Prayer Group to Have Speaker Fridays; Juniors Reach Sales Goal

By SHIRLEY PINER

Hi Folks! It's Chalk Dust time again, and we're full of good news for everyone.

The Prayer Group has begun a good year with a record of three speakers thus far. They plan to have a speaker every Friday. They are organizing a Prayer Group Choral Club to help the school in the presentation of its programs. Their project for the year is the purchasing of new song books.

Beginning the year with a rather unorganized group, the Betas seem to be slowly progressing. As money-making projects they have decided to sell Christmas cards, wrapping paper, and ribbon. Also they are again hoping to have some good sales on hosiery, as in the previous years.

They are now mainly interested in having an exceptional installation program for the new members so they may learn more about the organization. Every member is interested and willing to strive to make this year surpass all others in Beta activities.

The Monogram Club also has big plans for the year. The club held its first meeting Monday and these are the projects it will undertake for the year! Necessary funds for decoration of the goal posts will be donated by the club, they will write letters to the visiting team, offering any service that may be needed, and the big project will be to sell the school emblem. The profit from this sale will be used to build much needed trophy cases.

Mr. Traphagen has certainly been good to us this year. Why, he even had a dancing room built for us—terrace and all—and is going to get us a soft-drink box. This will be placed on the terrace so that bottles will not clutter the dancing space. In case some of you are wondering where this room is and how it looks, we will try to tell you. It's the nearest room to the highway in the new primary building.

The lights are very easy to adjust and the floor is simply wonderful. We had our first dance there Wednesday night. Everyone had a marvelous time. Even Mr. Jones, our band director, was giving free "hop" lessons.

We are the "proudest" of this building. Now we will have a place for all our after-ball game dances. To all students we say, "Please come, and join the fun!"

What was once a rumor is now a fact. Yes, a fence has been erected around the southeast side of the building, from the railroad tracks almost to the spotlight. Also rumored is that our fence will be electrically charged. Of course this is just a laugh! The students say that this new addition is just a reminder that the rule around here is discipline. Inquiries are even being made about the green and white striped outfits. Of course, the real reason for the fence is for the safety of all.

The seniors are really having a ball—annual pictures, getting used to the privileges—and of course, our much looked forward-to football games.

Sylvia Harrell and Joyce Chadwick spent the weekend at State, attended the game and took advantage of all the goings on The Big Weekend had to offer. (Consolidated University Weekend you know). They got a little wet during the game, but the fact that Carolina won and then all of the other things that make girls enjoy a weekend at college, made it all perfect.

The cheerleaders are busy beavers this year. They are not only getting new cheers out of books, but are making some up themselves. We are sure that they will be in good cheering voice tonight!

Orchids to the Juniors, who have really set a record at Beaufort High. This is the first class that has reached its goal in magazine sales. Selling $1,050.00 worth, with Winkie Willis top salesman who sold $107.25, they have surpassed their quota. We are all real proud of them and know that they will always succeed in everything.

The Beaufort FHA chapter chartered a bus with the Newport, Smyrna and Morehead chapters, to the District II Rally held at Rock Ridge High School Saturday.

Beaufort members attending included Joyce Hill, Frances Bell, Julia Owens, Diana Garner, Bunny Moore, Nancy Longest, Barbara Fulcher, Mary Lou Temple, Annie Fay Taylor, Jackie Young, Paula Hill, Frances Willis and Nancy Mason.

Carteret members appearing on the program were Jennie White from the Morehead chapter who thanked the hostess. The Beaufort chapter gave a skit on Drag—Ten Ways to Kill a Chapter.

The girls participating in this skit were Frances Bell, Jackie Young, Nancy Mason, Diana Garner, Frances Willis, Bunny Moore, Nancy Longest, Joyce Hill, Mary Lou Temple, Barbara Fulcher, Annie Fay Taylor, Paula Hill.

The executive staff met Monday and planned the program for the year. The program includes the furthering of fields in home economics.—Reporter Frances Willis.

Mrs. Day's 5th grade gave their chapel program Wednesday.

They gave the following program: choral reading, 121st Psalm and Lord's Prayer by the class; songs, America, Animal Fair, Poem, Autumn by Shirley Courtney, Norma Merrill, Shirley Hill. Piano solo, Scarf Dance, Sanford Boswell; health play, Dr. Boswell's Busy Day.

The characters were doctor, Sanford Boswell; nurses, Norma Merrill, Ann Fulcher; father, Kenneth Baum; son with sprained arm, Mahlon Williams; patient with bad eyes, Jonathon Whitehurst; father, Daniel Nelson; son

Murphy-Hill Wedding Rites Held In Stacy Free Will Baptist Church

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Ann Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hill of Stacy, to Mr. Clayburn Bernell Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wardie Murphy of Stacy, was solemnized Friday, Sept. 30, at 7 o'clock in the evening in St. John's Free Will Baptist Church, Stacy.

The Rev. L. A. Lewis, pastor of the Atlantic Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladiolus with a background of pine.

Prior to the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Henry Murphy of Stacy, organist, gave a program of nuptial music and Mrs. Grady Fulcher of Elizabeth City, soloist, sang Always and the Sweetest Story Ever Told.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon chantilly lace over satin. Her long-sleeved bodice featured a high neckline with peler pan collar. The bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel train.

Her two tiered finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations showered with stephanotis and centered with a purple-throated white orchid.

Mrs. Carl Bullock of Havelock, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of blue lace and net over taffeta fashioned with bouffant skirt, matching mitts and a matching bandeau in her hair. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mrs. Rodney Taylor of Atlantic, cousin of the bride, and Miss Wanda Brown of Stacy were bridesmaids. They wore blue gowns similar to the honor attendants and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Janet Hill, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue dress and a bandeau of white flowers in her hair and carried a white ribboned basket of flower petals.

Kay Bullock was ring bearer. She wore a white gown and a bandeau of white flowers in her hair and carried the rings on a heart-shaped pillow.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Glenda Willis, Miss Phyllis Gaskill, Miss Joyce Fulcher, all of Stacy, Miss Diane Daniels of Atlantic and Miss Catherine Taylor of Sea Level.

Leton Alligood of Stacy was best man for Mr. Murphy and ushers were Alton Paul and Weston E. Willis, both of Stacy.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Gaskill, to honor the bridal couple.

Mrs. Alfred Gaskill, cousin of the bride, greeted the guests at the door and ushered them to the receiving line which was composed of the bridal party.

Miss Myrtle Willis was in charge of the bride's book, Mrs. Monnie Fulcher, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the gift room, and Mrs. Gerald Fulcher of Atlantic and Mrs. David McCain of Newport, aunts of the bride, served the cake and punch.

Mrs. Hill wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations for her daughter's wedding.

Before leaving on a wedding trip to the northeastern part of the state the bride changed into a rose satin dress with black accessories. She lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet for a corsage.

They will be at home at Stacy.
