Morehead City

Shot Insulators

Cause Outtage

to Atlantic.

Carolina Power and Light Co.

stood on the highway near the bridge at the entrance to Davis and shot out the insulators.

Struck by School

7-Year-Old Girl

Morehead Board Will Set

J. E. Crowe Acts As Toastmaster At Charter Night

85 Attend Down East Lions Program Saturday Night At Sea Level Inn

James Crowe of the Morehead City Lions Club acted as toast-master at the charter night cere-monies of the Down East Lions Club Saturday night at the Sea Level Inn.

Charter night, sponsored by the Morehead City club, was attended by 85 persons. Mrs. David Battle Webb, Morehead City, won the door prize, boudoir lamps.

W. Roy Poole, district governor, District 31-E, presented the charter and Jack W. Johnson, president of the Down East Club, accepted the charter on behalf of his organization.

Presentation of the bell and gavel was made by Owens Fred-erick, Morehead City, zone chairman of region 3, zone 2

Welcomes Guests

Welcoming the guests, who in-cluded members of Lions Clubs from Morehead City, New Bern, Kinston, Carolina Beach, Wrightsville Beach and Mount Airy, was Clayton Fulcher Jr., Atlantic.

The invocation was given by the John Privott, Atlantic tist Church, and greetings from the sponsoring club were given by A. N. Willis, president of the Morehead City Club. J. G. Bennett Sr., Morehead City, led the sing-

Charter members of the organization are Roy H. Willis, Preston Williamson, Henry M. Goodwin, Wayne W. Parker, Donald M. Clarke, Alridge Daniels, Clayton Fulcher Jr., Harry Fulcher, Ralph G. Gaskill, John C. Hamilton, Jack

Joe Mason Jr., Charles G. Mor-ris, the Rev. Mr. Privott, Ervin Gary Morris, Eldred G. Taylor, Robert B. Whitley, Doity Gaskill, William Gorges, Grover Willis, James Paul Lewis, Meredith Gil-likin, Donza Lee Morris, Maxwell Simpson and Wilbur Goodwin.

Meeting Place Changed In the future the club will mee the second and fourth Monday of every month at 7 p.m. at the Atlantic School cafeteria. Officers of the Down East Lions are Jack W. Johnson, president; Joe Mason Jr., first vice-president; Harry B. Fulcher, second vice-president; Aldridge Daniels, third vicepresident; Eldred G. Taylor, sec

Ralph G. Gaskill, Lion tamer; Charles G. Morris, tail twister, and John C. Hamilton, Donald M.

News in Nutshell

INTERNATIONAL

FORMOSA continues to be the barrier to peace in the Far East. The United States and China have gotten nowhere in negotiations to story got Secretary of State Dulles into a peck of trouble. The story said Dulles pulled U.S. back e brink of war three times

IF THE PRESIDENT of the United States becomes ill, a lot of questions are raised which are not specifically answered in the constitution. A House judiciary committee has made an inquiry into the matter and its findings are to be published in about two weeks.

CONGRESSMAN BONNER, North Carolina, has joined the investiga-tions parade. He is investigating the government's giving oil and gas leases on wildlife refuges.

GOV. LUTHER HODGES, speaking before the state's newspaper editors Thursday night at Chapel Hill, called on editors throughout the state to recognize the danger to the North Carolina coast caused by hurricanes. He said erosion of the outer banks could change com-plexion of the state's economy.

CONGRESSMAN GRAHAM Barden reports that the Department of Defense has requested for construction turbo-jet engine testing plant at Cherry Point. The request is for the fiscal year 1957.

Death Rides Again

In the top picture is the car in which Jamie Norris, Beaufort High School senior, was fatally injured Tuesday night. The driver of the car, Glenn Smith, Beaufort, was discharged from Morehead City Hospital Thursday. The inquest on the death will take place at 7:30 tonight at the courthouse, Beaufort. In the lower picture is the car in which Charles Ross, Cherry Point Marine, was fatally injured last Mon-day night. Looking at the wreckage in each picture is Gerry Minor of Parker Motors body shop.

Mrs. Eunice Paul Presents Historical Paper Saturday

By F. C. SALISBURY

The quarterly meeting of the Carteret County Historical Society was held Saturday afternoon at the civic center, Morehead City. Clarke, Clayton Fulcher Jr. and President Thomas Respess pre-Gary M. Morris, directors. sided. Increased interest in the society was shown by a large attendance of members and a number of interested guests.

Mrs. Eunice Paul of Sea Level presented a paper on the early his-tory of that settlement. Her research, which showed considerable work, covered the establishing of churches, schools and postoffice, as well as making mention of many lift the danger of war. Each dis- prominent persons who were born agrees over who possesses the Formosan home of Chiang Kai-Shek.

sentative D. G. Bell to attend the April meeting of the society and explain the five-year plan of the state for the upkeep of the state. parks. The state parks superintendent has been notified by letter of the museum and rusting condi-tion of the iron work at Fort Macon. The letter was written by Bell's Funeral Home $10; Mar-the historical society. The superingaret S. Price $5; Carolina Teletendent suggested making an ap-peal to the legislature for more funds for upkeep of state parks. Fuel Terminals $25; Mrs. Charles ical interest, to be followed up by A suggestion was made that the Onslow County Historical Society be invited to meet with the society in a get-together affair at Barkers Island during the summer months.

Time and place for the April meeting was left open for future grees on Thursday and Friday

Men's Club to Hear

Talk by Engineer Tonight Jennings Teal, Tarboro, build-ing and equipment engineer, Caro-lina Telephone and Telegraph Co.,

Totals $2,325.81

Miss Alida Willis, director of the March of Dimes campaign, an-nounces that a total of $2,325.81 was collected as of yesterday af ternoon.

The peanuts for polio sale in Morehead City netted $86 and in Beaufort $85.21.

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Franklin Memorial Church acted as salesmen in More-

IN INDIA rioting continues. The strikes and bloodshed started in protest over Prime Minister Nehru's decisions to divide the city of Bombay into three parts.

NATIONAL

LIFE EDITOR Henry R. Luce has expressed his regret over the "brink of war" headlines and story got Secretary of State

NEW Consisting of Mrs. A committee, consisting of Mrs. Nat Smith, Mrs. J. D. Rumley and L. B. Ennett, was appointed to make a genealogical study of old family lines in the county, covering those of early settlers.

A program committee w as a manufacture was a manu

A talent show for polio will be held over WMBL on Sunday. Individual contributions, as fol-lows, total $120; Capt. Bill's Waterfront Restaurant $10; A. F. Bryan, $5; Myrtle L. Duncan $2; garet S. Price $5; Carolina Tele-phone and Telegraph Co. $18.

John L. Crump $25; Aviation Short discussions took place on V. Webb $5; Theodore M. Miller various subjects of county histor$5; and Concordia Lodge No. 11,

Mercury Rises

The temperature rose to 57 degrees on Thursday and Friday and a low of 30 degrees was recorded Robert Lewis, route 1 Newpor will speak on the subject, Ocracoke Moves Inland, at the meeting of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Men's Club tonight.

The talk will follow dinner at the Blue Ribbon Club at 7 p.m.

In Telephone and Telegraph Co., and the wind directions for the passengers riding with him, all passengers riding with him, all Taylors from Broad Creek, were 7:01 a.m.

Thursday 57 33 SE cut and bruised.

Lewis was cut and pruised and basengers riding with him, all Taylors from Broad Creek, were 7:01 a.m.

Thursday 57 33 SE cut and bruised and basengers riding with him, all Taylors from Broad Creek, were 7:03 p.m.

Thursday 57 33 SE cut and bruised and basengers riding with him, all Taylors from Broad Creek, were 7:03 p.m.

Thursday 57 33 SE cut and bruised and basengers riding with him, all Taylors from Broad Creek, were 7:01 a.m.

The talk will follow dinner at the Blue Ribbon Club at 7 p.m.

o'clock Friday afternoon in Core Creek Methodist Church. Pallbearers were members of the Beaufort basketball team.

open now, announces B. J. May, ASC manager. Farmers interested should sign up, he said.

the gypsum program.
Mr. May estimates that 150 farmers have had salt tests made on

Driver Cited on Drunk

Funeral services for Jamie Nor ris, above, were conducted at 3

It was voted to invite Representative D. G. Bell to attend the toril meeting of the society and containing of the society and tall of $409.85

The ACP program for 1956 is Gypsum is still being offered to those farmers who have salty soil.

Soil tests can be had free. Farmers who want assistance in this line

Beaufort at the should contact the ASC office.

Eight carloads, or 320 tons of gypsum have already been delivered to this county and spread. One carload of lime, 45 tons, has also been received in connection with a low of 30 degrees was recorded Sunday, according to E. Stamey Davis, weather observer.

Tide Table Tides at the Beaufort Bar

A total of .37 inches of rain fell Sunday on the Nine-Foot Road.

State Highway Patroiman W. E. 5:37 p.m.

State Highway Patroiman W. E. 5:37 p.m. most of yesterday.

The high and low temperatures and the wind directions for the Lewis was cut and bruised and the week are a few temperatures. Lewis was cut and bruised and 6:37 p.m.

SE cut and bruised.

S Lewis was headed south when NE the accident happened. Damage to SE the pickup was estimated at $200, 8:21 p.m.

uniform inspections, given help in charter renewals, presented charters, and given leadership to outstanding courts of honor. "Mr. Davis served as the 1955 council deputy camporee chief, and remained at his post at the Officer Gives Award Mr. Davis was presented his award by Ralph Morris, New Bern, vice-president of the council.

Dr. John D. Messick, Greenville, president of the council, gave a happened, did everything in the report of highlights of 1935 activ- world I could have expected of ities and the keynote challenge him.'
for the new national four-year Ma

Ethan Davis, Morehead City, was recipient of the Compass

Award at the annual recognition banquet Wednesday night at Kinston. The special East Carolina Boy Scout Council honor is given to men who have "shown the way in 1955." The banquet was held at the Fairfield Recreation Center.

Mr. Davis, who has been working as a Boy Scout leader for eight years, was presented with a certi-ficate with the following inscrip-

Citation Inscribed

in 1955 with unusual success in serving as the district commissioner of the Carteret district. He has faithfully kept in touch with all of the units in the district and knows personally every unit leader of the professional staff man serv ing his district, he kept the unit leadership informed of all council and district policies and activities.

"Mr. Davis was particularly helpful in orienting his new district executive, bringing him up to date on the status of each unit and putting him in touch with many of the district personnel.

"He has faithfully conducted

During the period of transition and the majority of each unit

ommittee

"Mr. Davis has shown the way program, Onward for God and My Also attending the meeting from this county were R. B. Howard and Kenneth Wagner, Morehead City, and James Crowe, Beaufort.

Parked Car Hit Saturday By Unidentified Vehicle

A car owned by Murphy Dise, 1008 Bay St., Morehead City, was reported struck by another vehicle

Saturday.
Dise told Sgt. Joe Smith that his car was parked at 10th and their horns. The bus was headed Bay Streets and that it was struck west. by an unknown vehicle. Damages were estimated at $200.

has always been interested in sing-back to live in Beaufort in 1948.

He teaches the Van Potter Sunday

School class at Ann Street Meth-

He was born in Phillipsburg, by the grasshopper scourge, Van's father moved his family back to

Tuesday, Jan. 24

m. 11:41 a.m. m. 11:47 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 25

12:36 p.m.

12:45 a.m.

1:30 p.m.

Van

odist Church.

age of 2. His fa-first warden of the Episcopal fort. When the farm in Kansas

was wiped out

Beaufort.

In the Spotlight

lieves the wheel may have run over her foot. It is badly bruised and Marie uses it, but limps. She stayed home from school yester day because she had a reaction

Marie said the bumper and front wheel hit her. Mrs. Mitchell be-from a tetanus shot. She was taken to the Morehead City Hospital by her mother after Dunn had taken her into the house X-rays were taken and the report of the bus, it ran over her.

on them was expected yesterday When Sarah and Billy saw the bus start out while Marie was in State Highway Patrolman W. J. Smith Jr. investigated.

Found Joy in Life Through Music

High School and was awarded a scholarship to George Washington University, where he graduated in Between his second and third

Sails Home

Washington.

Aside Funds for Armory Ethan Davis Wins Scout meeting Thursday night to include in the next budget money for starting an armory fund. No figure was set. That will be determined by the Award at Council Dinner amount of money available. The action followed a report by Mayor George Dill on an interview he had with John amount of money available. The action followed a report H. Manning, adjutant general for North Carolina.

The officer suggested that Morehead City have funds set aside an-nually. Then when the time comes for an armory to be built in More-head City, the local funds required will be available.

Letter Read

is investigating the shooting of six insulators Thursday, which An application for the position caused an outtage from 2:53 to of solicitor for the court was sub-mitted by C. N. Stroud, Morehead City. The commissioners, upon hearing Mr. Stroud's letter, said they would consider him for the position when the present solicitor, Alvah Hamilton, feels he can no 7:15 p.m. Thursday from Smyrna The outtage also caused a flickering of lights as far west as Beaufort in the afternoon. George Stovall, manager of the CP&L at Morehead City, said Alvah Hamilton, feels he can no that the company has a lead as to identity of the vandal who onger fill the position.

A three-part resolution making all tap fees for connections to main sewer lines from 24th Street west to the city limits $100 per lot and rom 24th Street east to city limits $50 per lot, effective immediately was passed.

The resolution stated that the difference in rates is necessary be-cause of the increased cost of layng additions to the sewer system from 24th Street west. Prior resolutions relative to tap fees were Bus on Causeway of the overall resolution, the state-Marie Mitchell, 7-year-old daugh-Drive section be approved as proer of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mitchell, posed. Property owners will pay Beaufort-Morehead City causeway. $100 per lot for connections, with traffic in and around the city of is recovering from injuries rethe town to assume the balance of New Bern."

crived Friday afternoon when she was struck by a school bus.

Marie, a pupil in the first grade states that all further requests for at Beaufort School, got out of the sewer extensions anywhere in the bus across the highway from her city limits after Jan. 19, 1956, shall home with her brother, Billy, and be separately considered, and shall and remained at his post at the home with her brother, Billy, and be separately considered, and shall registration desk far into the nights of the camporee. His devotion to duty did much to guarantee the success of the camporee."

Another child, Sarah Gary. Billy not be undertaken until a fair proportionate part of the total cost way, but Marie was a bit slow and as she started to cross in front owners affected.

This respectively considered, and shall not be undertaken until a fair proportionate part of the total cost will be a separately considered, and shall be undertaken until a fair proportionate part of the total cost will be a separately considered.

owners affected.

This proportionate cost will be a minimum of $100 per lot or the The driver was a student, Julius Dunn. Mrs. Mitchell, Marie's moactual material and extra labor cost to the town, whichever is the ther, said the driver was deeply concerned "and after the accident larger amount. commissioners also are re quiring property owners who fill in vaterfront lots to replace or repair lines they may damage or extend the lines at their own expense. Everett Spikes, North Carolina Equipment Co., Raleigh, distribu-

See BOARD, Page 2

State Official

Favors New Road General Griffin Calls Forest Highway 'Only All Land Escape Route'

Gen. Edward F. Griffin, state Civil Defense director, said this week he is heartily in favor of the proposed road through Croatan National Forest, connecting Havelock and Pollocksville.

General Griffin, in a letter to Miss Ruth Peeling, county Civil Defense director, said, "I am very much in favor of the construction of a highway leading from Have-lock through the Croatan Forest to connect with State Highway No. 12 which leads into Trenton and Kinston.

"It seems to me that this is the only all land 'escape route' for the Carteret County area. This pro-posed road would shorten the distance to Morehead City from the interior and would avoid the heavy General Griffin also offered to join any delegation from this county who may appear before the Highway Commission to request construction of the propose highway His letter was in answer to a letter from Miss Peeling Jan. 7, asking his endorsement of the pro-

Building of the road is being promoted by N. L. Walker, Beau-

NCFA to Meet

The North Carolina Fisheries Association will meet at 6 p.m. next Monday at the Knotty Pine Inn, Washington, N. C. Officers and di-rectors for 1956 will be elected. Earl Holton, Vandemere, president, will preside.

County Council Plans April Meeting of District Here

Committees for the district Home | the following: Crab Point Club, when Sarah and Billy saw the bus start out while Marie was in front of it, they shouted and other motorists on the highway blew their horns. The bus was headed twest.

Committees for the district follows:

Committees for t John Kelly, chairman; and Bettie fort.

Clubs serving as committees are Club registration, Mrs. Dyon Simpson, chairman.

Mrs. Gordon Laughton, who is in charge of finding a place for the luncheon gave her report. The place will be announced.

Van Potter, Retired Bank Employee, Because the council treasury needs money, it was decided to ask each club to raise $10. Payment of the money is not compulsory, but Mrs. Floy Garner, home agent, reported that $80 lent the council by the Curb Market has not yet been repaid.

The council will also need ad-

The council will also need additional funds to finance the meeting of the federation

Mrs. R. L. Searle, Home Demonstration citizenship leader, explained the savings bond contest for Home Demonstration Club members. Savings bonds are given as prizes.

Mrs. G. T. Spivey, county Home Demonstration health and safety chairman, gave a report on the teaching safety in the ome. Mrs. Josephine McCa the treasurer's report in the aburer.

The meeting opened with the club collect. Mrs. Monroe White-While he was teaching there, the hurst, newly-elected council pres ident, presided. Being forever musically minded, he left Oklahoma after a year and R. P. Gooding, Mrs. Paul Beachem, Mrs Gerry Thomas, all of North River; Mrs. Abbott Morris, Camp

he sold real estate for a time in Brooklyn, and later that year he joined the Title Guaranty and Trust Company's Long Island City
Branch, as well as getting marlied on Dec. 3 of that year.

Glenn.

Mrs. Dorothy Whitley, Mrs. Eugene Davis, Mrs. B. O. Ketner, Wildwood; Mrs. Pauline Wade,
Mrs. Eugene Davis, Williston; Mrs.
Tony Seamon, Mrs. Gordon Laugh-

will Point.

Mrs. Frank Simpson, Mrs. Stanmrs. Frank Simpson, Mrs. Stanmrs. Frank Simpson, Mrs. Stanmrs. Frank Simpson, Mrs. Stanley Gillikin, and Mrs. Dyon Simp-son, Bettie; Mrs. Monroe White-hurst and Mrs. Richard Whitehurst, Gloucester; Mrs. A. H. Tallman, Russells Creek; Mrs. Floyd Gar-ner, Mrs. Letha Henderson and Mrs. John Kelly, Newport.

Van Potter, 77, of Beaufort, is a firm believer in getting fun out of life. As he worded it, "I like to make play out of my work." Van attended school here and at the age of 16 the family moved again. This time they went to Washington, D. C., where the elder Mr. Potter was a government employee hired during the Grover A retired bank employee who Cleveland administration in 1894. Van said that his schooling in Beaufort was rather meager, when it was considered that he was 16 and only in the eighth grade at He was graduated from Eastern ears in college he contacted a which had brought a load of lumritory to teach at Spalding School. ber to Arlington, Va. Captain of the boat was John Beveridge and territory was admitted as a state. Being forever musically minded, Mr. Potter signed up with him aboard the ship as a crew member and made the return trip to headed to New York to continue aboard another sailing schooner captained by Jim Ireland. While in high school in Washington, he sang in the school's male quartet and met his wife through one of the other members of the foursome. His wife, Mrs. Josephine Gra-

Van Potter

Taught in Oklahoma After graduating from college where he was a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity, whose pin he still proudly wears, Van went to Muscogee in the Oklahoma Ter-

He returned to Washington

m Potter, was the sister of one of the quartet members.

his singing.

Arriving in the big city in 1906, he sold real estate for a time in Mrs. Branch, as well as getting mar-ried on Dec. 3 of that year. This coming December mark the Potter's 50th wedding anniversary.

As an employee of the bank, he installed a tax-searching system and became head of the title plant of the bank for Kings County (Brooklyn).

See SPOTLIGHT, Page 2