bond retirement will amount to day's morehead City Recorder's court will appear in Tuesday's newhere.

Because of limited space in to-day's morehead City Recorder's court will appear in Tuesday's paper, the report on Monday and the seal of the converse of the space of the space of the seal of the

Monday night.

The largest amount alloted was the $25,350 budgeted to the street department while $20,621 was estimated to cover the expenses of the police department.

Real setate taxes are expensed to

Orthopedic Clinic Opens 8:30 Tomorrow

Health Department Issue Report on First Year Of Operation

The monthly orthopedic clinic ponsored by the Morehead City Rotary Club, will take place tonorrow morning at 8:30 in the Morehead City Hospital annex. The Carteret County Health Department announced yesterday that 545 patients have attended the clinics during the past year, its first year of operation. Surgery or treatment requiring hospital care has been given 83 patients while 84 patients have re-ceived dietetic treatment. Corrective shoes or arch support have been advised, applied or adjusted for 76 persons. treatments: casts or splints, 49; braces advised, measured, fitted or adjusted, 22; dressings applied, adjusted or removed, 12; bandage or strapping advised or applied, 6.

Corrective exercises advised, 55; massage, heat, sun or electro-therapy advised, 30; artificial limb as healthy as his twin brother who died in 1926 will celebrate his advised, 1.
New patients during the year totaled 258 and those attending the linic more than once numbered

Mr. Willis, known as Gus, was born Aug. 15, 1854, one of the four boys of the late Mr. and Mrs. Am-The clinic is supervised by Dr. Lenox Baker, Duke Orthopedic Hospital. Both Dr. Baker and the berse J. Willis. He was born in Smyrna and spent most of his life there. There were also four girls County Health Department express their appreciation for cooperation Mr. Willis remembers standing in and assistance to hospital authorities, local doctors and volunteer workers.

Defendant Pays $50 on Speeding Count Tuesday

Arthur Gibbs Fulcher was fined $50 and costs in County Recorder's Court Tuesday after he had been found guilty of speeding at 70 miles per hour. Fulcher's attorney, Claud Wheat ly, told Judge Lambert Morris that a patrolman could not judge a car's speed explicitly enough at night to say that a man was going 75 in-stead of 70. He explained that if his license.

Bedford Brown Toms, charged to with non-support, was sentenced to the roads, suspended as long as he pays $12.50 each week for the support of his child. He also had to pay court costs. Walter O'Brien, Bellgie Branton

Gillikin, and Berkley Ray Gillikin were charged with stealing hub caps and were fined $10 and costs of court to be paid within 60 days. Each paid one-third of the full costs

Leon Robert Thompson pled guilty to charges of having no operator's license, improper brakes and driving on the wrong side of the road. He was fined $10 and

George D. Shields was fined $10 and costs after being found guilty of public drunkenness and inde-cently exposing himself. Eight Found Guilty

Eight persons were found guilty of speeding. They were Charles J. Nugent, Leroy M. Kellan, Roy J. Kenney, Darrell Willard Morse, Don J. Harlow, J. L. Beamon, Jen-

See COURT. Page 2

Port Calendar

Esso New Orleans - Will dock at Esso Port Terminal Tuesday from Texas City, Tex., via Ber-Will return to Baytown. Tex. LST 1166 — Sailed from state

LST 1166 — Sailed from state port Tuesday.

USS Botetourt (AP) — Sailed from state port Tuesday.

BB 11 Barge — Sailed from Esso Port Terminal Tuesday with cargo of gasoline and fuel oil.

Bound for Washington, N. C.

Esso Manhattan — Scheduled to dock at Esso Port Terminal Aug. 24 with load of gasoline and fuel oil from Baytown, Tex. Will leave here for Baton Rogue, La.

La.

Imperial Toronto — Will dock at Esso Port Terminal Friday from Aruba, Venezuela, via Charleston, S. C., with load of gasoline and fuel oil. Will sail for Puerto LaCruz, Venezuela.

Pan American — Tanker will dock at Trumbull Asphalt Co. Tuesday with load of asphalt.

Leroy Brown, Roy Smith Put on Good Behavior, Pay Fines

Judge Suspends

Six-Month Term

Leroy Brown was given a six month suspended sentence in Beau fort's Recorder's Court Tuesday af ter he was found guilty of trans-porting non-taxpaid whisky. He was placed on good behavior by Judge Earl Mason and ordered to pay a $50 fine and costs.

Roy Smith, who was in the car with Brown when they were ar rested, was found guilty of posses sion of non-taxpaid whisky and was sentenced to 60 days in jail, sus-pended upon payment of $10 fine and costs. He was ordered to stay on good behavior for two years.
The 1947 Roadmaster Buick

which they were driving was re-turned to its owner, William J. Sparks. Mr. Sparks testified that he had loaned the car to Brown but did not know that Brown was going to transport whisky in it.

The case against Lemmon Marion for public drunkenness and the against Elvin Hodges for car rying a concealed weapon (razor) were continued. Also continued was the case against Jame Johnson charged with operating a vehicle on highways of North Carolina and hitting another automobile, leaving the scene of the accident without reporting it, refusing to show a drivers' license when re-quested to do so by a police offier and resisting arrest.

The case against Earl C. Schneider was also continued. Schneider has been charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of alcohol, careless and reck less driving, and causing property damage of $150.

President Names Two Officers

Two officers were appointed Wednesday at a meeting of the Carteret County Toastmasters Club President Ronald Earl Mason ap pointed Jerry Schumacher deputy governor and Ted Davis education al chairman at the meeting at Hol den's Restaurant, Beaufort.

Three new members were welcomed into the club. They are R. O. Lowrimore and E. D. Willis, Davis; and Jasper Bell, Morehead

Breaking-the-ice speeches were given by Toastmasters Gordon Har-desty. Mr. Schumacher, and Ger-ald Hill. Toastmaster Dan Walker delivered his second basic training speech, "Beaufort's Garbage Individual critics were Ed Walston, P. H. Geer Jr., Dr. W. L. Woodard, and Mr. Davis. General woodard, and Mr. Davis. General evaluator was Ronald Mason. Topic master for the impromtu speeches was Halsey Paul, and Vic Bellamah was the toastmaster. Guests of the club were John D.

Larkins, chairman of the State Democratic executive committee Trenton; Fred Whitaker, executive manager of the State Motel Associ-ation, Raleigh; and Jerry Rowe, Morehead City.

fort on a charge of carrying a con-cealed weapon. Patrolman Steve Beaufort; the Rev. H. H. Cash and Beacham, who was the arresting of-Osborne Cash, Marshallberg; and ficer, said Hodge was carrying V. M. Rhue and Leon Mann Jr.

Bishop Garber to Speak Sunday at Marshallberg Bishop Paul N. Garber, leading Methodist of the Richmond area, will be the guest minister in Marshallberg Methodist Church at the Sunday morning worship ser-

Two Injured in Auto Crash

In Morehead City Tuesday

The Rev. H. H. Cash, pastor of the church, extends an invitation to all Methodists of this area to attend. The service will begin at

Former Carteret Minister Dies

Funeral Services for The Rev. W. Y. Stewart Held At Winston-Salem

The Rev. William Y. Stewart, 63, ed Tuesday night in the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, after a ong illness.
Funeral services were held at 5

'clock Thursday afternoon in Winton-Salem. Mr. Stewart, who was educated at the University of Edinborough, Scotland, was ordained in the Methodist ministry when he came to the

He was pastor of Franklin Memo rial Church, Morehead City, when Core Creek Community Church was given to the Core Creek community by the late Col. F. S. Dickinson. Mr. Stewart left the Methodist conference to become minister of the Core Creek Church, a non-denom-inational church, in 1938.

United States.

The Rev. W. Y. Stewart

Mr. Stewart remained with the church until 1949 when it was turn-ed over to the Methodist Conference. He then rejoined the conference and was given the Ocracoke Methodist charge from 1950 until the fall of 1953, when he retired health.

He and his wife then moved to Winston-Salem to make their home Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Iva Goodchild Stewart of Winston-

Boy Scout Officials Meet Monday

"Help Boys to Grow" was the theme of the roundtable discussion and training course attended Monday by Boy Scout troop leaders and officials at the Civic Center, Morehead City.

Leading the discussion was Ethan neighborhood commissioner

Alvin Hodge, 32 was arrested Monday morning at 6 a.m. in Beau Davis, Ted Hardy, R. B. Howard,

Economy Measure Affects Mail Service in This Area

Associated Press.

The star route from New Bern to Beaufort will be discontinued and the star route from Goldsboro to Beaufort will be "curtailed."

Operations superintendent, Tom J. Cheek of the Postal Transportation Service, Washington, said the rearrangement of routes in this section of the state will cut annual expenses by an estimated $79,738,

J. P. Betts, Beaufort postmaster, announced the changes, effective Monday, as follows:

The highway postoffice will ar-

The highway postoffice will ar- accordingly.

Two star routes to Beaufort will rive in Beaufort daily except Sunbe affected by moves to curtail day at 8:35 a.m. and leave at 3:40 postoffice expenses in eastern Carolina, according to a report by the Associated Press.

A 15-year-old Negro girl from Virginia and Luke D. Davis, 58, Goldsboro, were injured at 1:50 p.m. Tuesday in an automobile accident at 24th and Arendell Streets, Morehead City.

The girl, Sammie Garrington, received head injuries and Davis had knee injuries. Davis was discharged from Morehead City Hospital yesterday morning. He has been charged with careless and reckless driving, failing to stop at a stop sign and fail-ure to yield the right-of-way. The other victim was given emer-gency treatment at the hospital and discharged. According to Sgt. C. E. Bunch of the Morehead City Police Depart-ment, a 1953 Chrysler driven by Bessie Coleman Barksdale, South Boston, Va., collided with a 1949 pickup truck driven by Davis. The Chrysler was headed west back to Beaufort, passed the Ser on Arendell when it was struck in ate Wednesday. the side by the pickup which was proceeding south on 24th. The 15 feet into the curb on the south side of the highway.

The injured girl was sitting on the back seat of the Chrysler. The George W. Dill ambulance took both her and Davis to the hospital.

Sergeant Bunch estimated damage to the Chrysler, owned by Sam-uel Barksdale of Camp Morehead, at $700 and damage to the pick-up was estimated at $500. Both cars were removed from the scene by wreckers.

Davis stated that he stopped a the stop sign on 24th Street and pulled out because he did not see the Chrysler coming.

Power Will Be Cut to Make Improvements

Three outtages have been sched uled for next week to make im-provements a he power line from Beaufort castward through Atlantic, George Stovall, Carolina Power and Light manager, reminds resi

The outtage schedule is as fol-Monday-1 p.m., about a 15 minute outtage on the line from Beaufort to Claude Martin's Service Station on highway 70. From Martin's Service Station eastward the outtage will be from 1 to 4 p.m. Tuesday—Outtage from 1 to 4 p.m. from Smyrna through Atlan-

Wednesday-Outtage from 1 to p.m. from Oyster Creek eastward. Cost of the improvements will be $32,777. More than 20 miles of line will be replaced with larger cable and the whole line will be re-insulated.

The present line is too small to carry the increasing load, he ex-plained. Rapid development of Sea Level and installation of major appliances in homes has made improvements necessary. Nemeth was weaving from one side the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, reported this week.

Air Force Cadets 'Vacation' Here

Leading the discussion was Ethan Davis. Morehead City, Boy Scout tion in Morehead City on Saturdays through August.

Their visit is financed through Their visit is linanced through the chaplain's fund at the base. They arrive in Morehead City Fri-day night, stay at the Hotel Fort Macon, go fishing early Saturday morning with five partyboatmen and on their return go to Fort Ma-

The program was approved by Col. Charles Lingamfelter, com-manding officer of the base, and is supervised by Major Howard P.

Tide Table Tides at Beaufort Bar

Friday, Aug. 13

1:11 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 14 1:48 a.m. 1:58 p.m. 8:09 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 15 2:28 a.m. 2:45 p.m. 8:51 p.m. Monday, Aug. 16 9:35 p.m. 3 Tuesday, Aug. 17

10:01 a.m. 10:19 p.m.

Senate Okays Bill Returning Town Property

The bill deeding the former Coast Guard property, Lennoxville,

Dan Walker, town clerk, received proceeding south on 24th. The at 2 p.m. Wednesday the follow-pickup traveled 20 feet after impact and the Chrysler was knocked at 2 p.m. Wednesday the follow-ing telegram from Congressman Graham A. Barden: "Bill deeding property to city of Beaufort has just passed Senate and has gone to White House for President's signa ture. Don't expect veto but will be several days before it is signed."

A move to regain the Coast Mayor Clifford Lewis, also re-ceived a telegram from Sen. Sam Ervin Jr. stating that the bill SB 3709, had been passed and sent to the White House.

Sent to the White House. Guard property deeded by Beaufort to the federal government during the second World War was started early in the spring when the Beau-fort Town Board was asked by a Beaufort resident if he could purchase the property.

Town attorney Gene Smith wrote Congressman Barden relative to getting the property back for $1, the amount the federal government paid when they acquired it. Congressman Barden introduced a bill which would return the property to the town for the sum of a The bill passed the House prior to going to the Senate.

Driver Appeals Judge's Decision

John J. Nemeth was found guilty of a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol and he gave notice of appeal after Judge Lambert Morris fined him $100 and costs of court in county court Tuesday. Nemeth testified that he had only three beers before being arrested. He said that he was going to get a loaf of bread when Patrol-men J. W. Sykes and R. H. Brown arrested him. After the arrest the patrolmen went to a house in Morehead City and got two women had been in Newport and were told to get the women and take them to the Morehead City Hospital where one of the women's husbands was confined after suffering a heart attack. Patrolman Brown testified that of the road to the other when he and Patrolman Sykes noticed him. He said they ordered Nemeth over to the side of the road and placed him under arrest.

Patrolman Sykes stated that they

Patrolman Brown said that Patrolman Sykes was going to drive Nemeth's car into Morehead City but Nemeth said, "I don't want him to drive my car. I don't know whether or not he's certified." Harvey Hamilton Jr., Nemeth's attorney, brought in six witnesses to testify that Nemeth was not drunk when he left the house at about 8 o'clock on the night he was arrested. Mr. Hamilton contended that Nemeth could not have gotten drunk between 8 o'clock and 8:40,

Judge Morris said that it was possible that Nemeth was not drunk when he left to go get the bread but he believed that he was drunk when the patrolmen arrested

H. L. Joslyn Attends Superintendents' Session

H. L. Joslyn, county superinten-dent of schools, is attending the dent of schools, is attending the school superintendents' conference at Mars Hill this week.

He announced before leaving Monday that three of the principals in the county will appear on the program at the workshop for school personnel, East Carolina College, Aug. 18-19.

They are B. E. Tarkington, Beaufort; E. B. Comer, Newport, and Stanley Dail, Smyrna. Each will lead a discussion.

lead a discussion.

2:28 a.m.
2:45 p.m.
16
307 a.m.
3:32 p.m.
17
3:49 a.m.
4:21 p.m.
18
The Morehead City Jaycees had a fried chicken supper Monday for members and guests at Marion Mills' hunting camp west of Newport. The Jaycees will have their regular business meeting Monday at 7 p.m. in the Fort Macon Hotels