Anna Lou Laughton, Jimmy Fodrie Married in Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Anna Lou Laughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts Laughton of Beaufort, to Mr. James Edward Fodrie Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fodrie of Beaufort, was solemnized Sunday, Nov. 28, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Baptist Church, Beaufort.

The Rev. W. T. Roberson, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with magnolia leaves and fern, with white gladioli, chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses placed in baskets in the front. White tapers in seven branched candelabra gave the only illumination.

Prior to the wedding ceremony Mrs. G. M. Paul, organist, and Mrs. Charles Hassell, pianist, gave a program of nuptial music and Billy Laughton of Morehead City, cousin of the bride, sang Because and Through the Years. As the benediction he sang The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight bridal satin. The bodice top was fashioned with an Elizabethan collar and deep yoke of imported french rosepoint lace. The gathered skirt fell into a full flowing train. Her floor length veil of silk french illusion fell from a rosepoint lace crown which was embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Sheila Jane Laughton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Harry A. Paul of Baltimore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. They wore floor length gowns of American Beauty velveteen fashioned on bouffant style, and carried white satin muffs with American Beauty roses pinned on them.

Mrs. Hubert Musselwhite of Greenville, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Anise Kelly of Mount Olive, college roommate of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the honor attendants.

Bonnie Joy Willis was flower girl. She wore a dress similar to the honor attendants' and carried a white satin basket filled with rose petals.

Hubert Musselwhite was best man for his brother-in-law, and ushers were Milton Laughton, George Laughton Jr., brothers of the bride, Bert Brooks and Frank Langdale.

Following a wedding trip, the couple returned to Beaufort before leaving for Seattle, Wash., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Laughton entertained at a cake cutting at the recreation room of the church.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Earl Taylor and ushered to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple and their parents.

Miss Jan Davis was in charge of the bride's book, Mrs. George Laughton Jr. served the punch and Mrs. Milton Laughton served the cake.

Mrs. Laughton wore a peacock blue velvet dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Fodrie wore a lavender dress with purple velvet trim and purple
