The Rev. Albert Harris Accepts Call to First Presbyterian Church

Albert Grady Harris Jr., of Richmond, Va., has accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church, Morehead City. His duties here will begin Feb. 1.

The Rev. Mr. Harris succeeds the Rev. Priestley Conyers III who accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church at Belmont, N. C., Dec. 21.

The Rev. Mr. Harris was born in Columbus, Ga., Jan. 14, 1925, the son of the Rev. A. G. Harris, D.D., and Mrs. Eugenia Pou Harris.

His father, a native of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, is the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Macon, Ga.

His son, who is coming here, graduated from Lanier High School in Macon, Ga., in 1942 and attended Presbyterian College in Clinton, S. C., from 1942 until 1943 when he entered the Army.

Trains in Texas

He received his basic training at Camp Hood, Tex., and was in the Army Specialized Training Program at the University of Florida from 1943 to 1944.

He received advanced training with the 94th Infantry Division at Camp McCain, Miss., in 1944 and was sent to England, France and then Germany in 1944 and 1945.

He was wounded in Germany Jan. 28, 1945 and was sent to Army hospitals in England, Georgia, and Florida until 1946 when he was discharged June 6 at Augusta, Ga.

He entered Davidson College in 1946 and graduated in 1948 cum laude with a bachelor of arts degree. While there, he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa scholastic fraternity, Sigma Upsilon literary fraternity and Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

He enrolled in Columbia Theological Seminary in 1948.

The Rev. Mr. Harris married Miss Geraldine Dixon, Macon, Ga., on Sept. 6, 1950 at the First Presbyterian Church, Macon, Ga.

Native of Macon, Ga., Mrs. Harris is a native of Macon, Ga., where her father is president of the Macon Accounting Service. She graduated from Miller High School and attended Mercer University and Wesleyan College, both of Macon.

Before her marriage, she was director of Christian education in the First Presbyterian Church of Macon.

They have two children, Diana, born June 7, 1951, and Celestia, born May 26, 1953.

The Rev. Mr. Harris received a bachelor of divinity degree from Columbia Theological Seminary in 1951, cum laude.

He was on a teaching fellowship there from 1951 until 1952 and did graduate work from 1951 until 1954 when he received a master of theology degree for studies in the field of systematic theology.

Enters Seminary

He entered the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va., in 1954 and started graduate studies toward the Th. D. degree in the field of Christian ethics.

The Rev. Mr. Harris has served as pastor at the Glenhaven Presbyterian Church, Decatur, Ga., and the Salem Presbyterian Church, Lithonia, Ga.

Court

Guion Henderson, Ralph Gordon Gaskill, Emmett C. Willis, Leonard Oswald Lewis, Robert Nathan Jarvis, Elias Ellovich and John E. Nelson, all charged with speeding; Isaac Blango, improper lights; Gertrude Morse, no driver's license; Paul E. Bigess, failing to stop at a stop sign.

The state left the case against James Taylor, Sea Level, open. He is charged with disturbing the peace, being a public nuisance, and resisting arrest.

The state did not prosecute Bennie Royal Garner and Rollin J. Culbert. Garner was charged with failing to give a proper signal and Culbert faced a charge of failing to yield the right of way.

Seven Found Guilty

Seven persons were found guilty of speeding. They are Alex William Lewis, Charles R. Conklin Jr., Harry Herman Mundy, David R. Jentz, Emmett A. Sousa, Robert Thomas Lockett, and George William Salter.

The case against Christopher Thomas Salter, also charged with speeding, was left open for future prosecution.

Lockett, Sousa and Conklin had to pay court costs and Lewis was fined $25 and assessed court costs. Mundy, Jentz, and Salter were fined $10 and taxed costs of court.

The prosecuting witness was taxed costs for malicious and frivolous prosecution in the case against Jerome Williams who had been charged with cheat and fraud.

George Starling Pelletier had to pay costs for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Charged with speeding and having an insufficient muffler, Jackie Arnold Simpson was fined $25 and taxed court costs.

Matthew Mitchell Jr. was taxed costs for not having a driver's license and driving on the wrong side of the road. Albert O. Mooney, charged with allowing an unlicensed person to drive, was assessed half costs.

Eight Charged

Eight persons were charged with violating the fisheries rules and regulations of the State Department of Conservation and Development. They were Gerald Austin, Cecil Stanley, both of Beaufort, Luther Lewis, Sea Level; Abbott Salter, Samuel T. Salter, John Taylor, Spence Taylor, and James Taylor, all of Sea Level.

Abbott Salter was not prosecuted on the charge and John and Spence Taylor and Luther Lewis were found not guilty. Samuel T. Salter and James Taylor were assessed half costs. Taylor appealed his case to Superior Court and his bond was set at $50.

Austin and Stanley had to pay court costs.

Charles John Webber was taxed costs for improper use of dealer plates. Charlie Tyson was assessed court costs and ordered to make the check good after being found guilty of issuing a worthless check.

Cases Continued

Continued cases are Ted Dey, bad check; Isaac Blango, following too closely; William Clifton Rose, failing to stop at a stop sign; Fred Lee Johnson, insufficient brakes, no driver's license.

John Murrill Jr., drunken driving, no driver's license, careless and reckless driving; Robert Lee Henderson, Gladys English Walker, Willis Preston Willis, James E. Settle Jr., John Augustus Robertson Jr., Onsolee Frazier, all charged with speeding.

Donald E. Gillespie, drunken driving; Carl C. Goodwin, bad check; Robert Roy Mitchell, improper passing; Curtis Gillikin, careless and reckless driving, speeding; Frank Wesley Murray, speeding, careless and reckless driving, drunken driving; Edmund Plymouth Smith, drunken driving, possessing non-tax paid whisky.

Herman Casey, non-support; Tracey B. Moore, no driver's license; John Rudolph Jenkins, drunken driving; Simon Junior Smith, insufficient brakes, improper muffler, no rear view mirror; Calvin Hodges, assault with a car.

Abraham Williams, engaging in an affray; David E. Baxter, allowing an unlicensed person to drive; Gerald O. Impens, careless and reckless driving; Charlie Willis, failing to pay court costs; Jim Congleton and Clifton Glover, violation of fisheries regulations.

Convictions

Charged with possessing and selling tax-paid ABC whisky, Fred Arnold and G. L. Winters were given suspended sentences of six months on the roads.

Sentences Suspended

Arnold's sentence was suspended on condition that he remain on good behavior for five years and pay a $100 fine and costs. Winters' sentence was suspended on condition that he pay a fine of $100 and court costs.

In Beaufort Recorder's Court, Judge Earl Mason sentenced Mrs. Alfred Anderson to two terms of six months in Woman's Prison on two charges of possessing and selling non-taxpaid whisky. Both sentences were suspended on the stipulation that she pay two fines of $75 and costs. She appealed to Superior Court and her bond was set at $100.

Her husband, Alfred Anderson, facing the same charge, was given a sentence of six months on the roads, suspended on condition that he pay a $150 fine and costs of court. He also appealed his case to Superior Court. His bond was set at $100.

Viola Debrix also had two charges against her in the Beaufort court of possessing and selling non-taxpaid whisky. She was sentenced to Woman's Prison for six months on both charges. Her sentence will be suspended if she pays $150 in fines and costs.

In Morehead City Recorder's Court Monday afternoon, in the third of three cases tried, Andrew Bell was sentenced by Judge George McNeill to six months on the roads for possessing and selling ABC whisky on Dec. 31, 1954.

He appealed his case to Superior Court and his bond was set at $350.

In the other two cases Malcolm Reed was convicted of re-selling taxpaid whisky and Kenneth (Skin) Jones was found not guilty of selling taxpaid whisky.

The rash of arrests for violating the whisky law followed several weeks' investigations here by state agents who were called in at the request of M. M. Ayscue, county ABC officer.

Officer Ayscue said that about two months ago Beaufort town officials expressed concern to him over the amount of illegal liquor traffic they believed in progress in Beaufort. They offered to help pay for investigation if special officers were needed, but Officer Ayscue said that as far as he knew now, the cost of the investigation can be taken care of with ABC law enforcement funds.

State investigators worked in Morehead City as well as Beaufort.

Mary Johnson, charged with the same thing, was given a suspended sentence of six months in Woman's Prison. The sentence was suspended on the stipulation that she pay a $50 fine and costs.

Theodore Smith was sentenced to one year on the roads for failing to comply with the terms of a suspended sentence of Dec. 21, 1954. He was charged with possessing and selling non-taxpaid whisky. His bond was set at $200 after he appealed to Superior Court.

Firemen Attend Quarterly Session

Eight Newport firemen attended the quarterly meeting of the Eastern Carolina Firemen's Association at Washington Tuesday night.

The meeting was held in the cafeteria of the Washington High School. Each of the 300 men was served half a fried chicken. During the latter part of the meal, entertainment was provided by the "Great Tattoo, Magician," Washington High School girls served as waitresses.

Insurance Commissioner Charles Gold made the main talk. Other dignitaries included the chiefs of Charlotte, Durham, Concord, Kannapolis, Salisbury, Wilson, and many other large departments of the state.

Annual elections were held. Vernon Guthrie, Morehead City chief, received a nomination but withdrew.

Ten firemen from Morehead City and a large number from Beaufort and Cherry Point also attended.

Nor'west Winds Bring Cold Wave

A cold front whipped into the county this week on northwestern winds and it isn't scheduled to let up for several days.

Stacey Davis, weather observer, advised people to drain their cars if there is no anti-freeze in them because the thermometer is supposed to drop to a low of 28.
