Learn About Advantages of Liquid Nitrogen Fertilizer AT THE FARMER'S FIELD DAY TO BE HELD Wednesday, Feb. 2nd 10:00 A.M.

At Dixie Chemical Corporation Plant Morehead Highway — James City — New Bern

Farmers must learn to grow corn and grains cheaper in order to compete with the West. One way to do it is to get cheaper Nitrogen for their crops. Dixie Chemical Corporation will put out liquid Nitrogen for them cheaper than they can buy solid Nitrogen in the bag. Also, farmers themselves can buy the equipment and put out liquid Nitrogen at a cost equal to $2.99 per bag for soda. Come see how it works.

Miss Corella Piner Recent Bride In Pine Island Bridge, Fla.

Before an altar banked with baskets of white gladiolas, pom-poms and fern, Miss Corella Piner became the bride of Mr. Curtis W. Henderson. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles L. Miller, pastor, at 7:30 p.m., Jan. 8, in the Pine Island Baptist Church, Fort Meyers, Fla.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis K. Piner, Pine Island Bridge, Fla. She is the granddaughter of Capt. and Mrs. Albert Bloodgood, Morehead City, and Mrs. Mattie Piner and the late Major Piner, also of Morehead City. Mr. Henderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis Henderson, Tampa, Fla.

A program of pre-nuptial music was given by Mrs. John Hart, pianist and Mrs. Lawrence M. Becker was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in imported chantilly lace over bridal satin and tulle. The molded strapless bodice was covered with a tight fitting matching lace jacket, trimmed in satin. The long sleeves ended with calla lily points at the wrists, which were fastened with tiny satin buttons. Matching satin buttons extended down the back to the waist. Billowing tiers of lace formed the waltz length skirt.

Her waist circular veil of imported French illusion was attached to a cap of matching lace, with ruffles of tulle and beaded pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple throated orchid and tuberoses with satin streamers tied in lover's knots.

Mrs. Bruce Scott was matron of honor. She wore a strapless waltz length gown of lime green nylon net over taffeta, with a matching taffeta jacket. Her headpiece was a crushed band of net interspersed with tiny flowers. She carried a nosegay bouquet of deep pink carnations showered with green satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Effie Henderson, Tampa, Fla., sister of the groom. She was attired in a strapless waltz length frock of yellow nylon lace and net. The dress was styled with a lace jacket and circular net skirt with lace inserts on the front of the skirt. She carried a nosegay bouquet of deep pink carnations showered with yellow satin streamers.

Mr. Eugene Henderson, Arcadia, Fla., cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Jesse Padilla, Mr. Floyd Levens Jr., Mr. John Uhlar and Mr. Frank Hughes, all of Fort Meyers, Fla.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Piner selected a street length gown of tulle and moire taffeta. She wore a pink velvet flowered hat with matching opera length gloves. Her other accessories were navy blue and her corsage was white feathered carnations.

Mrs. Henderson, mother of the groom, chose a street length frock of dark orchid ribbon nylon. She wore a navy hat and gloves with matching accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Charles L. Miller, Pine Springs, Fla.

For going away the bride wore a pink linen dress trimmed in pink satin, and a fitted matching jacket. She wore a blue velvet hat, blue accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from Fort Meyers Senior High School in 1953. She attended the St. Louis Institute of Music and Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C. Mr. Henderson attended Fort Meyers Senior High School and is employed as a surveyor with the State Road Department in Bartow, Fla.
