Judge Orders Ernest Mattox to Serve Two 30-Day Sentences on Streets

Ernest Mattox was sentenced to 30 days on the streets in Morehead City Recorder's Court Monday for public drunkenness and another 30-day sentence was invoked for failing to remain on good behavior as called for in a sentence March 1, 1954.

The sentences are to run consecutively.

Robert Cicero Sutton was given a suspended sentence of 90 days on the roads for careless and reckless driving. His sentence was suspended on the stipulation that he pay a $50 fine and court costs and remain on good behavior for 12 months.

D. C. Morgan was found not guilty of a charge of stealing $20 from James Youngblood.

Joseph John Violanti was taxed half costs for failing to stop for a red light and the state did not prosecute Clifton Wyatt Steed on the same charge.

Dalton Earl Whaley, James R. Hutchins and David Ernest Ward were charged with speeding. Ward forfeited his bond and Hutchins was taxed half costs. Whaley was assessed costs of court.

Thomas Brock Duckert was taxed half costs for turning left on a red light. Henry Edward Hancock Jr. and Charles C. Barnes failing to stop for a stop sign, had to pay costs.

Ira Randolph Blackwell forfeited his bond on a charge of passing at an intersection and the case against William Redman was dismissed. Redman was charged with failing to comply with a court judgment of Nev. 29.

Edgar Willis was taxed costs for public drunkenness.

Kelly Gates, charged with assault with a knife, was found not guilty. Robert Louis Brown was not prosecuted on a charge of allowing an unlicensed person to operate a car.

Harley Quillen, charged with drunken driving and failing to stop for two stop signs, was given 30 days or $125 fine and costs.

The state did not prosecute Dalton Earl Whaley on a charge of driving after his license was revoked.

Michael P. Holowiti was found not guilty of failing to stop for a stop sign.

Continued cases are: Reginald Conway, failing to yield the right of way; George Newman, having an expired operator's license; French Leon Bullington and Alex Guthrie, speeding; James Hinnant, no driver's license.

Jay Lee Jarrell, failing to comply with a court judgment; Horace Robert, failing to stop for a red light; Charles Weston, no driver's license; Cecil Claude Hill and Luke Hubert Wetherington, failing to stop for a stop sign.

place in Morehead City, and then to the road where the murder took place.

Mrs. Dolzer was driving. Sheriff Salter verified statements made by Mr. Wheatly which revealed that after turning in the road, Lewis told Mrs. Dolzer that he would have to stop seeing her because he was no longer able to "continue financially."

"I believe it involved payments on a car," Mr. Wheatly said. The sheriff nodded.

After telling her that, Lewis told officers that Mrs. Dolzer became upset and, according to Mr. Wheatly, said, "I want to get a Christmas present for you — for both of us out of the trunk of the car."

Mrs. Dolzer got out and got the gun out of the trunk. The sheriff said Lewis told him that she pointed the gun at him and said she was going to kill him and then herself. Then she changed her mind and said, "No, I'm not going to kill you, I love you too much. I'll just kill myself."

That was when Lewis tried to get the gun from her, according to Mr. Wheatly. In the ensuing tussle, the lawyer continued, Lewis either struck the hammer or the gun was discharged when it struck the car.

Mr. Wheatly asked the sheriff to describe Mrs. Dolzer. Sheriff Salter said she was about 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighed about 235 pounds.

He also told the attorney that the shell from the gun had not been found.

The six-man jury deliberated about 10 minutes and then presented their verdict to the coroner. Serving on the jury were Glen L. Harris, T. P. Allen, Fred Davis, Elmore Davis and E. W. Downum.

The coroner said Monday night that the sheriff's department had been most cooperative with him and he was deeply indebted to the officers for their services.

Dates of 'D' Students Eat Before College Party

Atlanta (AP)—Delta Tau Delta fraternity at Emory University arranged a party menu like this:

For "A" students, T-bone steaks; for the "B" brothers, roast beef; for the "C" averages, hamburgers, and for those under "C", mush.

Each brother's date got the same fare he did — and some of the girls ate before they went to the party.

Court

ed court costs for malicious and frivolous prosecution in the case of Everett Taylor who had been charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Theodore Ricks was given a suspended sentence of 30 days in jail for public drunkenness. Sentence was suspended provided he pay a $50 fine and costs.

The state did not prosecute Drexel L. Hopkins for not having a muffler on his car. Also not prosecuted was George Newman for larceny of a revolver.

Kenneth D. Albertson and Percy T. Phelps were both charged with issuing worthless checks. They were taxed costs of court and ordered to make the checks good.

Case Dismissed

The case against Eldon Littleton was dismissed. He was charged with having an expired operator's license. Donald Lee Graham had to pay costs for having an improper muffler on his car. Facing the same charge, Herman W. Schewe was given 30 days or costs of court.

Dessie Leo Jones was assessed costs for not having a driver's license.

Judge Lambert Morris left the case against Elton Smith open. He is charged with non-support.

A bench warrant was issued for the prosecuting witness in the case of Florence Brown, who was charged with assault. The prosecuting witness is charged with malicious and frivolous prosecution.

Bench warrants were also issued for James Harold Wade, peeping tom and Carl C. Goodwin, bad check.

Cases Continued

Continued cases are Ted Day bad check; Isaac Blango, following too closely; William Clifton Rose, failing to stop at a stop sign; James Taylor, disturbing the peace, being a public nuisance and resisting arrest; John Murrill Jr., drunken driving, no driver's license, careless and reckless driving; Donald E. Gillespie, drunken driving.

Robert Lee Henderson, Gladys English Walker, Willie Preston Willis, Jonathan Henry Graham, Robert Thomas Lockett, Alvah Monroe Taylor Jr., Vernon Dall Browning, Owen Guion Henderson, James E. Settle Jr., Ralph Gordon Gaskill, and Homer Hatcher, all charged with speeding.

Herman Casey, non-support; Tracy Benjamin Moore, no driver's license; Romulus Ward, drunken driving; Charles Davis, assault, using profane language in public; John Rudolph Jenkins, drunken driving; Johnnie Gray Burton, improper muffler; George Starling Pelletier, failing to stop at a stop sign; Franklin Delano Salter, failing to stop upon hearing a siren.

Executive Sets Claims Estimates

Raleigh (AP) — Fuller Glass, Durham insurance executive, has estimated that insurance claims paid for damage caused by Hurricane Hazel in North Carolina may total 50 million dollars or more.

Mr. Glass, president of Southern Fire Insurance Co. and state manager of five other companies, told Insurance Commissioner Charles F. Gold his six companies have paid 8,149 of 10,973 claims filed.

He said the claims paid amounted to $1,007,842.26 and the remaining 2,824 claims are expected to total about $600,000.

Mr. Glass said the six companies expect their losses to reach approximately $1,800,000. Since they handle less than 5 per cent of the insurance written in the area hardest hit by the October storm, Mr. Glass estimated the total loss for the state at 50 million or more. He predicted claims will total close to 200,000.

Emeritus Club Hears Manager

J. A. DuBois, manager of the Sea Level Chamber of Commerce, told of his activities at a dinner meeting of the Emeritus Club Monday night at the Sea Level Inn.

Mr. DuBois covered the period since he left Morehead City and told of his plans for the future.

The secretary, T. B. Sage, was requested to write one of the club members, Charles G. Nelson, who is ill, and extend him good wishes for the holiday season.

As favors, the Commercial National Bank gave desk calendars imprinted with the meeting night of the Emeritus Club. N. F. Eure, Beaufort, presided in the absence of the president, W. S. Kidd.
