Fresh pork spareribs are beautifully crisp when baked in a slow oven and the fat is drained off. Baste with barbecue sauce the last half hour before they are done.

The Camp Glenn PTA met Tuesday night in the new school building. The president, Mr. Leslie Brinson, welcomed parents and friends and then introduced Mrs. Darden Eure, who spoke to the group concerning the responsibility of parents and teachers to cooperate in the important business of teaching and training our children.

During the business session it was agreed to buy belts, badges, and raincoats for the Safety Patrol boys, and a flag pole will be placed in the center of the circular driveway.

Committees for the year were appointed. They are: membership, Mrs. James Ross, Mrs. John Elbron, and Mrs. Leslie Brinson; program, Mrs. Gerald Murdoch, Mrs. D. J. Eure, Mrs. W. M. Diggins, and Mrs. Julian Murphy; publicity, Mrs. Fred Willis; hospitality, Mrs. Jack Powell and Mrs. Otto Duke.

Mr. R. W. Davis, principal, introduced the new teachers to the group and last year's teachers to the new parents. There are sixteen teachers in the school and 542 pupils. The primary need of the school at present are furniture for the clinic room and the teachers' lounge, and improvement of the school grounds.

Mr. Brinson said he hoped by the next meeting to have movies in the library for small children.

In the grade count it was decided to count fathers five points and mothers one point. Mrs. Ann Murphy's first grade had the highest percentage of parents present, winning a library book for her room.

After the business session the group went to the library where they were served punch, cookies and peanuts by the ladies who work in the lunchroom, then parents visited the schoolrooms of the new building.

Future Teachers Chapter Elects Officers Tuesday

By LINDA LONG

The first Future Teachers of America meeting of this year was held Tuesday in Mrs. Llewellyn Phillips' classroom.

Pauline Guthrie, vice-president, conducted an election of officers for the coming year. New members have not been taken into the club yet, so only last year's members voted.

The new officers are as follows: president, Carolyn Guthrie, a senior; vice-president, Bradley McIntosh; secretary, Novella Reid; treasurer, Helen Carlton; reporter, Linda Long; program chairman, Renee Kemp; historian, Rose Daniels, all juniors.

After the election of officers, Carolyn Guthrie read the scripture and spoke on the topic "Your Brother's Brother." Carolyn brought out the fact that we are not always as much help to others as we can be. She said, "be as a stepping stone, and not a stumbling block."

The third Tuesday of every month will continue to be the regular meeting time of the FTA.

Begin each school day with God. Attend morning devotionals at 8:30 a.m. in the school library. Everyone welcome.

Sept. 22—Mr. Ralph Lawmore, who underwent surgery at Sea Level Hospital last week, was discharged Friday. His many friends are glad to know he is at home and doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Snellings Sr., Miss Evelyn Snellings, Mr. and Mrs. Truxton Taylor and children, Truxton Jr. and Linda, of Portsmouth, Va., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alger G. Willis. Mrs. Snellings is the sister of Mrs. Willis.

Among the students home for the weekend were Weston Earl Willis, William Carroll Davis, Joe Carrol Lina, and Miss Lorraine Styron from East Carolina College, Greenville, and Charles Paul and Miss Jessie Lee Davis, from Chowan College, Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Edna Davis entered Sea Level Hospital Saturday for treatment.

Mrs. Morrill and Mrs. Davis will be in charge of a bake sale to be held Oct. 2.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Morrill, who was assisted by Mrs. Margaret Greenwood.

Miss Martha Barnett Guest Speaker Monday

Miss Martha Barnett, home demonstration agent, will be the guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the American Home Department, to be held at the Webb Memorial Civic Center, 8 p.m. Monday.

Miss Barnett will speak on "4-H Clubs" and "The American Home." Mrs. Pat Fodrie has arranged a special program of entertainment with her dance pupils.

All work planned for the coming year will be discussed by the committees and year books will be distributed. Members are asked to attend and bring a guest interested in joining the club.

When grated, a quarter-pound of process or natural cheddar cheese will make 1 cupful.

Two Hostesses Entertain Miss Eloise Nunn Monday

Miss Eloise Nunn, who will marry Mr. Bill Collins October 1, was guest of honor at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Bobby Bell and Mrs. Lela Chadwick at the home of Mrs. Chadwick Monday night.

A corsage of pink carnations was presented to Miss Nunn and her aunt, Miss Marie Willis.

The hostesses presented the bride-to-be with a place setting of china in her chosen pattern and the guests showered her with gifts.

Bridal games were played. Mrs. Roper Van Horn, Miss Avabell Guthrie and Miss Sherry Willis won the prizes.

The table was decorated in green and white. Bridal cake, ice cream and salted nuts were served.

Five Circles Meet Monday At First Baptist Church

An evening meeting of five circles of the First Baptist Church was held Monday night. The circles met separately at 7:30 and gathered at 8 p.m. for the program.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the woman's hymn, "Come Women Wide Proclaim." The minutes were read by Mrs. M. L. Piner. Mrs. Piner, as chairman of the nominating committee, reported that Mrs. Frank Cheek and Mrs. J. B. Crowe will be leaders of the Intermediate Girls Auxiliary, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Salter are leaders of the junior Royal Ambassadors.

Mrs. Ralph Wade sang a solo, "Trees" and Mrs. Cecil Nelson presented the program of work for auxiliaries of the Woman's Missionary Union.

There was a discussion of the meeting of County Circles at Marshallberg, Thursday at 10:30 a.m.

The Edith Broadway Circle was divided and the new circle is named the Mable Piner Circle.

The president and program leader, Mrs. L. J. Norris, had as her topic for the evening, "A Saviour Sufficient for Leaders of Youth." The devotional was given by Mrs. A. H. McDonald and she read the first psalm with her remarks centered around "Trees and Youth."

Mrs. Piner led in prayer. Mrs. Norris concluded the program and Mrs. G. T. Swindell offered a prayer.

During the fellowship hour refreshments were served by the Lily Bell Webb and Stella Lincoln Circles.
