Hi-Y Clubs Meet; Annual Staff Plans New Features for 'Mainsail'

In keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit, officers of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y met last Wednesday at Henry Safrin's home to discuss their Thanksgiving and Christmas boxes and to discuss ways of making money. Plans were made to give a Christmas dance during the holidays, but nothing definite was decided. After refreshments were served, the meeting was adjourned.

Here's the first real news of the annual staff and what it's doing this year. The full staff has met once, and Monday night the editors met at Bobby Guthrie's house. Several things were discussed. The Mainsail of '55 will have several new features and will prove to be a fine one.

Wayne Whitehurst, Ann Hill, and Bobby Guthrie, business managers, have put forth a lot of effort in raising money for this year's annual. Of course, there has been a lot of excitement this past week since the rest of the annual pictures had to be taken and the class has to choose the teacher to whom they would dedicate their annual.

This is quite an honor, and you can bet there was a lot of discussion. The seniors are looking forward to the completion of the annual, along with the rest of the school.

The seniors will celebrate Thanksgiving afternoon together with a hay ride and wicker roast at Geneva Hardesty's farm. Geneva will pick up about 30 of her classmates at 3 p.m. Thursday and take them to her house at Core Creek. After games they will feast on hot dogs. The seniors are looking forward to a wonderful time!

Happy Birthday to Faye Mason.

WCS Will Sponsor Annual Christmas Bazaar

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Ann Street Methodist Church will sponsor their annual Christmas bazaar Wednesday, Dec. 1, at the Lottie Sanders building.

Sale of handwork and baked goods will start at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and a turkey dinner will be served in the Lottie Sanders building at 6:30.

Tickets for the dinner must be purchased by this Saturday, and plates will be delivered if requested.

Cattle Hardesty Circle Meets With Mrs. Graham

The Cattle Hardesty Circle of the First Baptist Church met Thursday with Mrs. Alex Graham Jr.

Mrs. B. F. Copeland gave the program on the problems confronting missionaries and doctors in Africa.

Mrs. Graham served pecan pie and coffee.

Mrs. Holland Hostess To Bridge Club Tuesday

Mrs. J. P. Dees and Mrs. N. F. Eure were guests Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Gehrman Holland entertained her bridge club.

High score prize, a bowl of Christmas wrapping paper, was won by Mrs. James H. Potter III.

Mrs. Holland served chocolate cake and coffee.

Miss Sabra Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Noyes of Sea Level, a member of the senior class at Greenbrier College, Lewisburg, W. Va., will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Almayle Lee, a classmate, at Massies Hill, Va.

Ensign and Mrs. Thomas D. Eure of Annapolis are spending the Thanksgiving weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Eure.

Quick salad for small fry: Orange gelatin with finely grated carrots added to it. Serve on shredded lettuce with a mild-flavored salad dressing.

Miss Loughton Lists Bridal Attendants' Names

Miss Anna Lou Loughton, who will be married Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist Church to Mr. James E. Fodrie Jr., will have her sister, Miss Sheila Jane Loughton, as her maid of honor.

Mrs. Harry A. Paul of Baltimore, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Hubert Musselwhite of Greenville, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Anise Kelly of Mount Olive, roommate of the bride at East Carolina College. Bonnie Joy Willis will be flower girl.

Hubert Musselwhite of Greenville will be best man for his brother-in-law, and ushers will be Milton Loughton, George Loughton, brothers of the bride, Bert Brooks and Frank Langdale.

The Rev. W. T. Roberson, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony. Mrs. G. M. Paul and Mrs. Charles Hassell will play the organ and piano respectively and Billy Loughton of Morehead City, cousin of the bride, will be soloist.

Daniels Welcome Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lewis Daniels welcomed a daughter, Constance Susan, Monday, Nov. 22, in Morehead City Hospital. The newcomer has a six year old sister, Donna Maria. Mrs. Daniels is the former Sara Dudley of Beaufort.

An exhibit of art from this school was sent to the Greenville television station. Stephen Goodwin's drawing of an Indian tepee and Indians by a lake, was sent from this grade.

We are studying coral. Eddie Taylor gave an excellent report about coral.

On Monday the Beaufort Chapter of "The Future Teachers of America" met in the auditorium. The meeting was called to order by Martha Gibbs, president. After the minutes had been read by the secretary, Irma Cannon, new and old business was discussed.

George Bridges, parliamentarian, served as the main speaker for the meeting. In his talk he dealt with parliamentary rules and procedure. After the treasurer's report and a brief discussion of club function, the meeting was adjourned. The club meets every fourth Thursday.

Attention Parents! Report cards will be distributed Wednesday, Dec. 1.

Don't forget! The Grass Roots Opera will appear in the Beaufort Graded School on Thursday with both afternoon and evening performances. The program is being sponsored by the Beta Club and the proceeds will be used to provide a scholarship for some deserving student.
