

Identical 5-0 Scores Give Williamston Eastern Championship from Morehead

Top Polo Players To Teach Youths

Palm Beach, Fla. (AP)—Stephen (Laddie) Sanford, one of polo's biggest boosters, has started a youth fund with the idea of turning out polo players.

Sanford says Stewart Iglehart and Cecil Smith, both of whom are top ranked 10 goal players, will teach polo to youngsters who show an interest in the game. Eight goalers Mike Phipps and George Oliver also will lend a hand.

When the Palm Beach Polo Club closes for the season, lessons probably will be continued on the new fields of the Meadow Brook Club at Jericho, N. Y.

Frank Selvy of the Baltimore Bullets was the first player to score 200 points in the N.B.A. this season.

Surveying the Scene

with Hal Shapiro

Morehead City's chances for the State Class A title in baseball looked mighty dim following Friday's first of a two-of-three series against Williamston, won by the visitors 5-0.

The big man for the Williamston nine, their pitcher James (Goose) Perry, was everything that was said of him and then a little bit more. He hurled a one-hitter and made two hits himself, the first of his hits driving in the run that put his team in the lead and just about gave them the game.

This Perry boy can throw that ball with something on it every time. In the Friday afternoon encounter everyone in the crowd of 200 was amazed at the control of this high school hurler. Goose had the ball over the plate all afternoon, throwing up fast balls and a wide assortment of curves.

His incurve to righthanded batters was something to behold. The ball would seem to be going away from the man at bat and then suddenly reverse its course and come busting in over the inside corner.

He struck out seven men and walked but one, but it was his ability to get the ball over even with men on base that had everyone shouting his praises after the game was over.

Perry would look over at first to keep the baserunner from getting a jump on him, and without seemingly looking at the batter at the plate, bust the ball over the middle of the plate.

This boy could certainly go a long way in professional baseball since he looks and plays like a natural.

He's 6' 4", and like Ewell Blackwell who used to pitch in the major leagues, is a long lean boy, weighing in at no more than 160 pounds.

Major league scouts are reportedly hot on his trail right now and it could be that either Harry Postove of the Chicago White Sox or Tim Murchison of the New York Giants may have the inside track with him.

The Eagles just couldn't seem to get themselves untracked against the elongated righthander and he had them biting at some mighty wicked hooks.

It was a tough break in the sixth when Larkee was on first by virtue of a Williamston boot and McIntosh lined what looked like a sure hit towards the rightfield corner. Suffice to say the first baseman snagged the ball on the fly and stepped on first for an easy twin-killing.

Jimmy Willis made the only safety for the Eagles on a liner into right, and Jimmy said that he hit the ball on the end of the bat, since it was mighty difficult to get around on the hooks and fastball of Perry.

James (Goose) Perry was just too much pitcher for the Morehead City Eagles Friday afternoon, at the Wade Brothers ball field, and the Eagles lost their first of a two-of-three series, 5-0.

Perry, in winning his 11th game as against but one loss, allowed the Eagles only one safety over the seven-inning route, striking out seven and walking one.

His mound opponent, Jerry Pittman, pitched excellent ball, and though he couldn't have won the game in view of Perry's performance, the score certainly should have been much closer than it was.

Jerry allowed nine well scattered hits, struck out two and walked three.

Four Morehead City errors made the job of their pitcher that much more difficult.

Williamston started the scoring parade in the third inning when they tallied three runs.

B. Hardison walks

Bobby Hardison led off the inning with a walk, and Billy Mobley popped out to third on an attempted sacrifice. Gerald Griffin singled to right, moving B. Hardison to second.

Willie Hardison hit one to Bradley McIntosh at short and McIntosh threw to third in time for the force on B. Hardison going from second to third. Griffin took second and W. Hardison first on the play. James Perry lined a double inside the third base line to score Griffin, with W. Hardison taking third.

Gaylord Perry hit a grounder right through the Morehead City shortstop and both baserunners scored on the error.

Williamston Scores Again

In the fourth the Williamston nine tallied another unearned run. Tommy Harris led off with a walk and stole second. On Jimmy Rogers' grounder to third Harris tried to move up and was tagged out, and Rogers was safe at first on a fielders choice.

Bobby Hardison was safe on an error which moved Rogers to second. Rogers scored the fourth Williamston tally on a single to right by Billy Mobley, with Hardison going to third. Gerald Griffin flied out to Kemp Wickizer in left and when B. Hardison tried to score after the catch he was doubled up at the plate.

The final tally for the visitors came in the seventh inning and was caused by Pittman's own wildness after two were out.

Walk Helps

Zack Gurkin singled to left, and after having a no balls-two strike count on Tommy Harris, Pittman threw four straight balls to walk him. Gurkin tallied from second on a single to center by Jimmy Rogers.

A chance for the Eagles came in the sixth when Norm Larkee led off the frame and was safe on an error. Bradley McIntosh lined one that seemed ticketed for the rightfield corner only to have first sacker Tommy Harris nab the liner and step on first for an unassisted doubleplay that choked off all attempts at a rally.

Leading batsmen for Williamston were Billy Mobley, 3-4, James Perry, 2-4, and Bobby Hardison, 1-3.

Jimmy Willis made the lone safety for the Eagles and 1-2 for the afternoon.

In the second contest Clayburn Murphy was the winner for the Smyrna-HI team, with the loss going to Earl Merton. Relieving Mur-

Pilots Feed Wild Game from Air

Phillipsburg, Pa. (AP)—Seven years ago George Narehood, an avid sportsman, thought it might be a good idea to feed turkeys from the air.

Narehood, who piloted his own plane, noted that it was a simple thing to load a couple of bags of corn in his craft and drop it in the rugged mountain areas where wild turkey flocks roamed.

Other sportsmen noted the effectiveness of feeding game this way and they formed an organization now known as the Aero Game Feeding Club.

Last winter on one day alone more than 30 tons of corn were on hand for the club to drop to turkeys, deer and other wild game. Augmenting the small private planes of sportsmen were huge transport craft from the U.S. Naval Air station at Akron, Ohio and the Pennsylvania Air National Guard.
