OAKY DOAKS

Sudden Suspicion

PRINCESS POMONA, DID YOU SAY THAT SQUEAKY NOISE SOUNDED LIKE A M-MOUSE?

YES, SIR BADMINTON, AND IT CAME FROM SOMEBODY'S ARMOR!

POMONA! IT CAME FROM—

THERE IT IS AGAIN!

H-HAVE YOU GOT A MOUSE IN YOUR ARMOR?

I'M SURE I HAVEN'T!

THEN IT MUST BE IN M-MY ARMOR!

IF I HAVE GOT A M-MOUSE IN MY ARMOR, WHAT AM I GOING TO D-DO??

I'LL TELL YOU WHAT TO DO, SIR BADMINTON!

GET A MOUSETRAP!

I WILL—AND HOW!

POMONA, THAT SQUEAKY NOISE WAS IN MY ARMOR!

I KNOW IT, OAKY!

BUT I WANTED TO GET RID OF HIM SO YOU AND I CAN BE ALONE!

GEE, POMONA! SO YOU THOUGHT SIR BADMINTON WAS ME IN MY NEW ARMOR?

YES, OAKY!

AND WHEN I FOUND OUT IT WASN'T YOU, I PUT ON HIS HELMET SO HE COULDN'T KISS ME!

I'M SAVING ALL MY KISSES FOR YOU, OAKY!

Better Living Caravan To Arrive Here Tuesday

As announced by Morehead City's International Harvester dealer, Dick Parker of Parker Motors, the International Better Living Motor Truck Caravan will arrive at Morehead City Tuesday morning.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. with a parade through Morehead City proceeding to downtown Beaufort at 9:45. An all-day open house will follow, during which time the entire Caravan will be on display at Parker Motors Car Harbor.

According to Mr. Parker the caravan is made up of a cross section of the most complete line of motor trucks and refrigeration equipment in the world.

There will be a transcontinental freighter which towers 11 feet in the air, dump trucks from the smallest to the largest, fire trucks, six-wheelers, giant moving vans, four wheel driving trucks, a bookmobile, trucks with automatic transmissions, and many others plus a complete line of household refrigeration and air conditioning units.

The star of the caravan is the new International R-100 Pick-Up. Everyone is invited to drive this truck in the R-100 driving contest. Valuable prizes will be awarded to those who can drive the farthest distance on 1/10 gallon of gas, as checked by electric gas meters.

There will be door prizes, refreshments, music, and helium-filled balloons for the children. Parker Motors of Morehead City invites everyone to attend the caravan showing.

Youthful Contortionist Wants Dancing Career

Tuscola, Ill. (AP)—Folks hereabouts are accustomed to seeing Peggy Pettit, 11, put herself in pretzel-like poses. They know the phenomenon which enables her to get into such crazy shapes is the lack of cartilages connecting the vertebrae in her back.

In the carnival world she would be known as a contortionist. But she is studying to be a professional dancer.

Fernando Proposes to Ann

Fernando Lamas, as a Northwest trapper, urges Ann Blyth to run away with him in a scene from "Rose Marie," M-G-M's first Cinemascope musical, based on the celebrated operetta. Howard Keel, Bert Lahr and Marjorie Main also star in the lavish color picture, filmed against eye-filling backgrounds of Canada's Jasper National Park and California's High Sierras.

Francis Deserts Donald

Francis has some new friends—Karen Kadler and Mara Corday (top), Mamie Van Doren and Julia Adams (bottom)—with Donald O'Connor trying to retain his franchise, in Universal-International's newest comedy about the fabulous talking mule, "Francis Joins the Wacs." Chill Wills, Lynn Bari and Zasu Pitts are also starred.

Secretary Gives Inside Report

Pittsburgh (AP) — Margaret Episcopoo, off leave from her job as army intelligence secretary in Tokyo, came up with these observations on leaders, past and present, with whom she has worked.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur was perturbed when someone shuffled the neat array of 30-odd pipes on his desk.

Gen. Matthew Ridgway became irate when someone took one of his chocolates.

Gen. Mark Clark drank coffee all the time and worked incessantly.

Gen. John E. Hull insists officers and enlisted men, alike, wear neckties in the summer months. "If he's driving along in his staff car and spots a GI without a necktie, he'll stop and give the GI a going over."
