School Plugs March of Dimes, Asks Town Residents to Dig Deep

By SHIRLEY PINER
Howdy-do folks! Chalk Dust has more news from Beaufort High, so let's begin!

The "March of Dimes" began in our school Monday and the response has been wonderful. It seems that all students, big and little, have taken this drive to heart, and are really digging deep in their pockets. We urge you, the citizens of our town to help us all you can to make our drive successful.

Often we neglect to give because polio has never struck us or our family. But who knows, tomorrow the donation that you gave may save your life or someone dear to you. Dig Deep.

The annual staff is still busy at work, but much is still to be done. Clyda Taylor, literary editor, has been busy writing the prose and collecting statistics for the annual; and Joyce Chadwick, business manager, reported that almost all the ads had been collected.

The typists for the annual have also been busy filling our necessary information. All in all we're sure that our efforts will be repaid with the best annual yet.

Brrrrr! What a cold time it has been in Beaufort School! Honestly, we felt like Eskimos. Everyone kept their coats and gloves on and I betcha that some people were trying to see who could blow the biggest smoke ring. It's not that our heating system is "wacky"—it's just that our building is kinda drafty!

What a gloomy bunch of girls it was Friday night after the big defeat. But we congratulate Smyrna for the marvelous performance. You have to win some and lose some—but gosh we surely did want to win that one.

Tuesday night was probably one of the "excitingest" games of the season. Wonder who won. Chalk Dust hopes that it will have been a clean game and that the spectators as well as the players showed good sportsmanship. We thank Morehead for their hospitality and are looking forward to playing them in our gym.

Friday night our teams will play host to Newport. This should be a thriller and we urge all of you to come out to the gym and support your teams.

The Beaufort girls team would like to thank all of you for purchasing season tickets and the donations that have made it possible for us to purchase new uniforms. We are expecting the uniforms at a very near date and we know that you are looking forward to seeing them as much as we are.

The Senior English class completed their Macbeth course by listening to the records of Macbeth as portrayed by Maurice Evans, and Lady Macbeth, Judith Anderson. These records were so good that you could actually see the faces and feel the tauntness in their room as plot followed plot. It was a perfect way to end our study of Macbeth.

Talking about exams, the seniors are just waiting for those glorious words "YOU'RE EXEMPTED!" All seniors who have a ninety or above average on each subject plus an A average on conduct will not have to take that exam. All of us seniors think that this is the nicest thing about being a senior. If you have an A average on all subjects and "keep your mouth closed," no exams! What could be better?

The athletic letters for football will be given out today and a list of boys receiving letters will be in next week's paper.

We are proud of our Junior Varsity teams coached by Frank Jordan and managed by Lib Stallings. Here are the two teams. Girls forwards: Elizabeth Edwards, Nancy Mason, Linda Salter, Bobbi Bodiford, Glenda Harris, Paula Hill, Sandra Haskins, Gail Cockroft, Bunny Moore, Judy Moore, Virginia Arthur, Sue Dixon, and Helen Mason.

Guards, Patsy Whitehurst, Diane Garner, Virginia Robinson, Gertrude Powell, Sue Webb, Sarah Roarty and Mary Sue Moore.

Boys team, Sandy Arthur, Frank Potter, Sammy Merrill, Larry Dudley, Leon Thomas, Kit Jones, Allen Autry, Bobby Willis, David Perry, Clayton Hunnings, Walter Phillips, Billy Hardy, Fred Mason and Bruce Dudley.

Meet Miss Senior
Meet one of our high-stepping majorettes, Sylvia Harrell. Sylvia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Harrell, was born on Sept. 14, 1938. She said that steak is her favorite dish and English and math were her favorite subjects.

Sylvia enjoys all sports but basketball is her favorite one. She has always enjoyed those summers at the beach, even when a little girl. She was voted best dressed and most popular by her classmates. Sylvia plans to enroll at Woman's College this fall.

Meet Mr. Senior
Meet the neatest, best dressed and biggest flirt of the senior class, Bobby Griffin. Bobby, born on March 3, 1937 to Mr. Z. L. Griffin and the late Mrs. Griffin, said that spaghetti is his favorite food and physics his favorite subject.

Bobby also enjoys watching and playing basketball. When Bobby was in the sixth grade he had a most severe case of tetanus and he said that he's thankful to be here. Bobby plans to make the Air Force his career.

Chalk Dust will be with you again next week with more news from Beaufort High.

Episcopal Women Give Money for Children

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal Church voted Monday night to give $10 to the Beaufort School to be used as lunch money for a needy child, and to send $25 to the Christian Children's Fund.

The children's fund is used by an international, interdenominational missionary association administering to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of children of all races and creeds. They assist 17,000 children in 28 countries.

Mrs. Edmond T. Nelson, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Joseph House gave the devotional and Mrs. Cecil Brooks read letters of thanks from the children at the Thompson Orphanage who had received Christmas presents from the auxiliary.

Mrs. G. B. Talbot gave the program and showed colored slides of the triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at the General Convention in Honolulu in 1955.
