Billy Crawford, Jo Anne Powell Married in Raleigh Church Friday

The marriage of Miss Jo Anne Powell of Raleigh to Mr. William Oliver Crawford of Beaufort was solemnized Friday, Feb. 10 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in the chapel of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church, Raleigh.

The Rev. Dr. John Kincheloe officiated, and music was presented by Mrs. Hackett Applewhite, organist, and J. D. Ringold, soloist.

The bride wore a white satin and french illusion gown fashioned with a peplum of handpleated chintilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. Her two-tiered fingertip veil of illusion fell from a calot of lace and pearls.

She carried a shower bouquet of tuberoses, lilies of the valley and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Molly Alice Powell was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a rosebud pink nylon net and satin gown. Her headpiece was of net with pink lilies of the valley, and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, tuberoses and stephanotis.

Miss Julia Marie Rasmussen of Wilson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown similar to the honor attendants'.

Patricia Irene Powell, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon lace and satin gown with matching headpiece and carried a miniature bouquet.

Mr. J. S. Steed of Beaufort was best man for his nephew and ushers were James Steed of Beaufort, cousin of the bridegroom, Billy Powell, brother of the bride, Tommy Thomas and Richard Gordon, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony, the bridal couple greeted guests in the church vestibule.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Powell of Raleigh. She is a member of the senior class at Wake Forest, member of Tassels, president of the Woman's Recreation Association and a majorette with the Wake Forest College Band.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. D. Parker of Greenville and L. E. Crawford of Lenox, Ga. He is a graduate of Beaufort High School, has served three years with the Coast Guard and is now a member of the junior class at Wake Forest.

The bridal couple will resume their studies at Wake Forest College following a wedding trip.
