Out-of-Town Speaker Heard by Auxiliary

Mrs. Lee Whaley, of Jacksonville, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Free Will Baptist Church Monday night at the church.

The president, Mrs. Myrtle Simpson, opened the meeting by leading everyone in the song, "More Like the Master," and a prayer was offered by Mrs. Durlie Salter. After a brief business meeting, the hymn "A Hymn Thine Own Way, Lord," was sung and Mrs. Whaley was introduced. She spoke on the twelfth chapter of Romans. The meeting was dismissed by a prayer offered by Mrs. Letha Marks.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Simpson was hostess at a Christian Fellowship social. The members were served iced drinks and cake.

Teen Topics

Students Attend Devotionals 8:30 Each Morning in Library

Start each school day right by attending morning devotionals at 8:30 in the library. You will appreciate the lift it gives you throughout the day.

On Monday, Sept. 27, there was a meeting of the Junior class held in the library in the fifth period. This meeting was called for the purpose of electing class officers and for the discussion of ways of raising money for the Junior-Senior banquet.

Mr. Clarence Mooring conducted the election for president. The students were asked to choose carefully because the officers are required to work hard throughout the year. Each nominee was asked to say a few words to his classmates before the election took place.

Darrell Sanders, junior class president, proceeded with the election of secretary, treasurer and vice-president. New officers are vice-president, Pat Conner; secretary, Linda Long, and treasurer Rose Daniels.

Mrs. Llewellyn Phillips led a discussion on ways of raising money, which will be necessary toward the end of the year. A junior play was suggested and approved.

The most important topic was the sponsoring of an election among the high school students for a homecoming queen or varsity sweetheart. Votes are a penny each.

The queen, after being selected from the four contestants now being chosen, will be crowned at the last football game of the season.

The idea was accepted and we are happy to know that the high school home rooms have already selected their queens. They are as follows: freshman class, Mr. Talbert's, Annette Braithwaite; Mrs. Clark's, Fanelle Cooper; Mrs. Cordova's, Lillian Hardy; Mrs. Wallace's, Shirley Midgett; sophomore class, Mrs. Gascoigne's, Lois Becton; Mrs. Dearman's, Cecilia Perry; Mrs. Hamilton's, Mary Leonard; junior class, Mr. Wade's, Renee Kemp; Mrs. Llewellyn Phillips, Lois Taylor; Mr. Mooring's, Novella Reid; senior class, Mrs. Bailey's, Marie Crowe; Mrs. John Phillips, Ann Long.

The senior class also held a meeting to elect officers on Sept. 27. New senior officers are as follows: president, Bill Murrill; vice-president, Norman Larkee; recording secretary, Louise White; corresponding secretary, Thelma Memakis and treasurer, Jimmy Willis.

Members of the school safety patrol for the coming year have been announced. Captain of the patrol is Bradley McIntosh. Lieutenants are Tommy Hall, Robert Russell and Bobby McIntosh.

The patrolmen are Bill Munden, Mike Willis, Paul Garner, Craig Willis, Robert Best, Jerry Burns, Richard Powers, Buddy Howland and Al Conner.

These are the boys that you will be seeing at our school corners every morning and afternoon. They have been doing a very fine job in the past years and we are sure they will continue to do so.

Eighty-five have been selected to be in the high school chorus this year. The Glee Clubs are divided into two parts, each one meeting an hour every day, so concerts should be the best we've ever had.

In a "tapping" ceremony in the auditorium Thursday afternoon, twenty-five students were invited to join the Morehead City Chapter of the National Beta Club. Each of the students were pinned with a yellow "B" and stood at the front of the student body to repeat the Beta Club pledge which the president Lynn Richardson, led.

Then they went on stage as Geraldine Hedgecock, secretary, called their names, to receive their formal invitation card. It was a proud and happy moment for each of the 25, who had no idea that they had been chosen.

The new members, all juniors, are as follows: Jean Barnes, Ellen Bordeaux, Nancy Dixon, Mary Lou Davis, Linda Long, Freida Lewis, Helen Carlton, Gayle Piner, Raymond Willis, Libby Wade, Novella Reid, Eddie Smithwick.

Walter Willis, Leo Simpson, Jerry Willis, Durwood Sanderson, Darrell Sanders, Lois Taylor, Varina O'Neal, Beth Roberts, Darlene Brinson, Bobby G. Lewis, Rachel Stroud, Rose Daniels and Joyce Bell.

There will be a meeting of the Beta Club on the first Tuesday of this month at 8:30 in the auditorium.

FTA meets every third Tuesday and FHA meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Overheard in class as a student finished giving a report, Teacher: "That was very good but weren't you chewing something?" Student, swallowing quickly, "Who me? No 'mam, my teeth itch." The best excuse for gum-chewing I've heard yet.

Remember, any news that teachers or students would like in this column, please send it to Linda Long in the last period study hall in the library.

Thank you.

Mrs. Lashley Conducts Candlelight Installation

The L. L. Leary Bible Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. J. W. Thompson, 308 Bridges St. Mrs. John Lashley conducted a candlelight installation ceremony for new officers.

Mrs. Thomas Oglesby, retiring president, presided and after a business meeting the program was turned over to Mrs. Fred Pittman, chairman of the installation service.

Mrs. Shelby Freeman opened the service with a devotional which challenged the new officers and members to higher achievement during the year. Mrs. J. G. Bennett, teacher, expressed her appreciation to retiring officers.

Mrs. Lashley presented each incoming officer with a road map indicating their duties for the year. She challenged the new officers to lead the class in attaining the prescribed standard of excellence. Mrs. W. C. Carlton, president, accepted the challenge on behalf of the officers. Mrs. J. C. Smith led in a prayer of dedication and the group sang the class song, "Living for Jesus."

Decorations of maps and lighted globes were used and a small map was pinned on each member upon arrival.

In addition to Mrs. Carlton as president, the following officers were installed: Mrs. Frank Cheek, vice-president, Mrs. Fred Pittman, recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Williams, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Frank Swindell, assistant secretary.

Group leaders are Mrs. Oglesby, Mrs. H. W. McBride, Mrs. William Weeks, Mrs. Ed Weeks, Mrs. Reginald Willis, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. J. B. Crowe, Mrs. Jack Powell, Mrs. E. L. Smithwick, and Miss Mary Loomis Willis.

The outgoing officers were the hostesses during a social hour at the end of the meeting and served sandwiches, brownies, nuts and punch.
